Blue Afternoon: William Boyd, 1997-01-01 A perfect pitch story of love and redemption The New York Times Boyd's atmospheric new novel confirms his reputation as heir to the grand narrative traditions of Joseph Conrad and Somerset Maugham In 1936 Los Angeles as her long estranged father tells architect Kay Fischer the story behind her secret parentage he plunges readers into a tale of grisly murders and an illicit passion that still obsesses him 30 years later Novels of William Boyd Dr. Rajesh Shashikant Latane, 2015-02-25 have great pleasure in writing this foreword to Dr Latane's book on the Novels of William Boyd The book is a significant contribution to Boyd criticism It has discussed the early the middle and the last phase of Boyd's novels In doing if the author has defined the totality of Boyd's vision Indeed every novel is a part of this totality and the totality is more than a mere sum of the novels The reciprocal relationship between the part and the whole is the crux of novel criticism and the book has given due justice to this aspect Another important feature of the book is the analysis of the postmodernist element in Boyd's novels This critical framework can be used to analysis the postmodernist element in the contemporary Indian novel in English Even going further it can be used to analyse the Postmodernist element in the contemporary Marathi novel A thesis is really acknowledged when it become a source material for the future researchers and comparatives Mr Latane's book has that potential I heartily wish a good reception to the book Dr Prakash Deshpande Kejkar Former Professor of English Shivaji University Kolhapur The Blue Notebooks Dudley Marchi, 2018-04-07 Using language like an artist's palette the Blue Notebooks captures the special moments of everyday being New Directions 46 James Laughlin, Peter Glassgold, Griselda Jackson Ohannessian, 1983-06 Since 1936 the New Directions in Prose and Poetry anthologies have served as vehicles for the presentation of new and variant trends in world literature School Life ,1938 Blue Margin Roy Arthur Swanson,2008-09-26 The title of this s book refers to the prime oneness that Martin Heidegger identifies as earth sky divinities and mortals the unity of four that fluctuatingly frames existence To speak of this undulant frame is to use language and Language according to Heidegger is the saying of Being In this book verse seeks to reflect the undulance of language the waves of tentative rhythms and ambiguities collapse then into divagation on 1 mimesis vs metaphor and 2 anagoge the collapse is then further particularized by anagram here a calculating play of letters that links the Reformation to the small market selling shoes for example The Trial of the Honourable Augustus Keppel, Admiral of the Blue Squadron Augustus Keppel Keppel (Viscount),Thomas Blandemor,1779 The Blue and Gold ,1922 Dream of the Blue Room Michelle Richmond,2010-02-16 Jenny and Amanda Ruth were best friends in a small Alabama town until eighteen years old Amanda Ruth was murdered Now fourteen years later Jenny has traveled with her husband to China to scatter Amanda Ruth s ashes and finally fulfill her friend s dream of visiting her Chinese father s homeland It s also Jenny hopes an opportunity to repair her own troubled marriage But as she journeys through a foreign landscape the guilty secrets of Jenny s past rise up and her life will be inexorably altered From the New York Times bestselling author of The Year of Fog Highly recommended for fans of authors like Jodi Picoult and Jacquelyn Mitchard Library Journal starred review and No One You Know Luminous will keep you thinking long after the last page has been turned Family Circle Michelle Richmond s stunning novel captivates with its depiction of the powerful intimacies of marriage friendship and family that shape our paths and the bonds of home that buoy us wherever home may be The Blue Butterfly Graham Reed,2013-11-23 Billy Walker is born to a missionary family in the Democratic Republic of the Congo He runs away from boarding school in Zambia and gets tangled up in the Simba conflict His journey turns into a battle to survive and to outwit a group of commandos who are after him This graphic adventure story is set in the 1960s and recalls actual events experienced by the author giving the reader a roller coaster read through the African bush with a twist in its tail Spies in the Blue Smoke G. W. Hawkes,1992 In powerfully evocative settings that range from the American Southwest to the islands of the South Pacific G W Hawkes displays an unerring eye for detail as he maps the intricate geometry of the human heart Publishers website Math Logic, Grades 6 - 12 Pearce,2008-09-02 Make math matter to students in grades 5 and up using Math Logic This 80 page