Black Student Teachers' Experiences of Racism in the White School Veronica Poku, 2022-06-02 This book investigates the racism experienced by Black teacher trainee Post graduate students whilst on teaching placements in South London primary schools Using critical race theory as an epistemological lens the book goes on to explore their experiences in school via testimonies around the gaslighting they were subjected to Chapters delve into how these students work to fit themselves into the school's white space at an emotional and psychological cost and addresses the questions these experiences raise for those in charge of PGCE courses and Initial Teacher Education

Citizenship in Diverse Societies Will Kymlicka, Wayne Norman, 2000-03-16 Is it possible in a modern pluralistic society to promote common bonds of citizenship while at the same time accommodating and showing respect for ethnocultural diversity Citizenship and diversity have been two of the major topics of debate in both democratic politics and political theory over the past decade Much has been written about the importance of citizenship civic identities and civic virtues for the functioning of liberal democracies and the need to accommodate the ethnocultural linguistic and religious pluralism that is a fact of life in most modern states By and large however these two topics have been largely discussed in mutual isolation Much of the writing on the issues of both citizenship and diversity remains rather abstract and general and disconnected from the specific issues of public policy and institutional design Citizenship in Diverse Societies examines the specific points of conflict and convergence between concerns for citizenship and diversity in democratic societies and reassesses and refines existing theories of diverse citizenship by examining these theories in the light of actual practices and policies of pluralistic democracies

Readings in

Language and Identity Hassen Zriba, 2020-07-06 This edited collection studies the complex and multifaceted relations between language and identity from a variety of theoretical perspectives It brings together researchers from a range of fields to broach and shed light on crucial but tricky aspects of the relationships between language and identity The contributors here employ different theoretical and methodological approaches to evince the discursive formations that emerge out of the encounters and conjectures of language and identity and their manifestations in various theories and practices As such this collection will serve to inform and advance debates about language and identity and their meanings in contemporary academic communities and cultural contexts
