Today Show Weather Report:

The Today Show Cathleen M. Londino, 2016-11-15 In the early 1950s when television networks did not broadcast regular programming before 11 a.m. radio and newspapers were the most popular and reliable ways for Americans to get their morning news. Then Sylvester Pat Weaver, vice president of programming at NBC, pitched a bold new concept to the network: a two-hour early morning news show that would run Monday through Friday starting at 7 a.m. By developing Today, Weaver filled a programming void before viewers even realized there was one and revolutionized the viewing habits of millions. In The Today Show Transforming Morning Television, Cathleen M. Londino provides an entertaining and informative look at the first twenty-five years of NBC's innovative program from 1952 through 1977. Focusing on Today's broadcast history, the personalities instrumental to the show's success, and the show's contributions to the entertainment industry, this account illustrates how the evolution of Today closely paralleled the development of the broadcast industry and rise of the major networks. In addition to chronicling the show's history, the author profiles some of the key players both behind and in front of the camera, including Dave Garroway, Barbara Walters, Tom Brokaw, and Jane Pauley. The vision of morning news developed by Weaver more than sixty years ago endured far beyond his wildest expectations, establishing a model that would eventually be adopted not only by competing networks but also by television programmers around the globe. The Today Show Transforming Morning Television is a fascinating account of the unprecedented success of this influential program and will appeal to anyone interested in television history. Hearings United States. Audition Barbara Walters, 2009-05-05 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER An inspiring and riveting memoir from the most important woman in the history of television journalism A delightful tale of the golden age of television Juicy behind the scenes details of the celebrities she s interviewed mixed in with stories of her own trials and tribulations The Washington Post After more than fifty years of interviewing heads of state world leaders movie stars criminals murderers inspirational figures and celebrities of all kinds Barbara Walters turns her gift for examination onto her own extraordinary life Walters was the product of a turbulent childhood that featured a glamorous father who made and lost several fortunes as well as the companionship of a mentally challenged sister Feelings of responsibility for her family played a large part in the choices she made as she grew up the friendships she developed the relationships she had the marriages she tried to make work Ultimately thanks to her drive and a decent amount of luck Walters made it to the top of a male dominated industry She was the first woman cohost of the Today show the first female network news coanchor the host and producer of countless top rated Specials the star of 20/20 and the creator and cohost of The View She has not only interviewed the world s most fascinating figures she has become a part of their world These are just a few of the names that play a key role in her life career and book Yasir Arafat Warren Beatty Menachem Begin George H W Bush George W Bush Jimmy Carter Fidel Castro Hugo Chavez Bill and Hillary Clinton Roy Cohn the Dalai Lama Princess Diana Katharine Hepburn King Hussein Angelina Jolie Henry Kissinger Monica Lewinsky Richard Nixon Rosie O Donnell Christopher Reeve Anwar Sadat John Wayne the list goes on Barbara Walters has spent a lifetime auditioning for her bosses at the TV networks for millions of viewers for the most famous people in the world and even for her own daughter with whom she has had a difficult but ultimately quite wonderful and moving relationship This book in some ways is her final audition as she fully opens up both her private and public lives In doing so she has given us a story that is heartbreaking and honest surprising and fun sometimes startling and always fascinating

What Made Me Who I Am Bernie Swain, 2016-09-06 Starting a business is a wonderfully naive venture Only a fortunate few will survive and very few of those who thrive will have something special to say about failure success and leadership Bernie Swain is one of those few very fortunate people He quit his job in 1980 to start a lecture agency with his wife and a friend By the end of their first rocky year just as his savings were running out Swain s first revenues trickled in He began signing every speaker with a handshake this proved to be the hallmark of trust that helped accelerate the company's growth Years later his roster of speakers would be the greatest in history since America's first agency represented a host of notables such as Mark Twain Susan B Anthony and Frederick Douglass The best of Swain's fortunes turned out to be the speakers themselves because these remarkable leaders had become his personal friends What Made Me Who I Am captures the leadership transformations of 34 of those friends from Doris Kearns Goodwin to Colin Powell Terry Bradshaw to Tom Brokaw and Tony Blair to Dave Barry This assembly of people defines a generation What were their most powerful influences Defining moments Decisions that contributed the most to their character and accomplishments Swain captures answers to these questions and more in an inspiring practical collection of true life stories for leaders today What Made Me Who I Am is also a terrific gift book for graduates and others who are just starting out in life

Homeland Richard Beck, 2025-03-11 For twenty years after September 11 the war on terror was simultaneously everywhere and nowhere With all of the military violence occurring overseas Americans found themselves living in two worlds at the same time In one of them soldiers fought abroad so that nothing at home would have to change at all In the other life in the United States took on all kinds of unfamiliar shapes altering people s sense of themselves their neighbours and the strangers they sat next to on aeroplanes In a fascinating and exhaustive account of the meaning of twenty first century America Richard Beck delivers a gripping exploration of the transformation of American life wrought by the war He describes sports stadiums fortified to look like military bases The surging sales of guns SUVs and pickup trucks The racism and xeno phobia the erosion of free speech and the normalisation of mass surveillance Beck searchingly asks why those Americans who excused the worst abuses of the war on terror also had the easiest time understanding themselves as patriots The war fuelled an impunity culture he argues that came to a head with Trump s rise to power To see America through the lens of Homeland is to understand the country like never before

Investigating Natural Disasters Through Children's Literature Anthony D. Fredericks,2001-04-15 Natural disasters enthrall with their potency might and devastation Tap into students inherent awe of storms volcanic eruptions hurricanes earthquakes tornadoes floods avalanches landslides and tsunamis to open their minds to the wonders and power of the natural world Using quality children s literature as a springboard to learning this guide extends the understanding of science concepts through short activities longer projects and adventures This participatory approach keeps the focus on the processes of science and promotes a personal response to learning Students can use the literature and activities not just to better understand the forces of nature but to grasp the implications of that potency on the lives of people near and far
