The Carousel English Edition:

The Carousel of Indignation and Outrage Arist von Schlippe, 2024-07-15 Conflicts have accompanied mankind since time immemorial and for almost as long people have been trying to limit and deal with them whether as those affected by them or as professionals with more or less success For once a system of conflict has developed once negative expectation structures and with them negative self evident truths and inherent laws have developed it becomes increasingly difficult for those involved to escape them The complexity of our social world in which it is not easy for communication to find its way remains unseen A violated sense of justice misunderstandings and unfortunate attempts to correct them alternate One begins to attribute the causes of the conflict to the person It s you It s your fault and to attribute negative motives to the conflict partner You re only doing this because who in turn does the same just like a carousel that slowly gets going A number of well studied but little known psychological processes occur within us when we are in conflict Outrage at the other person grows usually unfortunately on both sides Slowly the carousel of outrage and indignation begins to spin faster and faster until The book places the various psychological mechanisms in the context of a systemic understanding of conflict and explains ways to slow down the carousel Students' Edition of a Standard Dictionary of the English Language ... James Champlin

Fiction of Relationship Arnold Weinstein, 2014-07-14 A clear and straightforward discussion of the ways in which literatures and their comparative study must depend upon the problematics of interpersonal and other relations This study will prove as useful as it is wide ranging and indeed comparative in the good sense Mary Ann Caws Graduate School City University of New York Here is a comparatist working at the peak of his powers Weinstein moves easily from Goethe and Flaubert to Kafka or Joyce or Boris Vian Locating fictions of relationship at the heart of both literary criticism and human affairs and acknowledging his own distinctly humanistic concerns Weinstein writes in an urgent tone and eloquent voice inflecting the theme of relationship in every way in its surrender to the erotic its frenzied drive for control of the Other in its ability to confer identity or eclipse difference When he couples texts e g William Burrough s Naked Lunch and C de Laclos s Les liaisons dangereuses he takes risks that bear brilliant fruit Exploring famous texts and relatively unknown ones Weinstein infuses the traditional study of fiction with new energy Choice Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library
