Vick, 2014-03-25 The Poetry Book is more than a collection of poems it is instructive as to poetic technique and convention as well as types of poetry In it there are no prose paragraphs that have been restructured into stanzas or mysteriously configured and presented as poems with diction and subject little more interesting than closed garage doors in a tract home subdivision There is free verse here and traditional rhythm and rhyme but it is all poetry And it is poetry not because the author wants it to be but because of the poetic techniques and conventions he has employed A stanza does not a poem make nor does bombastic delivery If the traditions rules of writing and conventions of literary history are of no value to poetry then there is no poetry Poetry People Sylvia M. Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic
