Home and Work Christena E. Nippert-Eng, 2008-07-22 Do you put family photos on your desk at work Are your home and work keys on the same chain Do you keep one all purpose calendar for listing home and work events Do you have separate telephone books for colleagues and friends In Home and Work Christena Nippert Eng examines the intricacies and implications of how we draw the line between home and work Arguing that relationships between the two realms range from those that are highly integrating to those that are highly segmenting Nippert Eng examines the ways people sculpt the boundaries between home and work With remarkable sensitivity to the symbolic value of objects and actions Nippert Eng explores the meaning of clothing wallets lunches and vacations and the places and ways in which we engage our family friends and co workers Commuting habits are also revealing showing how we make the transition between home and work selves though ritualized behavior like hellos and goodbyes the consumption of food the way we dress our choices of routes to and from work and our listening working and sleeping habits during these journeys The ways each of us manages time space and people not only reflect but reinforce lives that are more integrating or segmenting at any given time In clarifying what we take for granted this book will leave you thinking in different ways about your life and work Look Down, see the women weep Francis Ferguson,2014-01-03 A novel about a young Englishman who experiences Karen village life in the mountains of Northern Thailand He discovers how to see the lowlands from the viewpoint of the Karen people living in the mountains rather than the viewpoint of people who look up from the lowlands imagining they see barbarians living in primitive villages The African Correspondence of Sir Joseph Banks, 1767-1820 Neil Chambers,2024-06-21 This edition brings together in three fully edited volumes the correspondence and associated papers of Sir Joseph Banks regarding European and especially British exploration of Africa from 1767 1820 for the first time publishing this globally scattered material in one place thereby revolutionizing its availability and understanding of the activities of a key figure who helped organize and publish a series of missions to penetrate the African interior mainly from West Africa and by crossing the Sahara from Cairo and Tripoli Banks was a founder in 1788 of the African Association which mounted many of these missions including those of Mungo Park to explore the River Niger and J L Burkhart exploring Syria Arabia and Egypt At the time little was known about the African interior its peoples kingdoms and resources and the aim of the African Association under Banks was to discover what lay there to make contact with and study its societies to map them and their lands and help establish trading links Banks also maintained a lively correspondence with British diplomatic representatives in North Africa such as James Mario Matra at Tangier and Henry Salt in Cairo who were a rich source of news Moreover as unofficial director of the royal gardens at Kew he sent pioneering plant collectors to gather plants in South Africa vastly boosting knowledge of this region s important flora At home he corresponded with politicians government officials entrepreneurs navigators naturalists and campaigners like William Wilberforce about a great range of issues surrounding Africa This work is multi disciplinary and will stand alongside existing series of Banks s correspondence published by Neil Chambers Scientific Correspondence 2007 Indian and Pacific Correspondence 2007 14 It will appeal to scholars of African history in the Early Modern Period to those studying exploration and collecting as well as those interested in natural history the history of science geography cartography and the Enlightenment An Introduction detailed Calendar of Correspondents Timelines for each volume and a comprehensive Index supplement the footnotes to nearly 800 documents included in this fascinating and
