embarked on one of the largest self described humanitarian efforts in its history opening its borders to 163 000 asylum seekers fleeing the war in Syria Six months later this massive effort was over On January 4 2016 Sweden closed its border with Denmark This closure makes a startling reversal of Sweden s open borders to refugees and contravenes free movement in the Schengen Area a founding principle of the European Union What happened This book sets out to explain this reversal In her new and compelling book Vanessa Barker explores the Swedish case study to challenge several key paradigms for understanding penal order in the twenty first century and makes an important contribution to our understanding of punishment and welfare states She questions the dominance of neoliberalism and political economy as the main explanation for the penalization of others migrants and foreign nationals and develops an alternative theoretical framework based on the internal logic of the welfare state and democratic theory about citizenship incorporation and difference paying particular attention to questions of belonging worthiness and ethnic and gender hierarchies Her book develops the concept of penal nationalism as an important form of penal power in the twenty first century providing a bridge between border control and punishment studies

Brazil International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept.,2017-05-03 Despite the development of fiscal responsibility legislation several weaknesses in fiscal transparency have had adverse effects on the quality of fiscal policy many of which are being addressed Brazil has made significant progress over recent decades in providing regular information on the budget and its implementation at all levels of government partly driven by the 2000 Fiscal Responsibility Law FRL These include advances in implementing international standards to improve the quality of data At the same time fiscal transparency has been undermined by weaknesses in the fiscal framework and by practices that are inconsistent with the principles of the FRL including unreported liabilities the pedaladas These include incomplete information on policies and their costs or risks accounting changes and lack of clarity on fiscal reporting standards that undermine the effectiveness of the fiscal rules at all levels of government lack of transparency in the relationship between the central government and public banks and between the central government and subnational governments and corruption involving some of the largest public enterprises Since 2015 important efforts have been underway to address some of these weaknesses

Challenging Inclusive Education Policy and Practice in Africa ,2018-11-26 It is a fundamental right for all children to be given access to quality education to ensure they reach their full potential as individuals a right which is reflected in international law in Article 26 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and supported by the Education for All Agenda 1990 and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities and Optional Protocol 2006 Nation states across Africa have signed up to these protocols and remain committed to ensuring education for all children The progress globally however in the past 25 years including in Africa has been slow UNESCO 2015 Questions remain on why this is so and what can be done about it This book brings together researchers education policy makers and academics from the African community What is unique about this text is that it includes local insights narrated and critiqued by local professionals This book presents a wide range of African countries across the continent to provide a critical overview of the key issues affecting developments It questions the origins of ideas and definitions around inclusive education and the impact it has made on policy and ultimately practice within local socio cultural and economic communities both urban and rural It highlights positive developments as well as challenges and provides a deep understanding of why the process of implementing inclusive education is so complex in the African continent It provides an understanding of what is needed to develop a more sustainable model of inclusive education across the continent and within specific countries

Gender Equity: Challenges and Opportunities Vasundhara Mahajan,Anandita Chowdhury,Urvashi Kaushal,Namrta Jariwala,Sharon A. Bong,2022-04-19 This book comprises the proceedings of the TEQIP III Sponsored 2nd International Conference on Gender Equity Challenges and Opportunities 2nd ICOGECAO 2020 Virtual Mode held at Sardar Vallabhbhai National Institute of Technology Surat Gujarat India from 25 to 27 November 2020 ICOGECAO provided a platform for researchers from multiple countries to present their views about the challenges associated with gender equity Gender equity is one of the seventeen Sustainable Development Goals SDG 5 set up by the United Nations in 2015 to promote and empower all genders equally The proceedings strongly support the ideas of gender neutrality and blow out the mind set of limiting gender studies to only women rights They offer a collection of articles that break the stereotypes and myths often wrongly associated with gender The ideas in the presented papers highlight gender based discriminations ask important questions and share facts that encompass beyond the so called boundary lines The authors contributed on various topics including but not limited to violence crime discrimination and abuse against women and LGBTQ community The basic motive of the presented book is to incorporate ideas and contribute to the sensitization and education about the important yet often neglected issues of gender equality. Thus, this book proves to be an essential resource for educators and researchers working in the field of gender studies. The work presents challenges caused due to COVID-19, social media, popular culture, and work-life balance and explores empowerment through law, skills, technology, and media. Some interesting case studies highlighted gender discrimination in science, sports, and law. A variety of papers on literary texts were examined from a gender lens. The proceeding is divided into five subsections: 1. law, 2. literature, 3. management, 4. sociology, and 5. social studies. The proceeding provides a wider perspective and visuals about the scenarios which need attention. The ideas presented will be helpful for achieving the sustainable development goal of gender equity to a greater extent.
