An African Research Ethics Reader, 2024-06-11 Cultural research ethics is in a nascent phase within the field of research ethics as a whole and requires more attention and in depth articulation With specific case studies this vital volume provides unique perspectives on topics such as social autonomy vis a vis interests of individuals This volume assembles needed resources and case studies in cultural research ethics practices providing insight into current developments and future research directions It is a valuable contribution to cultural research ethics given the dearth of published literature available in this emerging field It is designed with two broad audiences in mind 1 African researchers and research organizations that want homegrown guidance about research ethics and 2 research ethicists worldwide who can use it to learn about cultural research ethics especially with respect to Africa

Religion, Disability, and Sustainable Development in Africa Chioma Ohajunwa, Kudakwashe 'AK' Dube, Ezra Chitando, 2025-02-14 This book investigates the interplay between disability and religion in Africa and what this means in the context of the Sustainable Development Goals The importance of meeting the needs of people with disabilities is highlighted specifically in several Sustainable Development Goals as well as being emphasised as a cross cutting issue across all the goals Over 1 billion people are estimated to be living with disabilities and 80% of this population live in the Global South many within Africa This book argues that within this context religion must be considered as people with disabilities often turn to religion for solace in confronting the daily struggles and pains that they face Drawing on multiple disciplinary lenses this book reflects on how traditional indigenous Abrahamic and other African minority religions and philosophies interact with disability and how this relates to the Sustainable Development Goals The book demonstrates how religions in Africa conceptualise imagine or re imagine disability in the context of key themes such as gender ecological justice health poverty education employment entrepreneurship and migration Overall the book invites researchers from across the social sciences to consider how African religious theological and philosophical ideas can help towards the inclusion of people with disabilities in the 2030 development agenda in Africa

Mafanikio Theology Tamie Davis, 2025-06-30 While the prosperity gospel is thought to be widespread in Africa there has been little scholarship exploring the variations in prosperity theologies across the continent or the impact of such theologies at a grassroots level In this study Dr Tamie Davis uses ethnographic methods including participant observation semi structured interviews and focus groups to synthesize the prosperity mafanikio theology embraced by female graduates of the Tanzania Fellowship of Evangelical Students TAFES Taking an appreciative approach Davis examines mafanikio theology s hermeneutical framework and historical and cultural influences highlighting its commonalities and discontinuities with other prosperity theologies and bringing it into conversation with global models of holism In doing so she demonstrates that this indigenous Tanzanian theology offers a holistic alternative to profligate versions of the prosperity gospel by emphasizing both human flourishing and devotion to Christ Mafanikio theology thus integrates prosperity into a holistic life of discipleship emphasizing biblical grounding and encouraging hard work and perseverance
