Syllabus Lynda Barry, Offers selected pages from the author's illustrated notebooks kept during a three year period when she was figuring out how to teach a course on keeping creative notebooks

Syllabus Lynda Barry, 2021-04-16 Writing exercises and creativity advice from Barry's pioneering life changing workshop The award winning author Lynda Barry is the creative force behind the genre defying and bestselling work What It Is She believes that anyone can be a writer and has set out to prove it For the past decade Barry has run a highly popular writing workshop for nonwriters called Writing the Unthinkable which was featured in The New York Times Magazine Syllabus Notes from an Accidental Professor is the first book to make her innovative lesson plans and writing exercises available to the public for home or classroom use Barry teaches a method of writing that focuses on the relationship between the hand the brain and spontaneous images both written and visual It has been embraced by people across North America prison inmates postal workers university students high school teachers and hairdressers for opening pathways to creativity Syllabus takes the course plan for Barry's workshop and runs wild with it in her densely detailed signature style Collaged texts ballpoint pen doodles and watercolor washes adorn Syllabus's yellow lined pages which offer advice on finding a creative voice and using memories to inspire the writing process Throughout it all Barry's voice as an author and as a teacher mentor rings clear inspiring and honest

The Mindful Classroom Tru Leverette, 2022-02-10 The Mindful Classroom Constructive Conversations on Race Identity and Justice helps teachers and discussion facilitators practice and teach mindfulness and movement techniques that can deeply enhance conversations about race identity and social justice furthering social justice efforts at their most basic stage person to person from the face to face or online classroom to the community at large Mindfulness and movement practices can help us prepare for and engage in difficult conversations and the more conscious we become of our emotional mental and physical landscape the more we are able to engage proactively rather than reactively consciously rather than automatically We become able to act or not act rather than react in situations with others The topics of race and social justice are timely and they are triggers Productive engagement with these topics demands we remain mindful of how we may be triggered and how we may be triggering others it demands we pay attention to ourselves at a fundamental level and it demands that we grant such attention to others

Renew! Shawna Coppola, 2023-10-10 When was the last time you shook up your writing instruction In Renew Become a Better and More Authentic Writing Teacher author Shawna Coppola builds on the premise that our students are ever changing and so is our collective knowledge base Instructional strategies that have worked in the past may need to evolve accordingly Coppola guides K 8 writing teachers with a three part framework for Rethinking Revising and Renewing their approaches and finding new energy along the way Using the framework Renew examines the most pervasive educational practices in writing instruction and poses questions that guide teachers to revise those practices to ensure they are effective for all students Coppola believes the work is challenging yet critical referencing R Buckminster Fuller's Knowledge Doubling Curve According to Fuller's paradigm the amount of time it takes for us to increase our collective knowledge base by 100 percent will continue to shrink the older we get If this is true or even close to being true how can we as educators ever feel satisfied with teaching our students the same concepts using the same methodologies and practices that we have in the past The book offers a road map for renewing key aspects of our practice including How we teach the writing process Over time and frequent usage some of our favorite teaching strategies can become rigid Coppola gives a candid account of how her enthusiasm for the writing process as an undergraduate led her to teach writing for years as a set of pre-determined steps Now she teaches that there are many variations of the writing process and many twists and turns along the path One foundational strategy used is opening up her own process as a writer and her writer's notebooks to students and encouraging them to think and talk about their process with classmates What we mean by Writing Coppola argues that drawing isn't an accompaniment to writing it is writing It's another form of composition through which students can tell stories convey ideas and engage readers The book is full of visual compositions by students as well as Shawna's wonderfully simple and evocative sketches from her writer's notebook The tools we use to teach writing The most ubiquitous tools used to teach writing from anchor charts to graphic organizers to sentence starters etc tend to be teacher-centric rather than student-centric Renew invites students into the process of constructing tools that are meaningful and helpful to them The book includes a range of examples of tools built collaboratively with students How we assess and evaluate student writing Coppola draws a distinction between assessments which should be an interactive conversation with students and evaluation which is about judging and categorizing what students know and can do Renew offers a range of examples and resources that illustrate effective feedback for student writers including online videos of teacher-student and peer-to-peer conferences Renew also offers ideas for how teachers can nurture their own writing lives and thus reinvigorate their instructional practice Through rethinking revising and renewing their practice teachers can not only strengthen students' skills as writers but also nurture students to become critical thinkers problem solvers and risk takers in the classroom and in our rapidly changing world

