

NEW YORK POLICE ACCIDENT REPORT

(FORM MV-104A)

On the left and right, the vehicles involved in the crash are described, beginning with the name and contact information for the driver of each vehicle.

If any citations were given to the driver of either vehicle, they are documented in section 5. This may be evidence of negligence.

The first section is an overview of the accident as a whole: the date and time, location, number of vehicles, and number of injuries and fatalities.

Below the driver information is identifying information for the vehicles themselves, including the name and address on the registration as well as the license plate, year, make and model.

The middle of the page documents vehicle damage, including both location and severity. The accident diagram must show the direction of travel with each vehicle numbered.

Carefully review the written description. Any information that doesn't fit elsewhere in the report will be recorded here.
