Vivre De Paysage Ou L'impensé De La Raison:

Vivre de paysage ou L'impensé de la Raison François Jullien, 2014-05-21 T00:00:00+02:00 En d'abord finissant le paysage comme la partie d'un pays que la nature présente un observateur qu'avons-nous oublié Car l'espace ouvert par le paysage est-il bien cette portion d'étendue qu'y découpe l'horizon Car sommes-nous devant le paysage comme devant un spectacle Et d'abord est-ce seulement par la vue qu'on peut y accéder ou que signifie regarder En nommant le paysage montagne s'eau x la Chine qui est la première civilisation avoir pensé le paysage nous sort puissamment de tels partis pris Elle dit la corrélation du Haut et du Bas de l'immobile et du mouvant de ce qui a forme et de ce qui est sans forme ou encore de ce qu'on voit et de ce qu'on entend Dans ce champ tensionnel instauré par le paysage le perceptif devient en même temps affectif et de ces formes qui sont aussi des flux se dégage une dimension d'esprit qui fait entrer en connivence Le paysage n'est plus affaire de vue mais du vivre Une invitation remonter dans les choix impensés de la Raison ainsi qu'à reconsidérer notre implication plus originaire dans le monde François Jullien

Living Off Landscape François Jullien, 2018-01-09 Is it only through vision that we can perceive a landscape Is the space opened by the landscape truly an expanse cut off by the horizon Do we observe a landscape in the way that we watch a show What ultimately does it mean to look In this important new book one of France's most influential living theorists argues that the first civilization to truly consider landscape was China In giving landscape the name mountain s water s the Chinese language provides a powerful alternative to Western biases The Chinese conception speaks of a correlation between high and low between the still and the motile between what has form and what is formless between what we see and what we hear No longer a matter of vision landscape becomes a matter of living François Jullien invites the reader to explore reasons unthought choices and to take a fresh look at our more basic involvement in the world

Fernando Pessoa and Philosophy Bartholomew Ryan, Giovanbattista Tusa, Antonio Cardiello, 2021-10-21 This pioneering volume explores the extraordinary Portuguese poet Fernando Pessoa 1888-1935 and his relationship to philosophy On the one hand this book reveals Pessoa's serious knowledge of philosophy and playful philosophical explorations and how he has the gift of synthesizing appropriating and subverting complex ideas into his art and on the other hand the chapters shed new light on central aspects and problems of philosophy through the prism of Pessoa's diverse writings The volume includes sixteen new essays from an international group of scholars analyzing Pessoa's multifaceted poetic work alongside philosophical themes and movements from conceptions of time ancient and modern aesthetics philosophy of language transcendentalism immanence and nihilism to Islamic philosophy Indian philosophy Daoism neo-paganism and the philosophy of the self The breadth of his work provides a springboard for new thinking on the aesthetic and the spiritual the logic of value and capitalist modernity and ecological thought and postmodernism The volume also includes the most complete English translation of Pessoa's text written by his heteronym Ilvaro de Campos called Notes for the Memory of my Master Caeiro

Somaesthetics and Design Culture, 2023-04-03 Design permeates every dimension of our lifeworld from the products we consume and the built environments in which we live to the adorned and stylized beings that we are and the natural preserves where we seek relief from the stressful bustle of urban life Design is where contrasting values of functionality and aesthetic pleasure converge At the core of design is the human soma an active perceptive subjectivity that creates and evaluates design but is also its cultivated product This collection of ten essays explores the somaesthetics of design in multiple fields from ritual craft and healthcare to architecture urbanism and the new media of extended realities

Comparative Philosophy and Method Steven Burik, Robert Smid, Ralph Weber, 2022-02-10 Addressing arguments that comparative philosophy is itself impossible or that it is indistinguishable from philosophy more generally this collection challenges myopic understandings of comparative method and encourages a more informed consideration Bringing together a wide variety of methodological options it features scholars spread across the globe representing multiple philosophical traditions From the beginnings of comparative philosophy in the 19th century to present day proposals for more global philosophy departments every chapter serves as a viable methodological alternative for any would be philosophical comparativist With contributions from leading comparativists that are both distinctive in their method and explicit about its application this valuable resource challenges and enriches the awareness and sensitivity of the beginning comparativist and seasoned veteran alike