Creative, Not Famous Ayun Halliday, 2022-05-10 Few artists achieve fame and fortune but that doesn't mean your creative life can't flourish Writer, illustrator, zinemaker and playwright Ayun Halliday interviewed dozens of creative people and shared her own experiences to produce this rallying cry for the small potato someone whose focus is making cool meaningful work and living a creative life rather than achieving wealth or celebrity Sections range from the practice of artmaking to wrangling self-doubt to DIY marketing and self-promotion Along the way Halliday shows that your art can bring you satisfaction success community and a modest income without losing sight of your reasons for doing it in the first place

addresses multimodality scholarship and its use in the composition classroom Despite scholars interest in their students multiple literacies multimodal composition is far from the norm in most writing classes Essays explore how multimodality can be implemented in courses and narrow the gap between those who regularly engage in this instruction and those who are still considering its scholarly and pedagogical value After an introductory section reviewing the theory literature chapters present research on implementing multimodal composition in diverse contexts Contributors address starter subjects like using comics blogs or multimodal journals more ambitious topics such as multimodal assignments in online instruction or digital story telling and complex issues like assessment transfer and rhetorical awareness Bridging the Multimodal Gap translates theory into practice and will encourage teachers including WPAs TAs and contingent faculty to experiment with multiple modes of communication in their projects Contributors Sara P Alvarez Steven Alvarez Michael Baumann Joel Bloch Aaron Block Jessie C Borgman Andrew Bourelle Tiffany Bourelle Kara Mae Brown Jennifer J Buckner Angela Clark Oates Michelle Day Susan DeRosa D nielle Nicole DeVoss Stephen Ferruci Layne M P Gordon Bruce Horner Matthew Irwin Elizabeth Kleinfeld Ashanka Kumari Laura Sceniak Matravers Jessica S B Newman Mark Pedretti Adam Perzynski Breanne Potter Caitlin E Ray Areti Sakellaris Khirsten L Scott Rebecca Thorndike Breeze Jon Udelson Shane A Wood Rick Wysocki Kathleen Blake Yancey With Great Power Comes Great Pedagogy Susan E. On Mutant Pedagogies Stephanie Jones, James F Woglom, 2017-02-01 This ground breaking book on pedagogy research and philosophy in teacher education expands the imagination of justice oriented education and arts based scholarship Based on a multi year study of Jones use of feminist pedagogies the book seamlessly moves between classroom practice theory and philosophy in a way that will offer something for everyone those who are looking for new ways of doing teacher education those who hope to better understand philosophy and those who seek new ways of doing inquiry and scholarship Demonstrating through pedagogy method and form that we have more power than we think and don t have to repeat what has been handed down to us the creators critique the restrictions of traditional teacher education and academic discourse This critique prompts a move outward into unpredictable spaces of encounter where a maybe world might be lived in education In this way Jones and Woglom don t make the case for a certain kind of pedagogy or scholarly inquiry that might be repeated but rather they invite educators and researchers to take seriously the philosophical ideas of Deleuze Guattari Barad and others who argue that humans are in a constant aesthetic process of becoming with other humans non human life and the material world around them Thus education even teacher education is not about reaching an already known end goal but growing and changing through multiple ways of being and perceiving in the world The authors call this mutant pedagogies and show one ethical path of mutating Seeing Comics through Art History Maggie Gray,Ian Horton,2022-06-17 This book explores what the methodologies of Art History might offer Comics Studies in terms of addressing overlooked aspects of aesthetics form materiality perception and visual style As well as considering what Art History proposes of comic scholarship including the questioning of some of its deep rooted categories and procedures it also appraises what comics and Comics Studies afford and ask of Art History This book draws together the work of international scholars applying art historical methodologies to the study of a range of comic strips books cartoons graphic novels and manga who as well as being researchers are also educators artists designers curators producers librarians editors and writers with some undertaking practice based research Many are trained art historians but others come from have migrated into or straddle other disciplines such as Comparative Literature American Literature Cultural Studies Visual Studies and a range of subjects within Art Design practice Contagious Imagination Jane Tolmie,2022-07-27 Contributions by Frederick Luis Aldama Melissa Burgess Susan Kirtley Rachel Luria Ursula Murray Husted Mark O Connor Allan Pero Davida Pines Tara Prescott Johnson Jane Tolmie Rachel Trousdale Elaine Claire Villacorta and Glenn Willmott Lynda Barry b 1956 is best known for her distinctive style and unique voice first popularized in her underground weekly comic Ernie Pook s Comeek Since then she has published prolifically including numerous comics illustrated novels and