The Cask of Amontillado Edgar Allen Poe, 2015-05-23 The thousand injuries of Fortunato I had borne as I best could but when he ventured upon insult I vowed revenge You who so well know the nature of my soul will not suppose however that I gave utterance to a threat At length I would be avenged this was a point definitely settled but the very definitiveness with which it was resolved precluded the idea of risk I must not only punish but punish with impunity A wrong is unredressed when retribution overtakes its redresser It is equally unredressed when the avenger fails to make himself felt as such to him who has done the wrong It must be understood that neither by word nor deed had I given Fortunato cause to doubt my good will I continued as was my wont to smile in his face and he did not perceive that my smile now was at the thought of his immolation He had a weak point this Fortunato although in other regards he was a man to be respected and even feared He prided himself on his connoisseurship in wine Few Italians have the true virtuoso spirit For the most part their enthusiasm is adopted to suit the time and opportunity to practise imposture upon the British and Austrian millionaires In painting and gemmery Fortunato like his countrymen was a quack but in the matter of old wines he was sincere In this respect I did not differ from him materially I was skillful in the Italian vintages myself and bought largely whenever I could Manga