Fragility and Antifragility in Cities and Regions Francesco Curci, Daniele Chiffi, 2024-01-18 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 License It is free to read download and share on Elgaronline.com Offering a novel and interdisciplinary approach this thought provoking book critically analyses the notions of fragility and antifragility and addresses their connections and applications in planning theory urban studies and architecture It goes beyond the risk and resilience paradigm and proposes methodological and pragmatic strategies to cope with severe forms of uncertainty and socio spatial inequalities

From Being to Living : a Euro-Chinese lexicon of thought François Jullien, Michael Richardson, Krzysztof Fijalkowski, 2019-11-25 This new English translation of François Jullien's work is a compelling summation of his thinking on the comparison between Western and Chinese thought The title From Being to Living summarises his essential point that western thinking is obsessed by and determined as well as limited by the notion of Being whereas traditional Chinese thought was always situated in Living Organized as a lexicon around some 20 concepts that juxtapose Chinese and Western thought Jullien explores the ways the two have historically evolved and how many aspects of Chinese thought developed in complete isolation from the West revealing a different way of relating to the world Translated by Michael Richardson and Krzysztof Fijalkowski this text explores Chinese thinking and language in order to excavate elements from them that reveal the fault lines of western thinking This is an important book for students scholars and practitioners alike across the Social Sciences

Authority and Displacement in the English-Speaking World (Volume II) Florence Labaune-Demeule, 2016-01-14 Whether one thinks of the modern world or of more remote times both seem to have been affected if not moulded by the interaction between the

concepts of authority and displacement Indeed political and social sources of authority have often been the causes of major geographical displacements as can be illustrated by the numerous waves of migration which have been observed in the past and which are still present today such as the transportation of slaves from African to American coasts in colonial times If displacement can often be understood as spatial displacement it can also be synonymous with psychological social and even aesthetic displacement for instance through different artistic means or through the use of stylistic discursive devices Displacement also entails displacement dislocation as well as dislocation or chaos This suggests that the etymological meaning of the term authority auctoritas has to be highlighted thus referring to the author of a particular work and to the different manifestations of the authorial persona in a work of art This collection of essays in two volumes examines the relationships between the concepts of authority and displacement in the English speaking world without restricting the analysis to a particular area or to the field of literature Some essays do indeed deal with literature from different spatial areas and temporal eras while others look into these concepts from a more cultural or aesthetic point of view Volume Two Exploring American Shores includes essays on the place of famous fugitives in American culture notably through the story of Bonnie and Clyde as well as on the links between displacement authority and sculpture on the one hand Placing and Replacing the Capitol Sculptures and on the links between displacement and photography on the other through a study of Joel Sternfeld's Walking the High Line In addition to investigations of Louise Erdrich's novel Books and Islands in Ojibwe Country Canadian landscapes in transit will be studied to highlight the displacement of the Western landscape tradition in English Canada The volume concludes with a study of some literary works by several writers of Guyanese origin first with an essay comparing Martin Carter's and L. on Gontran Damas's literary productions and then with an essay devoted to Fred D. Aguiar's novel The Longest Memory 1994

Ecological Reasonings Kilian Jörg, 2024-10-17 What role does reason have in tackling the catastrophic ecological situation of the early 21st century Can the concept shrug off its problematic role in Western epistemology and find a new place and function in dealing with the Anthropocene In Ecological Reasonings Kilian Jörg argues that we ignore reason at our peril This book revolves around the idea that in order to salvage reason we must include it in the current move to pluralize the key concepts of Western philosophy where we once talked of nature science and technology we now talk about nature's sciences and technologies In the same way it is time to reconceptualize reason as reasonings a diverse and multi-perspectival wealth of interactions that can create a vital alternative to the mainstream academic thought Drawing on a broad span of theoretical traditions including new materialism eco-feminism embodied performance and speculative philosophy Jörg weaves countless voices and aspects together to demonstrate the rich texture of his pluralized vision The impact of these new reasonings on the pressing challenges of our time can be seen in the sheer scope of these elements from the role of artificial intelligence to the post-truth society and how science can shape our own self-understanding

explores new pedagogical challenges and potentials of the Anthropocene era The authors argue that this new epoch with an unstable climate new kinds of globally spreading viruses and new knowledges calls for a new way of educating and an alertness to new philosophies of education and pedagogical imaginations thoughts and practices Addressing the linkages between the Anthropocene and Pedagogy across a broad pedagogical spectrum that is both formal and informal the editors and their contributors emphasize a re imagining of education that serves to deepen our understanding of the capacities and values of life Twenty-First-Century Perspectives on British Travel Writing Samia Ounoughi,Emmanuelle

