curriculum and state of the art implementation Your Curriculum Companion: Libby Woodfin, Suzanne Nathan Plaut, Sarah Boddy Norris, 2021-02-01 This essential guide to the EL Education 6-8 Language Arts Curriculum is one part roadmap to the curriculum, one part orientation to its instructional practices, and one part coach to answer your questions, relieve your stress, and put you and your students on the path to success. Your Curriculum Companion explores the foundations of the curriculum, including the principles and research it was built on, and the instructional practices that make it unique. The book is designed to help you look under the hood at practices embedded throughout the curriculum so that you can sharpen your instruction, support students to be leaders of their own learning, and make well-informed changes to best meet your students' needs. Key features of Your Curriculum Companion include: Twenty-two accompanying videos see the curriculum in action; Task cards for guidance on how to plan when the planning has been done for you; A deep dive into the purpose and structure of close reading, including a sample annotated lesson; An exploration of the relationship between reading and writing, and how the curriculum is designed to help students become strong communicators, including an annotated read-think-talk-write lesson; The why, what, and how of supporting students to meet grade-level expectations; supporting students who need additional challenges; and supporting English language learners. Guidance for turning evidence of student progress into usable data that can inform your instruction. Read, Discuss, and Learn Lisa A. Fisher,2010-08-16 Literacy groups promote discussion and learning through the exploration of text but many educators are hesitant to adopt them For current and future secondary teachers administrators and curriculum directors Read Discuss and Learn provides support and guidance so educators can confidently involve students within the learning process at a deep level This is a practical resource guide that walks teachers through the use of literacy groups within their classrooms over a typical 365 day journey of secondary students The author provides educators with the tools to think about literacy groups to create literacy groups and to design the best assessment to adequately evaluate students comprehension and mastery of new content

Topologies of the Classical World in Children's Fiction Claudia Nelson,Anne Morey,2019-10-24 Beginning with Rudyard Kipling and Edith Nesbit and concluding with best selling series still ongoing at the time of writing this volume examines works of twentieth and twenty first century children s literature that incorporate character types settings and narratives derived from the Greco Roman past Drawing on a cognitive poetics approach to reception studies it argues that authors typically employ a limited and powerful set of spatial metaphors palimpsest map and fractal to organize the classical past for preteen and adolescent readers Palimpsest texts see the past as a collection of strata in which each new era forms a layer superimposed upon a foundation laid earlier map texts use the metaphor of the mappable journey to represent a protagonist s process of maturing while gaining knowledge of the self and or the world fractal texts in which small parts of the narrative are thematically identical to the whole present the past in a way that implies that history is infinitely repeatable While a given text may embrace multiple metaphors in presenting the past associations between dominant metaphors genre and outlook emerge from the case studies examined in each chapter revealing remarkable thematic continuities in how the past is represented and how agency is attributed to protagonists each model it is suggested uses the classical past to urge and thus perhaps to develop a particular approach to life