nonfiction books exploring the creative process Barry s work is genre and form bending often using collage to create what she calls word with drawing vignettes Her art imaginative and self reflective allows her to discuss gender race relationships memory and her personal everyday lived experience It is through this experience that Barry examines the creative process and offers to readers ways to record and examine their own lives The essays in Contagious Imagination The Work and Art of Lynda Barry edited by Jane Tolmie study the pedagogy of Barry s work and its application academically and practically Examining Barry s career and work from the point of view of research creation Contagious Imagination applies Barry s unique mixture of teaching art learning and creativity to the very form of the volume exploring Barry s imaginative praxis and offering readers their own With a foreword by Frederick Luis Aldama and an afterword by Glenn Willmott this volume explores the impact of Barry s work in and out of the classroom Divided into four sections Teaching and Learning which focuses on critical pedagogy Comics and Autobiography which targets various practices of remembering Cruddy a self explanatory category that offers two extraordinary critical interventions into Barry criticism around a challenging text and Research Creation which offers two creative synthetic artistic pieces that embody and enact Barry s own mixed academic and creative investments this book offers numerous inroads into Barry s idiosyncratic imagination and what it can teach us about ourselves Trans Care Hil Malatino,2020-09-01 A radical and necessary rethinking of trans care What does it mean for trans people to show up for one another to care deeply for one another How have failures of care shaped trans lives What care practices have trans subjects and communities cultivated in the wake of widespread transphobia and systemic forms of trans exclusion Trans Care is a critical intervention in how care labor and care ethics have been thought arguing that dominant modes of conceiving and critiquing the politics and distribution of care entrench normative and cis centric familial structures and gendered arrangements A serious consideration of trans survival and flourishing requires a radical rethinking of how care operates Forerunners is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital works Written between fresh ideas and finished books Forerunners draws on scholarly work initiated in notable blogs social media conference plenaries journal articles and the synergy of academic exchange This is gray literature publishing where intense thinking change and speculation take place in scholarship The Power of Comics and Graphic Novels Randy Duncan,Matthew J. Smith,Paul Levitz,2023-09-21 After the successful and innovative first two editions now in a new restructured 3rd edition this remains the most authoritative introduction for studying comic books and graphic novels covering their place in contemporary culture the manifestations and techniques of the art form the evolution of the medium and how to analyze and write about them The new edition includes A completely reworked introduction explores the comics community in the US and globally its history and the role of different communities in advancing the medium and its study Chapters reframed to get students thinking about themselves as consumers and makers of comics Reorganized chapters on form help to unpack encapsulation composition and layout Completely new chapters on comics and how they can be used to report document and persuade as well as a new Preface by Karen Green Illustrated throughout with discussion questions and activities for every chapter and an extensive glossary of key terms The Power of Comics and Graphic Novels also includes further updated resources available online including additional essays weblinks and sample syllabi The Cambridge Companion to Comics Maaheen Ahmed,2023-08-31 Interweaving history and theory this book unpacks the complexity of comics covering formal critical and institutional dimensions Historiographies of Game Studies Alisha Karabinus,2025-07-25 Historiographies of Game Studies offers a first of its kind reflection on how game studies as an academic field has been shaped and sustained Today game studies is a thriving field with many dedicated national and international conferences journals professional societies and a strong presence at conferences in disciplines like computer science communication media studies theater visual arts popular culture and others But when did game studies start And what and who is at the core or center of game studies Fields are defined as much by what they are not as by what they are and their borderlands can be hotly contested spaces In this anthology scholars from across the field consider how the boundaries of game studies have been established codified contested and protected raising critical questions about who and what gets left out of the field Over more than two dozen chapters and interviews with leading figures including Espen Aarseth Kishonna Gray Henry Jenkins Lisa Nakamura Kentaro Matsumoto Ken McAllister and Janet Murray the contributors offer a dazzling array of insightful provocations that address the formation propagation and cultivation of game studies interrogating not only the field's pasts but its potential futures and asking us to think deliberately about how academic fields are collectively built
