s packed full of consensual adult diaper punishment diaper regression consensual corporal punishment intense role play humiliation and of course some very used diapers For mature readers only CONQUESTS: An Anthology of Smoldering Viking Romance Delilah Devlin, Elle James, Megan Mitcham, Emma Jay, Nym Nix, Evey Brett, Regina Kammer, Beatrix Ellroy, Teresa Noelle Roberts, Bibi Rizer, Melissa Fuchs, Mina Murray, Adele Downs, 2015-07-14 Conquests An Anthology of Smoldering Viking Romance Spare Rib ,1991 Make Love, Not War David Allyn, 2016-05-23 When Helen Gurley Brown's Sex and the Single Girl hit bookstores in 1962 the sexual revolution was launched and there was no turning back Soon came the pill the end of censorship the advent of feminism and the rise of commercial pornography Our daily lives changed in an unprecedented time of sexual openness and experimentation Make Love Not War is the first serious treatment of the complicated events ideas and personalities that drove the sexual revolution forward Based on first hand accounts diaries interviews and period research it traces changes in private lives and public discourse from the fearful fifties to the first tremors of rebellion in the early sixties to the heady heyday of the revolution Bringing a fresh perspective to the turbulence of these decades David Allyn argues that the sexual revolutionaries of the 60s and 70s by telling the truth about their own histories and desires forced all Americans to re examine the very meaning of freedom Written with a historian's attention to nuance and a novelist's narrative drive Make Love Not War is a provocative vivid and thoughtful account of one of the most captivating episodes in American history Also includes an 8 page insert Glamour ,1991 The Cyber Effect Mary Aiken, 2016 A noted forensic cyberpsychologist explores the impact of technology on human behavior The End of Love Eva Illouz, 2021-09-15 Western culture has endlessly represented the ways in which love miraculously erupts in people's lives the mythical moment in which one knows someone is destined for us the feverish waiting for a phone call or an email the thrill that runs down our spine at the mere thought of him or her Yet a culture that has so much to say about love is virtually silent on the no less mysterious moments when we avoid falling in love where we fall out of love when the one who kept us awake at night now leaves us indifferent or when we hurry away from those who excited us a few months or even a few hours before In The End of Love Eva Illouz documents the multifarious ways in which relationships end She argues that if modern love was once marked by the freedom to enter sexual and emotional bonds according to one's will and choice contemporary love has now become characterized by practices of non choice the freedom to withdraw from relationships Illouz dubs this process by which relationships fade evaporate dissolve and break down unloving While sociology has classically focused on the formation of social bonds The End of Love makes a powerful case for studying why and how social bonds collapse and dissolve Particularly striking is the role that capitalism plays in practices of non choice and unloving The unmaking of social bonds she argues is connected to contemporary capitalism which is characterized by practices of non commitment and non choice practices that enable the quick withdrawal from a transaction and the quick realignment of prices and the breaking of loyalties Unloving and non choice have in turn a profound impact on society and economics as they explain why people may be having fewer children increasingly living alone and having less sex The End of Love presents a profound and original analysis of the effects of capitalism and consumer culture on personal relationships and of what the dissolution of personal relationships means for capitalism Decoding Gender in Science Fiction Brian

Attebery,2014-01-02 From Frankenstein to futuristic feminist utopias Decoding Gender in Science Fiction examines the ways science fiction writers have incorporated explored and revised conventional notions of sexual difference Attebery traces a fascinating history of men s and women s writing that covertly or overtly investigates conceptions of gender suggesting new perspectives on the genre The Greatest Comic Book of All Time Bart Beaty,Benjamin Woo,2016-04-27 Bart Beaty and

Benjamin Woo work to historicize why it is that certain works or creators have come to define the notion of a quality comic book while other works and creators have been left at the fringes of critical analysis Fantasies of Femininity Jane M.

Ussher,1997 An account of how women have managed to resist the archetypal fantasies of femininity and what it supposedly is to be a woman and how women have consequently redefined the boundaries of their sex Bound by BDSM Alicia M.

Cornis-Pope,2016-04-30 Narrative

Innovation and Cultural Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism s responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction this book highlights their solutions to ontological division real vs imaginary wordly and other worldly sociocultural oppositions of race class gender and narratological dualities imitation vs invention realism vs formalism A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction narrative and cultural articulation Stepping back from traditional polarizations innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities excluded middles and creative intercrossings

Stories on Skin Terry Baxter, Libby Coyner-Tsosie, 2025-01-23 Helping expand archival studies into impermanent media like body art this book suggests that archiving must be considered a form of storytelling Tattoos are not merely decorative they contain deep meaning for individuals and communities They document their wearers personal histories and position in families or society and they engage with a communal understanding of symbols This unique book makes the case that archivists who want to preserve as full a human story as possible must recognize the rich documentation provided by tattoos It also argues in a broader sense that traditional archives are not representative of the ways human beings transmit information through time and that they must be augmented by other types of storytelling to provide a more complete record of our species Authors Baxter and Coyner touch on timely topics such as historical narratives storytelling cultural traditions the body as a text social control and memorialization by considering tattoos as a personal and community archive Discussing tattoos as a storytelling tool the authors also challenge how history is kept and who gets included Stories on Skin is committed to the rights of communities to tell their stories in their own way and to the power that right brings
