The Writer's Portable Mentor Priscilla Long, 2018-09-15 Designed to mentor writers at all levels from beginning to quite advanced The Writer's Portable Mentor offers a wealth of insight and crafting models from the author's twenty-plus years of teaching and creative thought The book provides tools for structuring a book story or essay It trains writers in observation and in developing a poet's ear for sound in prose It scrutinizes the sentence strategies of the masters and offers advice on how to publish This second edition is updated to account for changes in the publishing industry and provides hundreds of new craft models to inspire guide and develop every writer's work

Borrowed Voices Jennifer Glaser, 2016-03-10 In the decades following World War II many American Jews sought to downplay their difference as a means of assimilating into Middle America Yet a significant minority including many prominent Jewish writers and intellectuals clung to their ethnic difference using it to register dissent with the status quo and act as spokespeople for non-white America In this provocative book Jennifer Glaser examines how racial ventriloquism became a hallmark of Jewish American fiction as Jewish writers asserted that their own ethnicity enabled them to speak for other minorities Rather than simply condemning this racial ventriloquism as a form of cultural appropriation or commending it as an act of empathic imagination Borrowed Voices offers a nuanced analysis of the technique judiciously assessing both its limitations and its potential benefits Glaser considers how the practice of racial ventriloquism has changed over time examining the books of many well-known writers including Bernard Malamud Cynthia Ozick Philip Roth Michael Chabon Saul Bellow and many others Bringing Jewish studies into conversation with critical race theory Glaser also opens up a dialogue between Jewish American literature and other forms of media including films

magazines and graphic novels Moreover she demonstrates how Jewish American fiction can help us understand the larger anxieties about ethnic identity authenticity and authorial voice that emerged in the wake of the civil rights movement

Flat-World Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2021-12-15 Flat World Fiction analyzes representations of digital technology and the social and ethical concerns it creates in mainstream literary American fiction and fiction written about the United States in the first two decades of the twenty first century In this period authors such as Don DeLillo Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers Joshua Ferris Jonathan Safran Foer Mohsin Hamid Thomas Pynchon Kristen Roupenian Gary Shteyngart and Zadie Smith found themselves not only implicated in the developing digital world of flat screens but also threatened by it while simultaneously attempting to critique it As a result their texts explore how human relationships with digital devices and media transform human identity and human relationships with one another history divinity capitalism and nationality Liliana M Naydan walks us through these complex relationships revealing how authors show through their fiction that technology is political In the process these authors complement and expand on work by historians philosophers and social scientists creating accessible literary road maps to our digital future

Calling for Charlie Barnes Joshua Ferris,2021-09-28 Named a best book of the year by NPR Vogue and the New York Times Book Review the hilarious and profound new novel from National Book Award finalist Joshua Ferris is a fine American novel about family love and a decent but flawed man trying to be better Stephen King Someone is telling the story of the life of Charlie Barnes and it doesn t appear to be going well Too often divorced discontent with life s compromises and in a house he hates this lifelong schemer and eternal romantic would like out of his present circumstances and into the American dream But when the twin calamities of the Great Recession and a cancer scare come along to compound his troubles his dreams dwindle further and an infinite past full of forking paths quickly tapers to a black dot Then against all odds something goes right for a change Charlie is granted a second act With help from his storyteller son he surveys the facts of his life and finds his true calling where he least expects it in a sacrifice that redounds with selflessness and love at last becoming the man his son always knew he could be A Calling for Charlie Barnes is a profound and tender portrait of a man whose desperate need to be loved is his downfall and a brutally funny account of how that love is ultimately earned A masterpiece that shines a revealing light on both family and fiction itself Michael Schaub NPR The Neoliberal Imagination in Contemporary Literature Tammy Amiel Houser,2024-08-06 This book examines the relationship between empathy and neoliberalism as it unfolded in the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis and through the turbulent 2010s Via close readings of contemporary novels as well as various non fictional texts it traces the changing approaches to empathy in the post financial crisis imagination highlighting a crucial re conceptualization of empathy as a boundaryless force untethered to local or social circumstance This reconceptualization implicitly aligns empathy with the neoliberal ethos of globalism and distances it from the traditional notion of sympathy Via complex dialogue with the novelistic tradition of sympathy contemporary novelists highlight the problematics of boundaryless empathy while exploring ways to resist neoliberal views and values Analyzing engagements with empathy in post 2008 literature and culture the book sheds light on the underlying affective dynamics that enabled the persistence of neoliberalism after the 2008 financial crisis alongside efforts to challenge its dominance Buzz

