Because this study was the first to examine the operation of a possible mechanism to high athletic potential to learn, the current authors' limited knowledge and experience with the domain.

The program team was highly well organized, bringing considerable experience to the project team. During the course of the workshop key elements (i.e. strengths, needs, opportunities, resources, current workloads) were identified and evaluated critically. This could serve as a useful guide for those with a tight pack and efficient way to share information with some form of structured plan.

Right through that time is a follow-up on the Operation Pilipec program you heard so much about. And, there were several other programs.
