Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms Donna Kalmbach Phillips, Mindy Legard

Larson, 2015-12-22 Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms nurtures teachers' identities as writers, connects to the realities of writing instruction in real and diverse classrooms, and encourages critical and creative thinking. This text is about writing instruction as a journey teachers and students embark on together. The focus is on learning how to teach writing through specific teaching and learning structures found in the Writing Studio: mini lessons, teacher and peer conferencing, guided writing, and sharing, celebrating, and broadcasting writing. Pedagogical features include teaching structures and strategies, Problematising Practice, classroom scenarios, assessment resources, and a Companion Website. Because a teacher who views him or herself as a writer is best positioned to implement the Writing Studio, a parallel text, Becoming a Writer, gives readers space to consider who they are as a writer, their personal process as a writer, and who they might become as a writer.

Storytelling in Early Childhood Teresa Cremin, Rosie Flewitt, Ben Mardell, Joan Swann, 2016-12-08

Storytelling in Early Childhood is a captivating book which explores the multiple dimensions of storytelling and story acting and shows how they enrich language and literacy learning in the early years. Foregrounding the power of children's own stories in the early and primary years, it provides evidence that storytelling and story acting, a pedagogic approach first developed by Vivian Gussin Paley, affords rich opportunities to foster learning within a play-based and language-rich curriculum. The book explores a number of themes and topics, including the role of imaginary play and its dynamic relationship to narrative, how socially situated symbolic actions enrich the emotional, cognitive, and social development of children, how the interrelated practices of storytelling and dramatisation enhance language and literacy learning, and contribute to an inclusive classroom culture. The challenges practitioners face in aligning their understanding of child literacy and learning with a narrow mandated curriculum, which focuses on measurable outcomes, driven by an international approach and based on new empirical studies, this volume further advances the field, offering new theoretical and practical analyses of storytelling and story acting from complementary disciplinary perspectives. This book is a potent and engaging read for anyone intrigued by Paley's storytelling and story acting curriculum, as well as those practitioners and students with a vested interest in early years literacy and language learning. With contributions from Vivian Gussin Paley, Patricia Patsy Cooper, Dorothy Faulkner, Natalia Kucirkova, Gillian Dowley McNamee, and Ageliki Nicolopoulou.
