Grammatical Theory and Metascience Esa Itkonen,1978-01-01 In this book the author analyses the nature of the science of grammar After presenting some methodological and historical background he sets forth a theory of language and of grammar showing that the science of grammar is not an empirical but a normative science comparable to logic and philosophy characterized by the use of the method of explication

The Transmission of Anglo-Norman Richard P. Ingham,Richard Ingham,2012 This investigation contributes to issues in the study of second language transmission by considering the well documented historical case of Anglo Norman Within a few generations of the establishment of this variety its phonology diverged sharply from that of continental French yet core syntactic distinctions continued to be reliably transmitted The dissociation of phonology from syntax transmission is related to the age of exposure to the language in the experience of ordinary users of the language The input provided to children acquiring language in a naturalistic communicative setting even though one of a school institution enabled them to acquire target like syntactic properties of the inherited variety In addition it allowed change to take place along the lines of transmission by incrementation A linguistic environment combining the here and now aspects of ordinary first language acquisition with the growing cognitive complexity of an educational meta language appears to have been adequate for this variety to be transmitted as a viable entity that encoded the public life of England for centuries

Task-Based Language Teaching in

Foreign Language Contexts Ali Shehadeh, Christine A. Coombe, 2012 This volume extends the Task Based Language Teaching Issues Research and Practice books series by deliberately exploring the potential of task based language teaching TBLT in a range of EFL contexts It is specifically devoted to providing empirical accounts about how TBLT practice is being developed and researched in diverse educational contexts particularly where English is not the dominant language By including contributions from settings as varied as Japan China Korea Venezuela Turkey Spain and France this collection of 13 studies provides strong indications that the research and implementation of TBLT in EFL settings is both on the rise and interestingly diverse not least because it must respond to the distinct contexts constraints and possibilities of foreign language learning The book will be of interest to SLA researchers and students in applied linguistics and TESOL It will also be of value to course designers and language teachers who come from a broad range of formal and informal educational settings encompassing a wide range of ages and types of language learners ENGLISH ACROSS DISCIPLINES: Proceedings of the Applied Linguistics and Language Teaching Conference 2022 Contributors: , 2024-02-09 This volume contains a selection of articles that were originally presented at the Applied Linguistics and Language Teaching International Conference and Exhibition ALLT 2022 held at Zayed University Dubai United Arab Emirates in March 2022 The articles in this volume represent the diverse backgrounds experiences and research interests of the ALLT presenters They cover a range of theoretical empirical and pedagogical practices with a strong emphasis on language teaching While most of the papers focus on English language the findings and lessons are applicable to the teaching of any language This makes the volume an invaluable resource addressing important aspects of contemporary research topics and the pedagogy of language teaching Training and Development in Transnational Higher Education Morris, Gareth, Ye, Jinting, 2025-04-23 In an era of increasing globalization institutions of higher education are no longer bound by national borders With the globalization of higher education there is a growing need for further training and development among higher education educators Teachers as well as their students encounter challenges relating to English for Academic Purposes EAP and the vast diversity in the classroom By actively seeking professional development transnational educators may enhance their own teaching competencies and careers in addition to student engagement coping strategies and critical thinking skills Training and Development in Transnational Higher Education highlights the importance of training and development within various areas including curriculum design multicultural competency and self evaluation Covering topics such as character education university partnerships and gender dynamics this book is an excellent resource for educators school administrators educational leaders curriculum developers professionals researchers scholars academicians and more Handbook of Research in Second Language Teaching and Learning Eli Hinkel, 2011-01-25 This landmark volume provides a broad based comprehensive state of the art overview of current knowledge and research into second language teaching and learning All authors are leading authorities in their areas of expertise The chapters all completely new for Volume 2 are

