The Book Club Chronicles Joan H. Parks, 2021-08-26 The ladies keep trying to find as easier Shakespeare play to study and decided upon As You Like It a comedy As they start reading it they discover that it is complicated Most of the plot is confined to Acts 1 and 5 They use a Globe version on a DVD and use it and the text for study They reflect upon the friendship between Rosalind and Celia and how it changes throughout the play Celia being dominant until Rosalind disguises herself as a boy when she becomes the leader Their reading deepens as they witness their own responses to this very female tale All wrestle with their physical aging and the threats and advantages of retirement They reflect on the intensely lyric nature of As You Like It and the many subversions subtle or not that Shakespeare wrote into this beloved play They wrestle with their own love stories late life marriages and the how their pasts haunt their present as they struggle to make sense of this simple on the surface but very complicated theatrical play Most of all once again they as a group revel in the beautiful language of Shakespeare that pierces their hearts and at the same time uplifts them The Book Club Chronicles—Part Six—The Tempest Joan H. Parks, 2018-03-28 The storms of autumn arrive and the storms of their lives continue The ladies decide to study Shakespeares The Tempest wrongly thinking that a comedy will be easier than another of the big tragedies Finding a suitable filmed version is difficult reading the text is even more difficult They struggle seeing in this late play parts that mirror their own experiences Claire and Henry struggle in their late life marriage with the debris and assumptions from their earlier marriages Annie fights against the physical constraints that come with her aging as Bill wrestles with what he will do after retirement Katherine is haunted by her past and her brush with cancer and has trouble accepting that Mark is in her life for the duration Frannie now has grandchildren and a measure of happiness because she has faced the demons of her upbringing The new members of the book club Sally and Clarissa have their own issues as their long standing friendship shatters Clarissa is rejuvenated by one new passion and one old passion All this occurs and is illuminated by their reading of the glorious music and the strange plots of The Tempest The Book Club Chronicles, Part Four - Macbeth Joan H.

Parks, 2015-06-08 The ladies having completed their study of Romeo and Juliet move on to Macbeth It is February in Chicago a dreary month that seems to last forever The skies are grey the streets cold and dangerous a setting that mirrors Macbeth The three witches who make their target Macbeth the ghosts who torment Macbeth and his consort Lady Macbeth resonate with what is happening in their own lives Katherine is haunted by the certainty that her cancer will recur and is terrified that she will die alone Franny is tormented by the ghosts from her past that she thought she had escaped by marrying Sam Annie reconciled with Bill is worried about the fate of the artists writers and doctors in a culture that exploits those who do the actual work Claire is disturbed by the play and the pain it is causing her and her friends All are intensely aware of how little time is left to them and how precious that remaining time is Changes welcome or not come to all the ladies The Book Club and their friendships provide sustenance and comfort in this unsettled time of their lives The Book Club Chronicles -

Saint Teresa of Avila The Book of Her Foundations: A Study Guide Marc Foley, OCD, Teresa of Avila, Otilio Rodriguez, OCD, 2012 The Book of Her Foundations is the least read the least quoted the least known of St Teresa's works Why this is so is probably because people do not think it is a spiritual book But as you read on you find that St Teresa grew in holiness not in spite of obstacles such as being entangled in lawsuits mired down in disputes over dowries tied up in interminable bureaucratic red tape and having to deal with unscrupulous businessmen but because of these difficulties None of these challenges impeded her spiritual growth This study guide will help us to see how Teresa grew in holiness in the marketplace as much as in the cloister perhaps even more so None of us has been called to found convents but like Teresa all of us are called to practice virtue and grow in holiness within the fray of daily life 32 Linden Avenue Joan H Parks, 2013-12-10 32 Linden Avenue is perched high up on a hill overlooking a small town in western Pennsylvania and is the heart of this evocative journey through the author's fragmented memories of Appalachia The murmuring of the women the love and everyday lives of those living in the hard hill country and then the drenching of those memories in the deep hushed and hovering Protestant faith of that time and that place is woven into a spell drenched in the detailed memories of everyday life A child temporarily separated from her father and mother and brother by fate found magic and succor and most of all enduring love The young mother sees the same magic through older eyes and in the midst of the pain of her mother's final illness and bitter frustrated life is as when a child comforted by her family from the hill Haunted throughout her life the author sees all this from even older eyes and vows that her children and now grandchildren shall not be deprived of the chance to seize meaning and beauty and thus comfort from these remembrances