Peraldo,Anne-Florence Quaireau,2025-03-11 Twenty First Century Perspectives on British Travel Writing evidences the evolution of travel writing studies over the last two decades and points to innovative ways to study this heterogeneous genre This volume seeks to build bridges between the study of travel writing and disciplines of sciences and human sciences so that the analyses of travel texts images and objects lead to interdisciplinary enrichment This volume revisits the complicated relationship between fact and fiction science and literature and the world and the word through transdisciplinary approaches Through case studies of British travel writing from the eighteenth to the twenty first centuries the contributors provide illustrations of the fruitful intersection of travel writing studies with other methodologies such as literary studies gender studies postcolonial studies visual studies areal studies engineering studies food studies animal studies ecocriticism posthumanism and geocriticism Vers une approche géopoétique Rachel Bouvet,2015-05-06T00:00:00-04:00

First full scale thematic analysis of Pina Bausch s Tanztheater critically evaluating the impact of modernist theatre on her choreographic method Forms of Experienced Environments Nathalie Blanc,Théa Manola,Patrick Degeorges,2020-02-26 This book explores environmental forms in terms of their relationships to the socio politico ecological transformations currently in progress Today the environment is a central theme in political discourse scientific work and everyday life It is multi dimensional it is a living space a socio ecological system and a field of research and action However despite the presence and diversity of existing approaches the ways in which policies address environmental issues remain mainly focused on control highlighting the techno ecological managerial and curative dimensions of public actions Although public action tends to instrumentalise the environment the humanities and social sciences have initiated significant reflections in this field proposing alternative ways of thinking about the environment in its multiple aspects and scales As part of another approach to the environment that mirrors contemporary developments this book adopts a form based approach which has been largely neglected by previous studies dealing with environmental themes The analyses provided here will open up a new perspective on the relationships between people aesthetics and environments and are drawn from different schools of research highlighting the huge potential of reading the environment through forms or conversely a reading of environmental forms

Corporate Talent Detection and Development Yves Richez, 2018-12-18 Talent is not a matter of status nor a sub component of personality nor a commodity that can be quantified or measured This book consists of two parts The first offers a fertile resource epistemological and theoretical to consider the notion of talent as well as notions of potential intelligence and business skills The second part in turn investigates ten major families of talents or Natural Operating Modes From Marie Curie to Walt Disney Hans Zimmer Gabrielle Chanel and Claude L vi Strauss the illustrations and examples are intended to be precise and demonstrative Skills relating to observation evaluation and elucidation are developed in detail and complemented with concrete examples Both managers and employees can use this book to acquire the solid bases required to potentiate and develop their talents within their respective company and beyond The Cinema of Jia Zhangke Cecília Mello, 2019-07-25 Shortlisted for the BAFTSS 2020 Award for Best Monograph Despite his films being subjected to censorship and denigration in his native China Jia Zhangke has become the country's leading independent film director internationally Seen as one of world cinema's foremost auteurs he has played a crucial role in documenting and reflecting upon China's era of intense transformations since the 1990s Cecília Mello provides in depth analysis of Jia's unique body of work from his early films Xiao Wu and Platform to experimental quasi documentary 24 City and the audacious Mountains May Depart Mello suggests that Jia's particular expression of the realist mode is shaped by the aesthetics of other Chinese artistic traditions allowing Jia to unearth memories both personal and collective still lingering within the ever changing landscapes of contemporary China Mello's groundbreaking study opens a door into Chinese cinema and culture addressing the nature of the so called impure cinematographic art and the complex representation of China through the ages Foreword by Walter Salles Hospitalities Merle A. Williams, 2020-12-23 This collection of imaginative essays traces notions of hospitality across a sequence of theoretical permutations not only as an urgent challenge for our conflicted present but also as foundational for ethics and resonant within the play of language The plural form of the title highlights the inter implication of hospitality with its exclusive others holding suspicious rejection in tension with the receptiveness that transforms socio cultural relations Geographically the collection traverses the globe from Australia and Africa to Britain Europe and the United States weaving exchanges from south to north as well as south to south and thoughtfully remapping our world Temporally the chapters range from the primordial hospitality offered by the earth through the Middle Ages to contemporary detention centres and the crisis of homelessness Thematically hospitality embraces sites of dwelling and the land humans and animals in their complex embodiment spectres and the dead dolls and art objects This text openly welcomes the reader to participate in shaping fresh critical discourses of the hospitable whether in literary and linguistic studies art and architecture philosophy or politics Mountains, Rivers, and the Great Earth Jason M. Wirth, 2017-06-05 FINALIST for the 2017 Foreword INDIES

