Erotic Mentoring Janice Hocker Rushing, 2016-06-16 They're everywhere in the academy young bright women mentored by older scholars usually men who attempt to mold them into their own masculine ideals Janice Hocker Rushing's study of over 200 women and their life transformations is the subject of this eloquent book Using the tropes of mythology and Jungian psychology the author characterizes the many paths these women's academic lives take as Muse for a faltering older scholar as Mistress or wife as the dutiful academic daughter Their resistance to this power differential also takes many forms as a Veiled Woman silent in public but active in private or the Siren using her sexuality to beat the system Ultimately Rushing arrives at the myth of Eros and Psyche where women's self understanding and personal development turns her erotic mentoring into an autonomous whole and free life unfettered by any man These women's stories and Rushing's literary and literate framing of their lives will ring true to many in the university

The Hero's Fight Patricia Fernández-Kelly, 2016-08-23 A richly textured account of what it means to be poor in America Baltimore was once a vibrant manufacturing town but today with factory closings and steady job loss since the 1970s it is home to some of the most impoverished neighborhoods in America The Hero's Fight provides an intimate look at the effects of deindustrialization on the lives of Baltimore's urban poor and sheds critical light on the unintended consequences of welfare policy on our most vulnerable communities Drawing on her own uniquely immersive brand of fieldwork conducted over the course of a decade in the neighborhoods of West Baltimore Patricia Fernández Kelly tells the stories of people like D B Wilson Big Floyd Towanda and others whom the American welfare state treats with a mixture of contempt and pity what Fernández Kelly calls ambivalent benevolence She shows how growing up poor in the richest nation in the world involves daily interactions with agents of the state an experience that differs significantly from that of more affluent populations While ordinary Americans are treated as citizens and consumers deprived and racially segregated populations are seen as objects of surveillance containment and punishment Fernandez Kelly provides new insights into such topics as globalization and its effects on industrial decline and employment the changing meanings of masculinity and femininity among the poor social and cultural capital in poor neighborhoods and the unique roles played by religion and entrepreneurship in destitute communities Blending compelling portraits with in depth scholarly analysis The Hero s Fight explores how the welfare state contributes to the perpetuation of urban poverty in America Mentoring in

Play, Talk, Learn: Promising Practices in Youth Mentoring Michael J. Karcher,Michael J. Nakkula,2011-10-04 This volume brings together the findings from separate studies of community based and school based mentoring to unpack the common response to the question of what makes youth mentoring work A debate that was alive in 2002 when the first New Directions for Youth Development volume on mentoring edited by Jean Rhodes was published centers on whether goal oriented or relationship focused interactions conversations and activities prove to be more essential for effective youth mentoring The consensus appeared then to be that the mentoring context defined the answer in workplace mentoring with teens an instrumental relationship was deemed essential and resulted in larger impacts while in the community setting the developmental relationship was the key ingredient of change Recent large scale studies of school based mentoring have raised this question once again and suggest that understanding how developmental and instrumental relationship styles manifest through goal directed and relational interactions is essential to effective practice Because the contexts in which youth mentoring occurs in the community in school during the day or in a structured program after school affect what happens in the mentor mentee pair our goal was to bring together a diverse group of researchers to describe the focus purpose and authorship of the mentoring interactions that happen in these contexts in order to help mentors and program staff better understand how youth mentoring relationships can be effective This is the 126th issue of New Directions for Youth Development the Jossey Bass quarterly report series dedicated to bringing together everyone concerned with helping young people including scholars practitioners and people from different disciplines and professions The result is a unique resource presenting thoughtful multi faceted approaches to helping our youth develop into responsible stable well rounded citizens AI in Business: Opportunities and Limitations Reem Khamis,Amina Buallay,2024-02-19 This book is a comprehensive guide to understanding the potential of artificial intelligence AI in improving business functions as well as the limitations and challenges that come with its implementation In this book readers will learn about the various opportunities that AI presents in business including how it can automate routine tasks reduce errors and increase efficiency The book