Research Questions in Language Education and Applied Linguistics Hassan Mohebbi, Christine Coombe, 2022-01-13 This volume encompasses the range of research questions on language related problems that arise in language teaching learning and assessment The 150 chapters are written by experts in the field who each offer their insights into current and future directions of research and who suggest several highly relevant research questions Topics include but are not limited to language skills teaching language skills assessment and testing measurement feedback discourse analysis pragmatics semantics language learning through technology CALL MALL ESP EAP ERPP TBLT materials development genre analysis needs analysis corpus content based language teaching language teaching and learning strategies individual differences research methods classroom research form focused instruction age effects literacy proficiency and teacher education and teacher development The book serves as a reference and offers inspiration to researchers and students in language education An important skill in reviewing the research literature is following a study's plan of attack Broadly this means that before accepting and acting upon the findings one considers a the research question Is it clear and focused Measurable b the subjects examined the methods deployed and the measures chosen Do they fit the study's goal and have the potential to yield useful results and c the analysis of the data Do the data lead to the discussion presented Has the author reasonably interpreted results to reach the conclusion Mohebbi and Coombe's book Research Questions in Language Education and Applied Linguistics A Reference Guide helps budding researchers take the first step and develop a solid research question As the field of language education evolves we need continual research to improve our instructional and assessment practices and our understanding of the learners language learning processes This book with its remarkable 150 topics and 10 times the number of potential research questions provides a wealth of ideas that will help early career researchers conduct studies that move our field forward and grow our knowledge base Deborah J Short Ph D Director Academic Language Research Training Past President TESOL International Association 2021-22 As a teacher in graduate programs in TESOL I frequently come across the frustration of students at centering their research interests on a particular topic and developing research questions which are worth pursuing so as to make a contribution to the field This frustration stems from the fact that our field is so vast and interrelated that it is often impossible to properly address all that interests them Hence I wholeheartedly welcome this most relevant and innovative addition to the research literature in the field of TESOL and Applied Linguistics Coombe and Mohebbi have created a real tour de force that stands to inform budding researchers in the field for many years to come Additionally the cutting edge depiction of the field and all it has to offer will no doubt update the research agendas of many seasoned researchers around the world The 150 chapters are organized in a most powerful yet deceptively simple way offering a positioning within the topic suggesting questions that might direct inquiry and offering a basic set of bibliographic tools to start the reader in the path towards research What is more the nine sections in which the chapters are organized leave no area of the field unexplored Dr Gabriel D az Maggioli Academic Advisor Institute of Education Universidad ORT del Uruguay President IATEFL Chapter Metacognition in Academic Writing Learning Dimensions is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com English Language Teaching in Pakistan Nazihah Ali Raza, Christine Coombe, 2022-02-05 This book presents empirical research on teaching learning and assessment and teacher development practices in Pakistan Despite extensive academic research conducted in Pakistan over the last decade there is a dearth of internationally published literature on English language teaching in the country This book covers current research priorities and initiatives concerning English language teaching learning and assessment empirical developments and major professional development initiatives both in Pakistan and involving the work of Pakistani scholars based abroad It highlights the impacts that development efforts are having in the ELT world in Pakistan The respective chapters cover a diverse range of topics including continuous professional development CPD identity construction English language policy curriculum development and innovative ELT approaches and methodologies used in Pakistan This volume provides valuable insights for TESOL and applied linguistics scholars and practitioners working in the field of ELT both in Pakistan and elsewhere in the globalized world Challenging Boundaries in Language Education Achilleas Kostoulas, 2019-06-08 This edited collection challenges the perceptions of disciplinary linguistic geographical and ideological borders that run across language education By highlighting commonalities and tracing connections between diverse sub fields that have traditionally been studied separately the book shows how the perspectives of practitioners and researchers working in diverse areas of language education can mutually inform each other It consists of three thematic parts Part I outlines the field of language education and challenges its definition by highlighting additional theoretical constructs that have tended to be viewed as separate from language education Part II investigates curricular boundaries showing how the language learning curriculum can be enriched by connections with other curricular areas Lastly Part III looks into the challenges and opportunities associated with language education against the backdrop of globalisation Extending the Boundaries of Research on Second Language Learning and Teaching Mirosław Pawlak, 2011-08-30 The book contains a selection of papers reflecting cutting edge developments in the field of learning and teaching second and foreign languages The contributions are devoted to such issues as classroom oriented research sociocultural aspects of language acquisition individual differences in language learning teacher development new strands in second language acquisition research as well as methodological considerations Because of its scope the diversity of topics covered and the adoption of various theoretical perspectives the volume is of interest not only to theorists and researchers but also to methodologists and practitioners and can be used in courses for graduate students

English Language Teacher Preparation in Asia Subhan Zein, Richmond Stroupe, 2018-08-06 Bringing together a comprehensive range of extended research based chapters English Language Teacher Preparation in Asia provides comprehensive insight into policy research and practical aspects of teacher preparation for English teachers at pre service level across multiple contexts in Asia Written by local and international scholars specialising in TESOL Teacher education and acknowledging the increasingly complex demands made on teachers of English in view of globalisation the book explores the multiple factors which are key to effective professional learning Chapters consider how pre service teachers are best prepared for the diverse contexts in which English is learnt and taught in settings throughout Asia and draw on in depth research studies to provide rich fully contextualised coverage of aspects of teacher preparation including curriculum design programme development policy professional learning communities assessment education and teaching practicum A timely contribution to the field of teacher preparation this text will be an invaluable resource for teacher educators pre service teachers and academics involved in the preparation of English teachers in Asia

Theory and Practice in Second Language Teacher Identity Karim Sadeghi, Farah Ghaderi, 2022-09-16 This book brings together the current theory research and practical perspectives from different parts of the world on language teacher identity in an attempt to better understand the nature of identities teachers in different contexts develop By linking theory to pedagogy the book examines how second language teacher identities are shaped and explores the various links between teacher identities and variables that affect the formation of identities Theory and Practice in Second Language Teacher Identity includes a foreword by Jack Richards University of Sydney and RELC an afterword by Peter de Costa Michigan State University and holds 20 invited chapters by established and active scholars and teacher educators to discuss the various aspects of in service and pre service second language teacher identity development It also addresses the way the COVID 19 pandemic has impacted teacher identities and examines under researched issues such as the intersection between gender and race in second language teacher identity development and identity construction in second languages other than English What does it mean to be a teacher of English as a second language in an age of globalization new media technological revolution and de institutionalized knowledge How do teachers gain pre service and in service expertise a sense of professional identity and educational integrity And how have they dealt with the extra burden imposed by the pandemic This thought provoking volume offers valuable perspectives on these important issues in the professional development of English teachers worldwide Prof Claire Kramsch University of California Berkeley USA The way we see ourselves and are seen by others influences our social and professional interactions Teacher identity and sense of agency is therefore not merely a matter of research interest for it impacts learners and learning which makes the topic of this book extremely important With chapters located in a wide range of countries from USA to Australia via UAE Thailand and others and drawing on a variety of research methods the book synthesizes extant research and develops many new research avenues It does so not only with theory in mind but with practical lessons for teachers and teacher educators and thus becomes an essential volume for our libraries and studies Prof Michael Byram University of Durham UK In this compelling collection co edited by Karim Sadeghi and Farah Ghaderi the authors address key questions about language teacher identity in contemporary applied linguistics What is the relationship between language teacher identity and language teacher agency To what extent does ideology impact language teacher identity How do language teachers navigate an increasingly globalized and unequal world Authors from different regions of the world draw on diverse methodologies to share insightful research on both pre service and in service language teacher identity making an important contribution to applied linguistics and TESOL at a time of great social and educational change Prof Bonny Norton FRSC University Killam Professor and Distinguished University Scholar University of British Columbia Canada Theory and Practice in Second Language Teacher Identity captures recent thinking about language teacher identity The broad array of excellent chapter contributions explores multiple dimensions of identity from teacher agency and emotions to the disruptive effects of the Covid pandemic on teachers professional lives and practices The studies draw on a number of theoretical perspectives and demonstrate the use of both familiar and innovative research methodologies The relevant topics the up to date bibliographic sources and the useful research findings make this edited volume an essential addition to your bookshelf Prof Gary Barkhuizen University of Auckland New Zealand
