The problem was that I didn't want anyone to think that Jace had gotten the part because of me. He was talented in his own right and if everyone knew we were an item they would think he was sleeping his way to the top. Did I mention that he used to be an escort? We decided that the best course of action was to keep our relationship on the down low. How hard could it be to keep our hands off each other for a month? We had plenty of work to distract ourselves. From overbearing costars to constant rewrites we barely had time to sneak off and enjoy the fruits of our labor. As the days passed we became less and less concerned about what other people might think. Until finally someone caught us and left us in a bind. Would Jace have to give up his spot and the chance at a Hollywood career to save my reputation? Would I let him do that or would I fall on the sword of my own ruined ambition and come clean?

Perfectly Imperfect Lexy Timms, All you have in business is your reputation. So it's very important that you keep your word. Ryan Abbot is an investor looking for projects that will help people who need it most. He hears about a solar farm project in Arizona and decides to check it out. Ginny Grayson is the environmental engineer running the project. She's feisty and opinionated. They clash every time they meet and the tension between the two of them is undeniable. Ginny finds out that the project is threatening to take over protected state land and is furious. She blames Ryan and quits. Ryan needs to find a way to prove his intentions were pure and he wasn't involved in the secrecy. Can he do it before it's too late? Will they have a chance to realize the tension between the two of them is more than just sexual?