book includes logic problems at three skill levels Each nonroutine problem includes the situation variables involved and clues that help students work through the problem The logic problems meet NCTM standards for reasoning proof and problem solving The Blue Plateau Mark Tredinnick,2011-12-28 The author of The Land s Wild Music depicts Australia s Blue Mountains through stories of the land and the lives within it At the farthest extent of Australia s Blue Mountains on the threshold of the country s arid interior the Blue Plateau reveals the vagaries of a hanging climate the droughts last longer the seasons change less and the wildfires burn hotter and more often In The Blue Plateau Mark Tredinnick tries to learn what it means to fall in love with a home that is falling away A landscape memoir in the richest sense Tredinnick's story reveals as much about this contrary collection of canyons and ancient rivers cow paddocks and wild eucalyptus forests as it does about the myriad generations who struggled to remain in the valley they loved It captures the essence of a wilderness beyond subjugation the spirit of a people just barely beyond defeat Charting a lithology of indigenous presence faltering settlers failing ranches floods tragedy and joy that the place constantly warps and erodes The Blue Plateau reminds us that though we may change the landscape around us it works at us inexorably with wind and water heat and cold altering who and what we are The result is an intimate and illuminating portrayal of tenacity love grief and belonging In the tradition of James Galvin William Least Heat Moon and Annie Dillard Tredinnick plumbs the depths of people's relationship to a world in transition Praise for The Blue Plateau One of the wisest most gifted and ingenious writers you could hope to find Michael Pollan author of In Defense of Food and The Omnivore's Dilemma I've never been to Australia but now after this book it comes up in my dreams The landscape in the language of this work is alive and conscious and Tredinnick channels it in prose both wild and inspired Part nonfiction novel part classic pastoral part nature elegy part natural history the whole of The Blue Plateau conveys a deep sense rooted in the very syntax of a lush prose about an austere land that there can be no meaningful division between nature and culture between humans and all the other life that interdepends with us not in the backcountry of southeastern Australia nor anywhere else Orion Absorbed slowly as a pastoral landscape of loss and experiment in seeing and listening the book richly rewards that patience Publishers Weekly The Blue Hour Douglas Kennedy, 2017-05-30 Reluctantly agreeing to accompany her artsy intellectual husband during a month long trip to Morocco meticulous accountant Robin delights in regional culture and hopes to become pregnant only to be wrongly implicated in her husband's disappearance The Trial of the Honourable Augustus Keppel, Admiral of the Blue Squadron, for a Charge of Misconduct and Neglect of Duty, Exhibited Against Him by Vice-Admiral Sir Hugh Palliser, Etc Augustus KEPPEL (Viscount Keppel.), 1779 The Blue Scarab Richard Austin Freeman, 2006-01-01 Medico legal practice is largely concerned with crimes against the person the details of which are often sordid gruesome and unpleasant Hence the curious and romantic case of the Blue Scarab though really outside our specialty came as somewhat of a relief But to me it is of interest principally as illustrating two of those remarkable gifts which made my friend Thorndyke unique as an investigator his uncanny power of picking out the one essential fact at a glance and his capacity to produce when required inexhaustible stores of unexpected knowledge of the most out of the way subjects It was late in the afternoon when Mr James Blowgrave arrived by appointment at our chambers accompanied by his daughter a rather strikingly pretty girl of about twenty two and when we had mutually introduced ourselves the consultation began without preamble I didn't give any details in my letter to you said Mr Blowgrave I thought it better not to for fear you might decline the case It is really a matter of a robbery but not quite an ordinary robbery There are some unusual and rather mysterious features in the case And as the police hold out very little hope I have come to ask if you will give me your opinion on the case and perhaps look into it for me But first I had better tell you how the affair happened The robbery occurred just a fortnight ago about half past nine o clock in the evening I was sitting in my study with my daughter looking over some things that I had taken from a small deed box when a servant rushed in to tell us that one of the outbuildings was on fire Now my study opens by a French