Writers Directory NA NA,2016-03-05 Encyclopaedia of Books on China Arthur Probsthain,1927 Isan Writers, Thai Literature Martin B. Platt,2013-08-20 Regional characteristics and regional language feature prominently in discussions of Thai identity but there is little mention of regional literatures In northeastern Thailand s Isan region authors write primarily in Thai but it is possible nonetheless to identify an Isan literature which played a significant and at times pivotal role in the development of Thai literature in the second half of the twentieth century as authors grappled with how their origins and experiences related to the Thai centre Martin Platt s account of Isan literature is an important first step toward a broader study of regional literatures in Thailand and shapes a model that has relevance for examining literary works in other Asian countries The Routledge Concise History of Southeast Asian Writing in English Rajeev S. Patke,Philip Holden,2009-09-10 The Routledge Concise History of Southeast Asian Writing in English traces the development of literature in the region within its historical and cultural contexts establishing connections from the colonial activity of the early modern period through to contemporary writing across nations such as Thailand China Malaya Singapore and Hong Kong Let's Go Thailand 3rd Edition Let's Go Inc,2006-11-28 Packed with travel information including more listings deals and insider tips International Book Publishing: An Encyclopedia Philip G. Altbach,Edith S. Hoshino,2015-05-08 First Published in 1996 This encyclopedia is unique in several ways As the first international reference source on publishing it is a pioneering venture Our aim is to provide comprehensive discussion and analysis of key subjects relating to books and publishing worldwide The sixty four essays included here feature not only factual and statistical information about the topic but also analysis and evaluation of those facts and figures The chapters are significantly more comprehensive than those typically found in an encyclopedia Literature, Travel, and Colonial Writing in the English Renaissance, 1545-1625 Andrew Hadfield,1998 What was the purpose of representing foreign lands for writers in the English Renaissance This innovative and wide ranging study argues that writers often used their works as vehicles to reflect on the state of contemporary English politics particularly their own lack of representation in public institutions Sometimes such analyses took the form of displaced allegories whereby writers contrasted the advantages enjoyed or disadvantages suffered by foreign subjects with the political conditions of Tudor and Stuart England Elsewhere more often in explicitly colonial writings authors meditated on the problems of government when faced with the possibly violent creation of a new society If Venice was commonly held up as a beacon of republican liberty which England would do well to imitate the fear of tyrannical Catholic Spain was ever present inspiring and haunting much of the colonial literature from 1580 onwards This stimulating book examines fictional and non fictional writings illustrating both the close connections between the two made by early modern readers and the problems involved in the usual assumption that we can make sense of the past with the categories available to us Hadfield explores in his work representations of Europe the Americas Africa and the Far East selecting pertinent examples rather than attempting to embrace a total coverage He also offers fresh readings of Shakespeare Marlowe More Lyly Hakluyt Harriot Nashe and others

The Routledge Companion to Architectural Pedagogies of the Global South Harriet Harriss, Ashraf M. Salama, Ane Gonzalez Lara, 2022-12-30 The established canon of architectural pedagogy has been predominantly produced within the Northern hemisphere and transposed or imposed across schools within the Global South more often with scant regard for social economic political or ecological culture and context nor regional or indigenous pedagogic principles and practices Throughout the Global South architecture's academic community has been deeply affected by this regime how it shapes and influences proto professionals and by implication architectural processes and outcomes too The Routledge Companion to Architectural Pedagogies of the Global South resituates and recenters an array of pedagogic approaches that are either produced or proliferate from the Global South while antagonizing the linguistic epistemological and disciplinary conceits that under imperialist imperatives ensured that these pedagogies remained maligned or marginalized The book maintains that the exclusionary implications of architectural notions of the orders the canon and the core have served to constrain and to calcify its contents and in doing so imperiled its relevance and impact In contrast this companion of pedagogic approaches serves to evidence that architecture's academic and professional advancement is wholly contingent on its ability to fully engage in an additive and inclusive process whereby the necessary disruptions that occur when marginalized knowledge confronts established knowledge result in a catalytical transformation through which new co created knowledge can emerge Notions of tradition identity modernity vernacularism post colonialism poverty migration social and spatial justice climate apartheid globalization ethical standards and international partnerships are key considerations in the context of the Global South How these issues originate and evolve within architectural schools and curricula and how they act as drivers across all curricula activities are some of the important themes that the contributors interrogate and debate With more than 30 contributions from 55 authors from diverse regional racial ethnic gender and cultural backgrounds this companion is structured in four sections that capture critique and catalog multifarious marginalized pedagogical approaches to provide educators and students with an essential source book of navigational steers core contestations propositional tactics and reimaged rubrics The Routledge Companion to Architectural Pedagogies of the Global South pioneers a transposable strategy for academics from all disciplines looking to adopt a tested approach to decolonizing the curriculum It is only through a process of destabilizing the hegemonic epistemological and disciplinary frameworks that have long prescribed architecture's pedagogies that the possibility of more inclusive representative and relevant pedagogical practices can emerge

The Voices of Suspense and Their Translation in Thrillers Susanne M. Cadera, Anita Pavic Pintaric, 2014-03-05 The volume aims to be a reference work for all researchers interested in the study of fictional dialogue and its translation in suspense novels and films as well as in related genres The volume also aims to determine the interplay between the creation of suspense and fictional dialogue The particular interest in dialogue comes from the host of roles it plays in fiction It helps create suspense and arouses a whole range of feelings in the reader or the audience related to the development of the plot Fictional dialogue is the discursive method of evoking orality conferring authenticity and credibility on a plot and giving fictional characters a voice As a narrative strategy dialogue is an important resource that enables the writer to shape the character's subjectivity In thrillers the character's voice is part of the process of creating suspense an element of uncertainty anxiety and excitement which is not exclusive to this genre To clearly differentiate suspense from the tension created by other types of fiction this volume aims to study the relationship between the character's voices and the building of suspense and to describe the translation difficulties arising from this particular interdependence

The Author ,1901 The Academy ,1895 A Report on the Afterlife of Culture Stephen Henighan,2008-04-30 In this essay collection Henighan ranges across continents centuries and linguistic traditions to examine how literary culture and our perception of history are changing as the world grows smaller He weaves together daring literary criticism with front line reporting on events such as the end of the Cold War in Poland and African reactions to the G8 Summit

Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent Leo Suryadinata,2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore
