Social Work in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Settings Albert R. Roberts, David W. Springer, 2007 In this completely revised and updated classic Professors Roberts and Springer along with 51 justice oriented and forensic experts have set the standard of care for mental health treatment and the delivery of social services to crime victims juvenile and adult offenders and their families The second edition of Social Work in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Settings was published almost ten years ago in 1997 and was also translated to Chinese Now Dr Roberts Dr Springer and their team of 51 prominent chapter authors have done such a thorough job of updating and finding new authors that the end result is a comprehensive new book In this third edition 16 of the 31 chapters are new and specially written for this book. A growing number of mental health professionals are recognizing the need to examine current evidence based program developments, assessment and treatment practices with crime victims and offenders. This book focuses on the multiple roles and practices of justice social workers, also known as forensic social workers and crisis counselors. Many professional social workers, counselors and field placement students work in corrections and probation, forensic mental health, addictions treatment, juvenile justice, victim assistance and police social work settings. In the words of Dean Barbara W. White, former President, Council on Social Work Education and NASW, in her laudatory Foreword to this edition: "This groundbreaking book provides the necessary blueprints and guidelines for best practices with crime victims as well as juvenile and adult offenders in institutional, community based diversion and aftercare programs. This is the first all inclusive, authoritative, exceptionally well written volume on social policies and social work practices in both juvenile justice and criminal justice settings. This book is a landmark achievement. An increasing number of offenders and victims have been found to be . . . Handbook of School Violence Edwin R. Gerler, Jr., 2013-04-03. Your school must be prepared to face problems that range from name calling and bullying to extortion, rape and homicide. Decrease the chances of tragedy and learn how to respond most effectively. This essential handbook explores the causes of school violence, presents state of the art information on preventing school violence and arms you with practical interventions to use when violent incidents occur. You will also learn about the best Internet sites on school violence issues. This book, prepared by the editor of the Journal of School Violence, can help you decrease the chances of tragedy. It will also show you how to respond effectively when violence does occur. Part I: Causes of School Violence focuses on the ways that connectedness and identification with academics influence school violence. This section presents a framework for creating developmental interventions as well as a chapter examining the concept of bonding to school with two interesting scenarios to consider. Part II: Prevention of School Violence examines the effectiveness of interventions in use today and brings you important information on threat assessment, peer mediation and weapons reduction. You will also find an insightful chapter on the value of developing empathy and good communication with youth who are gang members. Part III: Interventions in Cases of School Violence provides you with effective strategies to address the consequences of crisis events and takes an incisive look at crisis events themselves: what they are, how they progress and what you may encounter in their aftermath. In addition, you get an invaluable inside look at crisis intervention and support services in the aftermath of the 2001 Santana High School shootings in San Diego, California. With your purchase of this essential handbook, you will also be kept up to date by the author's new Internet forum, a space where scholars and practitioners from around the world come together to create new strategies for school violence prevention and intervention and develop new online and print publications that address school violence. When I was like 11, I was hanging out. I used to go to a middle school. It was for bad people only. Bad people go there. It's a school just for bad people that had gotten kicked out of school. And I had got kicked out of my school cause they found me with a gun The Handbook of School Violence brings together many voices those of violent youngsters and the helpers who provide the care they need those of students who feel no connection with their families or with their work at school those of the professionals who strive to prevent these students from acting on their feelings of alienation in violent ways and those of scholars who create theory and research laying the foundation for prevention and intervention Add this book to your collection and you will benefit from the contributions of this rich chorus of voices And through the Internet forum the chorus can add a new voice yours Visit the Handbook of School Violence Web site at <http://geneslight.com/hsv/files/about.html>

SOCIAL WORK IN JUVENILE AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEMS (4th Ed.) David W. Springer, Albert R.

Roberts, 2017-05-16 Social Work in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Systems sets the standard of care for mental health treatment and the delivery of social services to crime victims juvenile and adult offenders and their families The chapters all authored by experts in the field and all committed to the mission of social justice are written with the clear understanding that we cannot study criminal justice in a vacuum Therefore a major focus of the book is on the renewed growing sense of the profession's obligation to social justice Each chapter interconnects with the various components of juvenile and criminal justice Another prominent aspect of the book is that it is strength based It views those involved in the criminal and juvenile justice systems as individuals rather than inmates or criminals each with unique positive talents and abilities The book is divided into four sections The first section discusses forensic social work including crime and delinquency theories trends and ethical issues The second section prepares social workers for practice in correctional institutions and explores crisis intervention with victims of violence reentry of adult offenders in society and aging in prison The third section covers assessment and intervention in child sexual abuse mental health and substance abuse interpersonal violence and prevention child welfare and juvenile justice The final section presents an overview on social work in the twenty first century which includes restorative justice and the justice system new ways of delivering justice domestic violence neighborhood revitalization race and ethnicity and social work practice with LGBTQ offenders This book will be the best single source on social work in criminal justice settings and will prove to be an invaluable resource for the many professionals who have responsibility for formulating and carrying out the mandates of the criminal justice system Critical Issues in Policing

Roger G. Dunham, Geoffrey P. Alpert, 2015-02-19 The Seventh Edition of Critical Issues in Policing includes many new and updated contributions that offer fresh perspectives and research on the most current trends in policing The entire collection of 34 articles carefully chosen for their broad application sharpens readers sense and understanding of the complexities of police work Styles of policing uses of technology and roles played by citizens in determining a proper measure of performance in law enforcement are among the essential topics addressed Comprehensive and fair Critical Issues in Policing provides ready access to the brightest and best minds in the field of policing encouraging readers to hold police accountable for specific goals tasks and objectives and to work in concert with citizens to promote secure communities Ending Gang and Youth Violence Report Great Britain: Home Office, 2012-11-27 This report follows on from last year's report published in November 2011 after the August riots. The Ending Gang and Youth Violence programme which came from the report was designed to provide peer support to the 29 areas across the country facing the biggest challenges in relation to youth violence and gangs. Ten million pounds of Home Office funding was re-prioritised for 2012/13 to help these areas build their capacity to respond effectively to their particular local issues. This programme built on the work already underway to reduce youth violence in three police force areas: London, Greater Manchester and the West Midlands under the Communities against Guns, Gangs and Knives programme. This report sets out the collective achievements since last November in terms of national cross-government policy and in terms of particular actions in local areas facilitated or otherwise supported by the frontline Ending Gang and Youth Violence team. It also looks at building on this success over the next year and beyond. Decisions about the support to local areas after April 2013 will be made in the context of Government budgetary considerations following the Chancellor's statement in December. The report looks at making it happen locally: partnership working and information sharing, youth violence and health, the Criminal Justice response, women, girls and gangs, and understanding what works. There is also a summary of actions set out in this report.
