3-11 Margaret Mallett,2010-07-02 Winner of the United Kingdom Literacy Association s Author Award 2011 for its contribution to extending children s literacy Praise for the book This book is about making readers A compact summary of its contents would not do it justice It is the account of a life s work and it deserves thanks and readers Margaret Meek Books for Keeps on line Number 185 November 2010 This book is a cornucopia of varied pleasures offering something for all tastes presented with an awareness of the complexities of the field and communicated with commitment enthusiasm and deep knowledge Eve Bearne English 4 11 the primary school journal of The English Association Number 42 Summer 2011
Choosing and Using Fiction and Non Fiction 3 11 is a guide to the many kinds of text we want children to encounter use and enjoy during their nursery and primary school years So children s non fiction literature including autobiography biography information and reference texts is given equal status with fiction nursery rhymes picturebooks novels traditional tales playscripts and poetry The author addresses important issues and allows the voices of teachers reviewers and children to be heard The book supports teachers as they help children on their journey to becoming insightful and critical readers of non fiction and sensitive and reflective readers of fiction It also contains suggestions for practice which are in the spirit of the more flexible and creative approach to learning towards which primary schools are moving It includes help on using criteria to select quality texts of all kinds annotated booklists for each kind of text for different age groups suggestions for keeping a balance between print and screen based texts case studies showing teachers and children using texts in interesting and imaginative ways to support learning in English lessons and across the curriculum advice on developing children s visual and multimodal literacy guidance on using the school library and embedding study skills in children s wider purposes and learning critiques of key theoretical perspectives and research projects Although the main readership will be primary and student teachers it is hoped that the book will be of interest and use to anyone concerned with the role of texts in children s learning Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1971 Reforming Reading, Writing, and Mathematics S.G. Grant,2012-12-06 In this book S G Grant reports his study of how four Michigan elementary school teachers manage a range of reforms such as new tests textbooks and curriculum frameworks in three different school subjects reading writing and mathematics Two significant findings emerge from his comparison of these responses teachers responses vary across classrooms even when they teach in the same school building and also across the reforms a teacher might embrace reforms in one subject area but ignore proposed changes in another This study of teachers responses to reading writing and mathematics reform and the prospects for systemic reform is part of a growing trend to look at the intersection of curriculum policy and teachers classroom practice It is unique in the way the author looks at teachers responses to multiple subject matter reforms uses those responses as part of an analysis of the recent move toward systemic reform and employs empirical findings as a means of examining the current movement toward systemic reform

Reforming Reading Writing and Mathematics is important reading for researchers practitioners and graduate students of educational policy teaching and learning in reading writing and mathematics and elementary education and for policy analysts in universities foundations and government The Ballad of Lucy Whipple by Karen Cushman Anne Troy,2000 New ways to teach reading writing and the love of literature Cover Owls in the Family by Farley Mowat Farley Mowat,Gloria Levine,1999-02 New ways to teach reading writing and the love of literature The Lottery Rose by Irene Hunt Anne Troy,2000 Homer Price by Robert McCloskey Gloria Levine,2002 The comic genius of McCloskey and his wry look at small town America kept readers in stitches for generations Readers follow along as a boy named Homer Price foils four slick bandits using nothing but his wits and a pet skunk Illustrations The Velveteen Rabbit by Margery Williams Gloria Levine,2000 New ways to teach reading writing and the love of literature