window on the garden at the back and as the outbuilding was in a meadow at the side of the garden I went out that way leaving the French window open but before going I hastily put the things back in the deed box and locked it The building which I used partly as a lumber store and partly as a workshop was well alight and the whole household was already on the spot the boy working the pump and the two maids carrying the buckets and throwing water on the fire My daughter and I joined the party and helped to carry the buckets and take out what goods we could reach from the burning building But it was nearly half an hour before we got the fire completely extinguished and then my daughter and I went to our rooms to wash and tidy ourselves up We returned to the study together and when I had shut the French window my daughter proposed that we should resume our interrupted occupation Thereupon I took out of my pocket the key of the deed box and turned to the cabinet on which the box always stood But there was no deed box there For a moment I thought I must have moved it and cast my eyes round the room in search of it But it was nowhere to be seen and a moment s reflection reminded me that I had left it in its usual place The only possible conclusion was that during our absence at the fire somebody must have come in by the window and taken it And it looked as if that somebody had deliberately set fire to the outbuilding for the express purpose of luring us all out of the house That is what the appearances suggest Thorndyke agreed Is the study window furnished with a blind or curtains Curtains replied Mr Blowgrave But they were not drawn Any one in the garden could have seen into the room and the garden is easily accessible to an active person who could climb over a low wall So far then said Thorndyke the robbery might be the work of a casual prowler who had got into the garden and watched you through the window and assuming that the things you had taken from the box were of value seized an easy opportunity to make off with them Were the things of any considerable value To a thief they were of no value at all There were a number of share certificates a lease one or two agreements some family photographs and a small box containing an old letter and a scarab Nothing worth stealing you see for the certificates were made out in my name and were therefore unnegotiable And the scarab That may have been lapis lazuli but more probably it was a blue glass imitation In any case it was of no considerable value It was about an inch and a half long But before you come to any conclusion I had better finish the story The robbery was on Tuesday the 7th of June I gave information to the police with a description of the missing property but nothing happened until Wednesday the 15th when I received a registered parcel bearing the Southampton postmark On opening it I found to my astonishment the entire contents of the deed box with the exception of the scarab and this rather mysterious communication He took from his pocket book and handed to Thorndyke an ordinary envelope addressed in typewritten characters and sealed with a large elliptical seal the face of which was covered with minute hieroglyphics This said Thorndyke I take to be an impression of the scarab and an excellent impression it is Yes replied Mr Blowgrave I have no doubt that it is the scarab It is about the same size Thorndyke looked quickly at our client with an expression of surprise But he asked don t you recognize the hieroglyphics on it Mr Blowgrave smiled deprecatingly The fact is said he I don t know anything about hieroglyphics but I should say as far as I can judge these look the same What do you think Nellie Miss Blowgrave looked at the seal rather vaguely and replied I am in the same position Hieroglyphics are to me just funny looking things that don t mean anything But these look the same to me as those on our scarab though I expect any other hieroglyphics would for that matter Thorndyke made no comment on this statement but examined the seal attentively through his lens Then he drew out the contents of the envelope consisting of two letters one typewritten and the other in a faded brown handwriting The former he read through and then inspected the paper closely holding it up to the light to observe the watermark

The Blue Field John Moore, 2011-09-28 Old friends and new faces join the scholars rogues and countrymen of Brensham with its crooked village street and crooked church spire Among its rare individuals who share an obstinacy for making life a romantic and hilarious adventure are those lively landgirls The Frolick Virgins Dai the hymn singing postman and William Hart who claimed to be descended from William Shakespeare and loved Pheemy the young gypsy not wisely but too well
