Tease M F Seduction Erotica:

Monuments, Objects, Histories Tapati Guha-Thakurta, 2004-08-05 Art history as it is largely practiced in Asia as well as in the West is a western invention In India works of art sculptures monuments paintings were first viewed under colonial rule as archaeological antiquities later as architectural relics and by the mid 20th century as works of art within an elaborate art historical classification Tied to these views were narratives in which the works figured respectively as sources from which to recover India's history markers of a lost antique civilization and symbols of a nation's unique aesthetic reflecting the progression from colonialism to nationalism The nationalist canon continues to dominate the image of Indian art in India and abroad and yet its uncritical acceptance of the discipline's western orthodoxies remains unquestioned the original motives and means of creation unexplored The book examines the role of art and art history from both an insider and outsider point of view always revealing how the demands of nationalism have shaped the concept and meaning of art in India The author shows how western custodianship of Indian antiquities structured a historical interpretation of art how indigenous Bengali scholarship in the late 19th and early 20th centuries attempted to bring Indian art into the nationalist sphere how the importance of art as a representation of national culture crystallized in the period after Independence and how cultural and religious clashes in modern India have resulted in conflicting histories and interpretations of Indian art In particular the author uses the depiction of Hindu goddesses to elicit conflicting scenarios of condemnation and celebration both of which have at their core the threat and lure of the female form which has been constructed and narrativized in art history

Monuments Objects Histories is a critical survey of the practices of archaeology art history and museums in nineteenth and twentieth century India The essays gathered here look at the processes of the production of lost pasts in modern India pasts that come to be imagined around a growing corpus of monuments archaeological relics and art objects They map the scholarly and institutional authority that emerged around such structures and artifacts making of them not only the chosen objects of art and archaeology but also the prime signifiers of the nation's civilization and antiquity The close imbrication of the colonial and the national in the making of India's archaeological and art historical pasts and their combined legacy for the postcolonial present form one of the key themes of the book Monuments Objects Histories offers both an insider's and an outsider's perspective on the growth of these scholarly fields and their institutional apparatus analyzing the ways they have constituted and recast their objects of study The book moves from a period that saw the consolidation of western expertise and custodianship of India's antiquities to the projection over the twentieth century of varying regional nativist and national claims around the country's architectural and artistic inheritance into a current period that has pitched these objects and fields within a highly contentious politics of nationhood Monuments Objects Histories traces the framing of an official national canon of Indian art through these different periods showing how the workings of disciplines and institutions have been tied to the pervasive authority of the nation At the same time it addresses the radical reconfiguration in recent times of the meaning and scope of the national leading to the kinds of exclusions and chauvinisms that lie at the root of the current endangerment of these disciplines and the monuments and art objects they encompass Seduction Snow Raven Starborn,2001 Learn how to set the mood with this sexy guide to every aspect of seduction with this collection of love poems color schemes scents recipes and activities designed for enhancing love Tease, Attraction and Seduction Richard J.
