

Nickel and Dimed

As we read this compelling novel, I'd like you to approach it from several different aspects, and then put everything together into a portfolio.

1.) Themes: What kinds of ideas is Barbara Ehrenreich exploring? What do you think she wants to teach you? We'll do many activities relating to the themes she reveals.

2.) Vocabulary: Although this is not a difficult book to read overall, Ehrenreich does use the occasional unusual word or word it is difficult to contextually extract. You will keep a "word file" as one of your assignments.

3.) Research question: During 1st quarter and based upon your reading, you will choose a related research question. You choose the question and clear it with me—you must be able to explain how the question relates to the book in order to clear it with me.

4.) Annotated Bibliography: Also during 1st quarter and after you have cleared your research question, you will do an Annotated Bibliography of at least six sources which relate to your topic. At least four of the six sources must be different (i.e. you can't use six websites.)

5.) Research Paper: In 2nd quarter, you'll be doing a persuasive research paper that makes an argument based on your conclusions from what you learned from reading the book and reading the sources in your Annotated Bibliography. You must use at least three of the six AB sources in your argument. The paper needs to have in-text citations as well as a Works Cited on the last page. The paper should be at least 1,500 words, but can go as high as 3,000. It is my hope that you'll be fired up about your topic at this point, and that you'll have a desire to "go crazy" expressing your opinion! ☺

6.) Journal: We'll be talking as a group about many of the issues raised in this book, and you'll have the opportunity to "blog" about those issues. You can put your blogs in your word file.

The Annotated Bibliography will be turned in for a grade during 1st quarter, and the Research Paper will be turned in for a grade 2nd quarter. Consider these your "first final drafts." I will be commenting and returning these to you. You need to take my comments and suggestions, as well as any conferences we have, and prepare them perfectly to turn in with your portfolio. These will be your "final, final drafts." This portfolio will be at least one part of your final for Composition 111.
