Trauma Bonding and Interpersonal Crimes Joan A. Reid, 2024-11-04 A COLLECTION OF RECENT RESEARCH AND REAL LIFE REPORTS ON TRAUMA BONDING IN MANY CONTEXTS OF INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE Trauma bonding the emotional attachment victims develop toward their abusers or captors has been repeatedly observed in victims of interpersonal crimes yet little is known about its formation persistence and positive resolution in survivors Trauma Bonding and Interpersonal Crimes provides a timely review of existing theoretical conceptualizations and research findings on trauma bonding in relation to various forms of interpersonal crimes including human trafficking intimate partner violence child sexual abuse cults kidnapping gang violence and terrorism With an accessible and reader friendly style lead author Joan A Reid examines the concept of trauma bonding while offering insights into the consequences of how the phenomenon is framed in the public discourse and the professional sectors Twelve chapters investigate key topics ranging from methodological issues and research limitations to current debates on victimology within academic disciplines such as criminology psychology social work sociology and public health Providing a holistic approach to the subject Trauma Bonding and Interpersonal Crimes Highlights the complexities of intervention and treatment for trauma survivors and clinicians Explores the implications for policy related to trauma bonding Recommends potential avenues for integrated theory and research Features case studies that combine individual examples and evidence based research Includes definitions of terms critical thinking questions and further readings in each chapter Part of Wiley s Psycho Criminology of Crime Mental Health and the Law series Trauma Bonding and Interpersonal Crimes is an invaluable resource for upper level undergraduate and graduate students researchers policymakers and practitioners in areas related to victims of human trafficking intimate partner violence and child sexual abuse Trauma Bonding Recovery Workbook Nashay Lorick, 2022-11-01 Overcome toxic relationship bonds and begin to heal Freeing yourself from a trauma bond can feel overwhelming But with the right tools you can let go of the past and move forward to a brighter future This supportive workbook is filled with evidence based strategies and exercises to help you break the cycle of abuse and thrive Understand your experience Learn what trauma bonding is and gain insight from the stories of other people who have experienced abuse Discover tools for healing trauma Build skills for breaking your toxic relationship with proven exercises like starting a walking meditation practice and rating your level of self care Beyond trauma Explore the aftermath of leaving an abuser including managing difficult emotions and grief reclaiming your identity avoiding relapse and preparing to move forward with your new life Empower yourself and take control of your future with this supportive workbook Emotional Harmony Kent D. Fisher, 2025-04-24 Emotional Harmony is about learning how to choose one s attitude not simply as a conscious behavioral choice but as a hardwired neurological response to any given set of circumstances Life is messy and many people particularly those with addiction and codependency problems were never given the tools to negotiate that messiness Since Kent Fisher and Michelle Rappaport opened their therapeutic practice almost twenty years ago they have seen thousands of people who have spent their whole lives emotionally deregulated responding to life with either aggression or passivity Their job is to teach these people how to live within the emotional regulated space of choice and repair Drawing on their private practice reconstruction experiences and the research of Patrick Carnes Dan Siegel Sharon Stanley and others Kent and Michelle have developed a process of repair and renegotiation of the past and a harmonious way to respond to the present With the SomEx model change happens through 5 simple actions that evolve through the therapeutic relationship For therapist and client alike Emotional Harmony is the first book to merge the science of somatic therapies with the real world applications of experiential healing By integrating the left brain s meaning making and rationalization of our life experience with the right hemisphere s somatic processing of trauma and its consequences we move from that messy life story into the deep repair that is emotional harmony Beating Burnout in Congregations Lynne M. Baab, 2003-08-01 I can only shake my head in the face of the irony that all too often the very place where we look for life and health the very place where we expect to nurture and deepen a loving relationship with God can cause so many to experience the exact opposite So remarks author Lynne Baab in this timely and discerning examination of burnout in congregations What is burnout What causes congregation volunteers to burn out Why is unpaid service sometimes life giving and other times just another frantic commitment How can congregations become oases of peace and nurture while still carrying out their mission and ministry How can we recognize holy moments in the presence of God if we are moving so fast that life passes by us in a blur How can leaders make congregations healthy places to serve After reflecting on these important questions and dozens of interviews with congregation volunteers Baab suggests We must not fear burnout instead we need to do a better job coming alongside people as they experience burnout and help them figure out what they are learning
