Barstad,Reinhard G. Kratz,2009-09-04 This volume contains the proceedings of a Symposium Prophecy in the Book of Jeremiah arranged by the Edinburgh Prophecy Network in the School of Divinity at the University of Edinburgh 11 12 May 2007 Prophetic studies are undergoing radical changes at the moment following the breakdown of a methodological consensus in humanities and biblical studies One of the challenges today concerns the question how to deal with history in a post modern age The French Annales School and narrative theory have contributed toward changing the intellectual climate of biblical studies dramatically Whereas the historical Jeremiah was formerly believed to be hidden under countless additions and interpretations and changed beyond recognition it was still assumed that it would be possible to recover the real prophet with the tools of historical critical methods However according to a majority of scholars today the recovery of the historical Jeremiah is no longer possible For this reason we have to seek new and multimethodological approaches to the study of prophecy including diachronic and synchronic methods The Meeting in Edinburgh in 2007 gathered specialists in prophetic studies from Denmark Finland Germany the Netherlands United Kingdom and the USA focusing on different aspects of the prophet Jeremiah Prophetic texts from the whole Hebrew Bible and ancient Near Eastern prophecy are taken into consideration The Book of Prophecy Ian Cleary,2017-12-19 The Book of Prophecy is an oral story told out loud and then it was finally written down It is about a world that has absconded corrupt laws of the current age and destroyed them The new tenants of faith are proclaimed and the people begin to prosper that is those that are left after the great destruction by Merlin and the prophets These are symbolic tales that speak loud about the tragedy of the current state of things
