Differentiating Development Soumhya Venkatesan,Thomas Yarrow,2012-04-01 Over the last two decades anthropological studies have highlighted the problems of development as a discursive regime arguing that such initiatives are paradoxically used to consolidate inequality and perpetuate poverty This volume constitutes a timely intervention in anthropological debates about development moving beyond the critical stance to focus on development as a mode of engagement that like anthropology attempts to understand represent and work within a complex world By setting out to elucidate both the similarities and differences between these epistemological endeavors the book demonstrates how the ethnographic study of development challenges anthropology to rethink its own assumptions and methods In particular contributors focus on the important but often overlooked relationship between acting and understanding in ways that speak to debates about the role of anthropologists and academics in the wider world The case studies presented are from a diverse range of geographical and ethnographic contexts from Melanesia to Africa and Latin America and ethnographic research is combined with commentary and reflection from the foremost scholars in the field Charismatic Leadership in

Organizations Iga Maria Lehman,2024-09-04 History is full of examples of how the skilful use of language is a fundamental aspect of charismatic leadership Traditionally this phenomenon has been studied focusing on oratory skills The book argues that the relationship between a leader and a follower has points of similarity to that which exists between a writer and a reader and that in each case former party is the agenda setter but satisfactory outcomes require a mutual endeavor Given that scholarly writing about management and organizations is inevitably a mix of the presentation of empirical truths and value judgements the ability to engage the reader intellectually and emotionally is critical in the successful dissemination of disciplinary knowledge and belief claims The book proposes a multi faceted construct of textual charisma which is created through the use of metaphors stories and personal accounts as well as the ancient construct of pistis and the contemporary notion of metadiscourse The proposed framework provides guidance for management and organization studies authors seeking to present themselves as convincing and engaging writers Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at http www.taylorfrancis.com under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license A Great Peace Maker James Gallatin,1914 Diary of James Gallatin secretary to Albert Gallatin INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR NARAYAN CHANGDER,2024-01-11 Note Anyone can request the PDF version of this practice set workbook by emailing me at cbsenet4u@gmail.com I will send you a PDF version of this workbook

Advances in Quantitative Ethnography Andrew R. Ruis, Seung B. Lee, 2021-01-28. This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the Second International Conference on Quantitative Ethnography (ICQE 2020) held in February 2021. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the conference has been postponed to 2021 and was held in online format. The 28 full papers were selected from 56 submissions. The contributions in this volume come from diverse fields and perspectives and present the studies on advantages of using quantitative ethnography methods and techniques in a number of different domains and contexts, including ethnography and statistics, human interpretation, and machine processing, etc.

Malayalam Verbs Amanda Swenson, 2019-09-23. This book, using Malayalam as a case study, provides an in-depth exploration of how inflectional suffixes should be separated from the verb and the implications this has for the syntax and semantics. Past work has proposed that Malayalam lacks a Tense Phrase and tense morphology, i.e. is tenseless. However, this book shows that Malayalam behaves differently from other tenseless languages and that it does have tense morphology. It also provides evidence that there is a Tense Phrase in the syntax. In addition, it examines what have been called the two imperfectives and argues that one is a type of progressive while the other is a pluractional marker and shows that Malayalam lacks perfect morphology and a Perfect Phrase in minimally Universal perfects. With respect to finiteness, among other things, it argues that Conjunctive Participles are best analyzed as a type of absolutive adjunct and that athu gerunds involve nominalization above the Tense Phrase level. This book will be a valuable resource for anyone interested in cross-linguistic variation in Tense Aspect Modality and/or the morphosyntax or morphosemantics of Dravidian languages.

New Paths in Theatre Translation and Surtitling Vasiliki Misiou, Loukia Kostopoulou, 2023-08-09. This collection provides an in-depth exploration of surtitling for theatre and its potential in enhancing accessibility and creativity in both the production and reception of theatrical performances. The volume collects the latest research on surtitling, which encompasses translating lyrics or sections of dialogue and projecting them on a screen.

While most work has focused on opera this book showcases how it has increasingly played a role in theatre by examining examples from well known festivals and performances The 11 chapters underscore how the hybrid nature and complex semiotic modes of theatrical texts coupled with technological advancements offer a plurality of possibilities for applying surtitling effectively across different contexts The book calls attention to the ways in which agents in theatrical spaces need to carefully reflect on the role of surtitling in order to best serve the needs of diverse audiences and produce inclusive productions from translators considering appropriate strategies to directors working on how to creatively employ it in performance to companies looking into all means available for successful implementation Offering a space for interdisciplinary dialogues on surtitling in theatre this book will be of interest to scholars in audiovisual translation media accessibility and theatre and performance studies
