Note for Note (Another Pentateuch) Book 3: Harvest Marcus M. Cornelius,2013-03-12 Book 1 Plough followed an exiled individuals search for inner coherence in an incoherent and violent world more than 1000 years ago Book 2 Growth witnessed the establishment of a sustainable harmony between a community and the land upon which they had lived for three or four centuries but within and beyond which community were the seeds of its own decay Book 3 Harvest shows a far more developed and structured society which comprises several clear levels from the rulers and the priesthood who impose order through the artists artisans and peasants down to the untouchables the people of the mud about whom it is forbidden to even speak The story follows three main characters Kimi the principal courtesan of the ruler Nohbul the ferryman and his family who had fallen from grace and seek to re establish themselves in a state of grace and Seth a mute The society comes under threat from external and foreign influences and from the volcano The Blameless in the shadow of which the society had evolved The story is told on five levels all but the final chapter having five parts They each start with a section called The Names on historical martyrs who are not well known evidence of the lost tribes of Israel and the tribes of the Roma who between them represent the two major diaspora in the history of human society This is followed by a poem and then the story of one of each of twenty six masks which were part of the dome of a grand building buried perhaps centuries earlier after a convulsion of the earth There is then an Anecdote about events that may or may not concern residents of the society at the heart of the book and finally the story itself Each of these levels can be read as a sequence in themselves or in the order in which they are presented in the book Harvest takes place along the river which was a mountain spring in Book 1 and a vital stream in Book 2 Destined Love of Two Lives , Chuanyueshi,2020-06-18 The worse a man is the more he loves a woman regardless of whether it is ancient or modern it seems to be impossible to escape from this law but the love between Qin Menghan and An Shaohua is like this ten years of love ten years of love going around in circles going through all sorts of hardships But they never would have thought that because of their negligence and kindness they would bury their daughter in danger fall in love with someone they shouldn't have but are willing to go through fire and go through water for him
