Annual Report of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for the Fiscal Year Ended ... Canadian Pacific Railway Company,1910 Known Unto God Simon Fowler,2025-10-15 To commemorate the centenary of the Cenotaph this is the story of the exhaustive hunt for missing servicemen from the Great War and other twentieth century conflicts and how bodies continue to be recovered to this day Canadian Who's Who 2009 Elizabeth Lumley,2008-12-04 Now in its ninety ninth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education family career history memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Indispensable to researchers students media business government and schools Canadian Who's Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge Wellington's Rifles Mark Urban,2009-05-26 The 95th Rifles was one of history's great fighting units and Mark Urban brings them and the Napoleonic War gloriously to life in this unique chronicle Focusing especially on six soldiers in the first battalion Urban tells the Rifles story from May 25 1809 when they shipped out to join Wellington's army in Spain through the battle of Waterloo in June 1815 Drawing on diaries letters and other personal accounts Urban has fashioned a vivid narrative that allows readers to feel the thrill and horror of famous battles the hardship of the march across Europe the bravery and camaraderie of a nineteenth-century Band of Brothers whose innovative tactics created the modern notion of infantryman The Rape of Europa Lynn H. Nicholas,2009-12-22 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award The real story behind the major motion picture The Monuments Men The cast of characters includes Hitler and Goering Gertrude Stein and Marc Chagall not to mention works by artists from Leonardo da Vinci to Pablo Picasso And the story told in this superbly researched and suspenseful book is that of the Third Reich's war on European culture and the Allies' desperate effort to preserve it From the Nazi purges of Degenerate Art and Goering's shopping sprees in occupied Paris to the perilous journey of the Mona Lisa from Paris and the painstaking reclamation of the priceless treasures of liberated Italy The Rape of Europa is a sweeping narrative of greed philistinism and heroism that combines superlative scholarship with a compelling drama The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies Maia Carter Hallward, Ji Eun Kim, Cécile Mouly, Timothy Seidel, Zubairu Wai,2025-06-07 The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies offers a comprehensive exploration of the complexities of violence conflict and peace from a global interdisciplinary perspective The handbook addresses the traditional Western-centric approach while emphasizing the need to integrate Global South perspectives to create a more inclusive and transformative understanding of peace and conflict While important voices in peace and conflict studies have long stressed the need to not only address direct violence but also structural and cultural one certain strands of the field have upheld conservative knowledge production and reinforced unequal power structures This volume seeks to challenge these biases by foregrounding critical and decolonial approaches that emphasize gender race culture global history and political economy Its diverse chapters invite us to question mainstream assumptions and promote a broader more inclusive analysis of peace and conflict The handbook explores the evolution of the field highlighting the impact of historical events and the role of oppositional knowledge in political change It offers a critical overview of theoretical approaches emphasizing reflexivity inclusivity and the importance of local actors in peace and conflict dynamics Additionally it examines how cultural and disciplinary assumptions shape peacebuilding and conflict transformation and it critiques traditional global narratives on issues like governance climate change and human rights Finally the handbook presents real world case studies that integrate themes of decoloniality race gender and power inequalities across diverse global contexts By centering the Global South and integrating interdisciplinary perspectives this handbook provides valuable insights for scholars and practitioners committed to fostering a more equitable and just world

Whitehall Colin Brown, 2009-05-05 WHITEHALL the name of a street now synonymous with the civil service has been the centre of British religious and political power for over 500 years Whitehall takes the reader behind closed doors to explore the fascinating history that lies behind the facade of the great departments of state and some of the greatest figures in British history including Henry VIII's playground the execution of Charles I Nelson's tortured love life and Winston Churchill's plans for a last stand against the forces of Hitler's Nazi invaders It explores the private house in Whitehall ignored by tourists today which became the most notorious address in London when Byron and Lady Caroline Lamb conducted their very public and tempestuous love affair there Inside Admiralty House screened from public view is the elaborately decorated boardroom equipped with its own wind clock where Nelson received his orders to attack the French There is also the dining room where Nelson fumed over dinner with his wife Fanny who burst into tears at his black mood Fragments of the tennis courts where Anne Boleyn watched Henry VIII playing tennis in his slops have survived behind the walls of the Cabinet Office at 70 Whitehall Beyond its glass doors a secret passageway leads to Number Ten Downing Street Cabinet papers reveal that Winston Churchill planned to use Whitehall as a fortress in 1940 when Britain faced imminent invasion by Hitler's Nazi forces The documents published for the first time show how Churchill prepared for street fighting in Whitehall's departments as he made his final stand And it also reveals for the first time the films that helped Churchill escape the rigors of war in his underground cinema at Whitehall as the Prime Minister battled to and an equal number under Wellington faced one another in a titanic and bloody struggle In the end as John Keegan notes contemporaries felt that Napoleon s defeat had reversed the tide of European history Even 190 years later the name Waterloo resounds Italian historian Alessandro Barbero s majestic new account stands apart from previous British and French histories by giving voice to all the nationalities that took part Invoking the memories of British French and Prussian soldiers Barbero meticulously re creates the conflict as it unfolded from General Reille s early afternoon assault on the chateau of Hougoumont to the desperate last charge of Napoleon s Imperial Guard as evening settled in From privates to generals Barbero recounts individual miracles and tragedies moments of courage and foolhardiness skillfully blending them into the larger narrative of the battle s extraordinary ebb and flow One is left with indelible images cavalry charges against soldiers formed in squares the hand to hand combat around farmhouses endless cannon balls and smoke And finally a powerful appreciation of the inevitability and futility of war To be published on the 190th anniversary of Waterloo The Battle