Books 2014: Spring/Summer ,2014-01-08 There s nothing like the excitement of being one of the first people to discover a great new read Now in its fourth edition Buzz Books has proven itself as the place where book publishing insiders and passionate book lovers alike can get their first taste of some of the year s most extraordinary new books The overwhelming majority of our selections go on to win awards and appear on booksellers monthly lists of best books as well as best books of the year from many sources while topping bestseller lists and reading group selections as well. Some people think of the spring and summer publishing seasons as a quieter time but last year's Buzz Books collection provided early looks at such books as Philipp Meyer's The Son, Kate Atkinson's Life After Life and Anthony Marra's debut A Constellation of Vital Phenomena all hailed as among the year's very best novels. Inside the book business, this volume also coincides with one of the most important industry events: the American Booksellers Association's Winter Institute. This is an annual gathering of 500 independent booksellers, now a major launch pad for the spring and summer seasons where dozens of authors, including ten of those whose work is included here, sign pre-publication galleys and discuss their forthcoming books informally with bookstore owners. Instead of keeping that industry buzz closed off in the room with that small group of lucky booksellers, we're giving everyone the same kind of access to checking out the newest voices the publishing industry is building for the next season. Samples of novelists you may already know and love include new books from British authors Jojo Moyes' One Plus One and Edward St Aubyn's Lost for Words alongside bestselling writers Robyn Carr's Four Friends and Greg Iles, now with a new publisher for his latest thriller Natchez Burning. We preview Giller Prize winner Joseph Boyden's The Orenda, already lavishly honored in Canada, plus praised novelists Jean Kwok, known for Girl in Translation, and Maggie Shipstead, author of Seating Arrangements, return with their anticipated second novels. This edition's collection of highly anticipated debuts includes everything from screenwriter Laine Paull's The Bees and Marie Helene Bertino's 2 A.M. at the Cat's Pajamas to a posthumous roman clef from magazine journalist Michael Hastings to bestselling narrative nonfiction author of Burning Down the House, the basis for the movie The Social Network, Ben Mezrich's Seven Wonders. Our selection of nonfiction is modest in quantity but broad in range, from Twitter co-founder Biz Stone to author of bestselling Nickel and Dimed, Barbara Ehrenreich's memoir. We also include memoir with recipes from Leah Eskin and in letters from Nina Stibbe, plus the latest from bestselling science journalist Sam Kean. Our biggest ever section of young adult literature mirrors the growing popularity of these works among readers young and not so young. Sally Green's Half Bad is already an international publishing sensation ahead of its release with sales in dozens of territories. We sample new works from well-known authors such as Ann Brashares and Lemony Snicket alongside Twilight New Moon director Chris Weitz's The Young World, the first in a new series, and Scholastic editor Amanda Maciel's Tease. There is something here for every reader's taste, and the selections are roughly organized by genre and then publication date. For a broader picture of new books on the horizon, fill your to-be-read lists with the extensive preview of the publishing seasons that starts off Buzz Books. We love providing these exciting excerpts ahead of publication, and you can share this free ebook with friends and spread your enthusiasm for any of these selections online. Buzz Books can be downloaded for free from any major ebookstore, and we have included direct links to pre-order the full book after each excerpt.

The Betrayers David Bezmozgis, 2024-09-24 These incandescent pages give us one fraught, momentous day in the life of Baruch Kotler, a Soviet Jewish dissident who now finds himself a disgraced Israeli.

politician When he refuses to back down from a contrary but principled stand regarding the settlements in the West Bank his political opponents expose his affair with a mistress decades his junior and the besieged couple escapes to Yalta the faded Crimean resort of Kotler's youth There shockingly Kotler encounters the former friend whose denunciation sent him to the Gulag almost forty years earlier In a whirling twenty four hours Kotler must face the ultimate reckoning both with those who have betrayed him and with those whom he has betrayed including a teenage daughter a son facing his own moral dilemma in the Israeli army and the wife who once campaigned to secure his freedom and stood by him through so much Stubborn wry and self knowing Baruch Kotler is one of the great creations of contemporary fiction An aging man grasping at a final passion he is drawn inexorably into a crucible that is both personal and biblical in scope In prose that is elegant sly precise and devastating in its awareness of the human heart David Bezmozgis has rendered a story for the ages an inquest into the nature of fate and consequence love and forgiveness The Betrayers is a high wire act a powerful tale of morality and sacrifice that will haunt readers long after they turn the final page
