

RESEARCH PROPOSAL VERSUS RESEARCH REPORT

Research Proposal describes what the researcher intends to do and why he intends to do it

Written at the beginning of a research proposal before the research project actually begins

Contain sections such as introduction/background, literature review, research questions, methodology, aims and objectives

Shorter in length

Research report describes what the researcher has done, why he has done it, and the results he has achieved

Completed after the completion of the whole research project

Contain sections such as introduction/background, literature review, research questions, methodology, aims and objective, findings, analysis, results, conclusion, recommendations and citations

Longer than research proposals