Book of the Year Award in the Philosophy category Meditating on the work of American poet and environmental activist Gary Snyder and thirteenth century Japanese Zen Master Eihei Dogen Jason M Wirth draws out insights for understanding our relation to the planet's ongoing ecological crisis He discusses what Dogen calls the Great Earth and what Snyder calls the Wild as being comprised of the play of waters and mountains emptiness and form and then considers how these ideas can illuminate the spiritual and ethical dimensions of place The book culminates in a discussion of earth democracy a place based sense of communion where all beings are interconnected and all beings matter This radical rethinking of what it means to inhabit the earth will inspire lovers of Snyder's poetry Zen practitioners environmental philosophers and anyone concerned about the global ecological crisis Terra Forma Frederique Ait-Touati,Alexandra Arenes,Axelle Gregoire,2022-02-01

Charting the exploration of an unknown world our own with a new cartography of living things rather than space available for conquest or colonization This book charts the exploration of an unknown world our own Just as Renaissance travelers set out to map the terra incognita of the New World the mapmakers of Terra Forma have set out to rediscover the world that we think we know They do this with a new kind of cartography that maps living things rather than space emptied of life and available to be conquered or colonized The maps in Terra Forma lead us inward not off into the distance moving from the horizon line of conventional cartography to the thickness of the ground from the global to the local Each map in Terra Forma is based on a specific territory or territories and each tool or model creates a new focal point through which the territory is redrawn The maps are living maps always under construction spaces where stories and situations unfold They may map the Earth's underside rather than its surface suggest turning the layers of the Earth inside out link the biological physiology of living inhabitants and the physiology of the land or trace a journey oriented not by the Euclidean space of GPS but by points of life These speculative visualizations can constitute the foundation for a new kind of atlas Aesthetics of Weather

Madalina Diaconu,2024-09-19 In an age of rife consumption and increasing need for consideration of sustainable social practices an exploration of the aesthetics of weather from various angles becomes vital in shedding light on its importance to our experience of the changing world In response offering the first in depth and nuanced examination of the aesthetics of weather this book underlines the relevance the concept has for scientific communication for fostering sustainable patterns of behaviour and for rejecting the environmentally damaging consumption of landscapes and fine weather In addition it provides examples taken from global contemporary popular culture whilst calling attention to the socioeconomic and political dimensions of individual experience demonstrating and analysing our fascination with and cultural interpretations of weather phenomena in our everyday lives Within its three sections the volume reinvents traditional phenomenological methods to create socially politically and historically embedded phenomenographies and explore the importance of aesthetic practices in shaping our experience of weather and climate It also provides a deeper engagement with general topics such as the relationship between perception emotion imagination and cognition in our aesthetic experience of the weather combining these with aesthetic analyses of the so called fine weather With its broad scope of inquiry ranging from Aristotle to eco phenomenology from the pioneers of scientific meteorology to contemporary art and from everyday aesthetics to geoengineering this book argues that an aesthetics of weather inflected by greater knowledge and the taking of a critical stance towards aestheticism can become a valuable ally to climate ethics in the Anthropocene
