English as an Additional Language Polina Vinogradova,Joan Kang Shin,2020-10-29 This engaging volume on English as an Additional Language EAL argues persuasively for the importance of critical participatory pedagogies that embrace multilingualism and multimodality in the field of TESOL. It highlights the role of the TESOL profession in teaching for social justice and advocacy and explores how critical participatory pedagogies translate into English language teaching and teacher education around the world. Bringing together diverse scholars in the field and practicing English language teachers, editors Polina Vinogradova and Joan Kang Shin present 10 thematically organized units that demonstrate that language teaching pedagogy must be embedded in the larger sociocultural contexts of teaching and learning to be successful. Each unit covers one pedagogical approach and includes three case studies to illustrate how English language teachers across the world implement these approaches in their classrooms. The chapters are supplemented by discussion questions and a range of practical sources for further exploration. Addressing established and emerging areas of TESOL, topics covered include Critical and postmethod pedagogies, Translingualism, Digital literacy and multiliteracies, Culturally responsive pedagogy, Advocacy. Featuring educators implementing innovative approaches in primary, secondary, and tertiary contexts across borders, Contemporary Foundations for Teaching English as an Additional Language is an ideal text for methods and foundational courses in TESOL and will appeal to in-service and preservice English language teachers as well as students and teacher educators in TESOL and applied linguistics.

Accordingly, the Handbook aims to provide: i) foundational information on the emergence and subsequent evolution of the field; ii) state-of-the-art surveys of available theoretical and research-based and applied insights; iii) overviews of research methods in L2 writing research; iv) critical reflections on future developments; and v) explorations of existing and emerging disciplinary interfaces with other fields of inquiry.

Second Language Writing Instruction in Global Contexts Lisy Seloni, Sarah Henderson Lee, 2019-10-11. This book revisits second language L2 writing teacher education by exploring the complex layers of L2 writing instruction in non-English dominant contexts, i.e., English as a foreign language contexts. It pushes the boundaries of teacher education by specifically examining the development of teacher literacy in writing in underrepresented L2 writing contexts and re-envisioning L2 writing teacher education that is contextually and culturally situated, moving away from the uncritical embrace of Western-based writing pedagogies. It explores and expands on writing teacher education: how language teachers come to understand their own writing practices and instruction and what their related experiences are in non-English dominant contexts across the globe.
