Tolkien's Theology of Beauty Lisa

Coutras,2016-08-03 In this book Lisa Coutras explores the structure and complexity of J R R Tolkien s narrative theology synthesizing his Christian worldview with his creative imagination She illustrates how within the framework of a theological aesthetics transcendental beauty is the unifying principle that integrates all aspects of Tolkien s writing from pagan despair to Christian joy J R R Tolkien s Christianity is often held in an unsteady tension with the pagan despair of his mythic world Some critics portray these as incompatible while Christian analysis tends to oversimplify the presence of religious symbolism This polarity of opinion testifies to the need for a unifying interpretive lens The fact that Tolkien saw his own writing as religious and Catholic yet was preoccupied with pagan mythology nature language and evil suggests that these areas were wholly integrated with his Christian worldview Tolkien sTheology of Beauty examines six structural elements demonstrating that the author s Christianity is deeply embedded in the narrative framework of his creative imagination Charles Williams and C. S. Lewis Paul S. Fiddes,2021-10-21 This study of the literary relationship between Charles Williams and C S Lewis during the years 1936 1945 focuses on the theme of co inherence at the centre of their friendship The idea of co inherence has long been recognized as an important contribution of Williams to theology and had significant influence on the thought of Lewis This account of the two writers conviction that human persons inhere or dwell both in each other and in the triune God reveals many inter relationships between their writings that would otherwise be missed It also shows up profound differences between their world views and a gradual though incomplete convergence onto common ground Exploring the idea of co inherence throws light on the fictional worlds they created as well as on their treatment whether together or separately of a wide range of theological and literary subjects the Arthurian tradition the poetry of William Blake and Thomas Traherne the theology of Karl Barth the nature of human and divine love and the doctrine of the Trinity This study draws for the first time on transcriptions of Williams lectures from 1932 to 1939 tracing more clearly the development and use of the idea of co inherence in his thought than has been possible before Finally an account of the use of the word co inherence in English speaking theology suggests that the differences that existed between Lewis and Williams especially on the place of analogy and participation in human experience of God might be resolved by a theology of co inherence in the Trinity The Sacred Books of the East: The Satapatha-Brahmana, pt. 5 ,1900 The Englishman's Hebrew and Chaldee Concordance of the Old Testament George Vicesimus Wigram,1843
