International Business in Australia before World War One Simon Ville,David Merrett,2022-09-29 This book challenges conventional wisdom by revealing an extensive and heterogeneous community of foreign businesses in Australia before 1914 Multinational enterprise arrived predominantly from Britain but other sender nations included the USA France Germany New Zealand and Japan Their firms spread out across Australia from mining and pastoral communities to portside industries and CBD precincts and they operated broadly across mining trading shipping insurance finance and manufacturing They were a remarkably diverse population of firms by size organisational form and longevity This is a rare study of the impact of multinationals on a host nation particularly before World War One and that focuses on a successful resource based economy Deploying a database of more than 600 firms supported by contemporary archives and publications the work reveals how multinational influence was contested by domestic enterprise other foreign firms and the strategic investments of governments in network industries Nonetheless foreign agency particularly investment knowledge and entrepreneurship mattered in the economic development of Australia in the nineteenth as well as the twentieth centuries This book will be of interest to students and researchers in Australian and international economic and business history the history of economic growth and scholars of international business

Capital: Melbourne When It Was the Capital City of Australia 1901-27 Kristin Otto,2009-10-26 In 1901 the Australian colonies came together to form a new nation which for the next twenty six years was governed from Melbourne It was a small city a place where people knew each other not just the people who mattered but those who didn t yet where small changes loomed large and the import of big changes could scarcely be imagined Yet in the extraordinary first quarter of the twentieth century the world lurched headlong into a new era And this overgrown town in all but name the nation's capital oversaw the birth of modern Australia In Capital Kristin Otto describes how it happened She looks at the developments that shaped the world we know today from the story of Helena Rubinstein and the invention of the cosmetics industry to the world's first feature film to confectionery king Mac Robertson packaging pioneer and author of the city's first motor car fatality And she traces with the lightest of touches the web of influence friendship and sheer coincidence that held it all together For anyone who knows Melbourne Capital will be a fascinating conversation with an old friend For anyone who doesn't it will be a compelling introduction to a new one

A Tradition of Giving Michael Liffman, 2004 Explores the remarkable influence of the Myer family on the lives of Australians This book tells Sidney Myer's classic rags to riches story which sets the foundation for four generations of Myer philanthropists His generosity was epitomised by the legendary Christmas lunch he staged at the Melbourne Exhibition Building
