Krishnakumar,2022-03-26 Ecology and Biodiversity of Benthos provides insights into the characteristic features of marine and estuarine benthos that play an important role in coastal ecosystem functioning a primary level in the food chain The book provides the latest information on multidisciplinary reflections by various researchers studying the benthic community Through the chapters ecosystem services are explored as a way to share approaches and scientific methods to achieve knowledge based sustainable planning and management of benthic ecosystems This is a helpful guide for anyone working on marine and estuarine environments and for those who need an introduction to benthic ecology The book has a wide range of scientific coverage since it caters primarily to the requirement of marine ecologists marine benthologists EIA experts aquatic researchers scientists teachers and research scholars In addition to this it also serves as a reference for postgraduate undergraduate students studying aquatic ecosystems Includes analytical methods and detailed statistical interpretation for qualitative and quantitative analyses of marine and estuarine benthic community structures Presents figures schematic diagrams and photographs related to benthic diversity of coastal ecosystem to aid in understanding protocols for the assessment of the benthic community s structure and function Includes case studies throughout each chapter to increase understanding of benthic communities Participatory Biodiversity Conservation Cristina Baldauf,2020-05-13 It has long been claimed that addressing biodiversity loss and other environmental problems demands a better understanding of the social dimensions of conservation nevertheless the active participation of indigenous peoples and local communities IPLCs in conservation initiatives is still a challenging and somehow controversial issue In this context this book hopes to give voice to other perspectives related to biodiversity conservation beyond the fortress conservation model and emphasize one of the pillars of democracy popular participation It covers a wide range of environments and issues of special significance to the topic such as the expansion of culturally constructed niches protected areas and food security community based management participatory agroforestry productive restoration and biocultural conservation The contents also explore the limitations and shortcomings of participatory practices in protected areas the relationship between the global crisis of democracy and the decline of biocultural diversity as well as present current discussions on policy frameworks and governance systems for effective participatory biodiversity conservation In sum this book provides a comprehensive and realistic perspective on the social dimensions of conservation based on a series of interrelated themes in participatory biodiversity conservation The connections between biocultural conservation and the current political and economic environment are highlighted through the chapters and the book closes with a debate on ways to reconcile human welfare environmental justice and biodiversity conservation

Henri Lefebvre's Critical Theory of Space Francesco Biagi, 2020-08-08 Henri Lefebvre's Critical Theory of Space offers a rigorous analysis and revival of Lefebvre's works and the context in which he produced them Biagi traces the historical critical time frame of Lefebvre's intellectual investigations bringing to light a theoretical constellation in which historical methods intersect with philosophical and sociological issues from Marxist political philosophy to the birth of urban sociology from rural studies to urban and everyday life studies in the context of capitalism Examining Lefebvre's extended investigations into the urban sphere as well as highlighting his goal of developing a general political theory of space and of innovating Marxist thought and clarifying the various more or less accurate meanings attributed to Lefebvre's concept of the right to the city analysed in the context of the French and international sociological and philosophical political debate Henri Lefebvre's Critical Theory of Space ultimately brings the contours of Lefebvre's innovative perspective itself developed at the end of the short twentieth century back into view in all its richness and complexity Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle

, 1852 Inside the World's Major East Asian Collections Patrick Lo, Dickson KW Chiu, Allan Cho, 2017-05-03 Inside the World's Major East Asian Collections examines the rise of the LAM an acronym that stands for libraries archives and museums In doing so this book profiles leading experts librarians archivists and museum curators who specialise in East Asian collections from across the world In examining the dynamically shifting role of the cultural institution in the context of managing information and collections this book provides important themes offered by these cultural experts in understanding the necessary professional skills knowledge and personalities that are required for working in such environments of varying size scope and composition in LAMs As galleries LAMs manage preservation and access of history and culture and their missions and goals as cultural institutions continue to converge As collecting institutions LAMs share the common mandate to preserve and make accessible primary resources valuable for researchers and professionals as well as the public LAMs are mostly publicly funded publicly accountable institutions collecting cultural heritage materials Another aim of this book is to enhance the visibility and recognise the efforts of the LAM professionals as cultural institution leaders since much of their great contributions in the respective fields to preserving our cultural and documentary heritages have gone unnoticed outside their parent institutions Examines the roles and goals of cultural institutions Brings collections to life through interviews with LAM experts Presents LAMs with a focus on East Asia Serves as a platform for LAM professionals to share and exchange experiences and insights "The" Athenaeum ,1851 Rays of the World Peter Last,Gavin Naylor,Bernard Séret,William White,Marcelo de Carvalho,Matthias Stehmann,2016-12 Rays are among the largest fishes and evolved from shark like ancestors nearly 200 million years ago They share with sharks many life history traits all species are carnivores or scavengers all reproduce by internal fertilisation and all have similar morphological and anatomical characteristics such as skeletons built of cartilage Rays of the World is the first complete pictorial atlas of the world s ray fauna and includes information on many species only recently discovered by scientists while undertaking research for the book It includes all 26 families and 633 valid named species of rays but additional undescribed species exist for many groups Rays of the World features a unique collection of paintings of all living species by Australian natural history artist Lindsay Marshall compiled as part of a multinational research initiative the Chondrichthyan Tree of Life Project Images sourced from around the planet were used by the artist to illustrate the fauna This comprehensive overview of the world s ray fauna summarises information such as general identifying features and distributional information about these iconic but surprisingly poorly known fishes It will enable readers to gain a better understanding of the rich diversity of rays and promote wider public interest in the group Rays of the World is an ideal reference for a wide range of readers including conservationists fishery managers scientists fishers divers students and book collectors The Encyclopædia Britannica: Bisharin-Calgary ,1910 Paul J.
