Catechism Pope St. Pius V, Council of Trent Staff, 2013-01-15 During the Catholic Counter Reformation the Council of Trent commissioned the Roman Catechism or Catechism of the Council of Trent published 1566 to expound doctrine and to improve the theological understanding of the clergy It differs from other summaries of Christian doctrine for the instruction of the people in two points it is primarily intended for priests having care of souls ad parochos and it enjoyed an authority within the Catholic Church equalled by no other catechism until the Catechism of the Catholic Church 1992 The need of a popular authoritative manual arose from a lack of systematic knowledge among pre Reformation clergy and the concomitant neglect of religious instruction among the faithful The Council intended the projected Catechism to be the Church's official manual of popular instruction The seventh canon De Reformatione of Sess XXIV runs That the faithful may approach the Sacraments with greater reverence and devotion the Holy Synod charges all the bishops about to administer them to explain their operation and use in a way adapted to the understanding of the people to see moreover that their parish priests observe the same rule piously and prudently making use for their explanations where necessary and convenient of the vernacular tongue and conforming to the form to be prescribed by the Holy Synod in its instructions catechesis for the several Sacraments the bishops shall have these instructions carefully translated into the vulgar tongue and explained by all parish priests to their flocks In the mind of the Church the Catechism though primarily written for the parish priests was also intended to give a fixed and stable scheme of instruction to the faithful especially with regard to the means of grace so much neglected at the time To attain this object the work closely follows the dogmatic definitions of the council It is divided in four parts I The Apostles Creed II The Sacraments III The Decalogue IV Prayer especially The Lord's Prayer It deals with the papal primacy and with Limbo points which were not discussed or defined at Trent on the other hand it is silent on the doctrine of Indulgences which is set forth in the Decretum de indulgentiis Sess XXV The bishops urged in every way the use of the new Catechism they enjoined its frequent reading so that all its contents would be committed to memory they exhorted the priests to discuss parts of it at their meetings and insisted upon its being used for instructing the people To some editions of the Roman Catechism is prefixed a Praxis Catechismi i.e. a division of its contents into sermons for every Sunday of the year adapted to the Gospel of the day There is no better sermonary The people like to hear the voice of the Church speaking with no uncertain sound the many Biblical texts and illustrations go straight to their hearts and best of all they remember these simple sermons better than they do the oratory of famous pulpit orators The Catechism has not of course the authority of conciliary definitions or other primary symbols of faith for although decreed by the Council it was only published a year after the Fathers had dispersed and it consequently lacks a formal conciliary approbation During the heated controversies de auxiliis gratiae between the Thomists and Molinists the Jesuits refused to accept the authority of the Catechism as decisive Yet it possesses high authority as an exposition of Catholic doctrine It was composed by order of a council issued and approved by the pope its use has been prescribed by numerous synods throughout the whole Church Leo XIII in a letter to
