Sidda Goud, 2023-03-21 Indian Ocean third largest Ocean in the world surpasses the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans Being world's most populated Region one third of the world's bulk cargo and two thirds of world's oil ship tankers passes through the Indian Ocean China's interests in the Indian Ocean Region can be traced and backed by early 60's Ever since Beijing has been increasingly deepening its presence in the Indian Ocean Region for a variety of reasons such as oil trade and security etc Over 30 per cent of China's seaborne trade worth about 300 billion transits across Indian Ocean Region Sharing a quarter of the world's population China facing ever increasing demand for energy China has little choice but to look beyond its borders for its energy requirements Around 77 percent of its oil imports are sourced from West Asia and Africa and these are transporting through the Indian Ocean via Malacca Strait Thus China's dependency on Indian Ocean Region continues to grow for energy imports from gulf and to import resources from Africa and trade with Europe With China steadily spreading its footprints in the IOR with increasing military presence and with rapidly growing its navy being equipped with warships destroyers and nuclear submarines through a strategy called String of Pearls which can encircle India in its convenient time in the near future So China has been emerging as biggest threat for India by analyzing its actions in the Indian Ocean Region and along with India China border from Easter Ladakh to Arunachal Pradesh as stand off continues since June 2020 Hrd Practices in Apsrtc Dr. Santosha Pavani Tammineni, 2016-06-28 A complete study on implementation of HRD practices in APSRTC at zonal level is rare in number In contrast to the earlier practices an attempt has been made by the researcher to trace out the impact of HRD practices on employees at zonal level and to investigate whether it is implemented in letter and spirit or not by reviewing operational performance of APSRTC and its financial function This work is not only an in depth study of HRD practices in APSRTC the study also presents an overview of the road transport sector in India With the advent of globalization transport sectors are confronted with challenges in improving productivity by successfully meeting the intense level of competition from its counterparts Business today is in a period of change and uncertainty The success will largely depend on how these challenges are matched with the utilization of human resources that is at our disposal It has been very unfortunate that the APSRTC has limited its human resource developmental practices for some cadres at apex level only without taking organizational climate of various zones into account while training their managerial personnel But the need of the hour is to put more emphasis on all the HRD practices at managerial level in the background of their level of climate The researcher looks at the problems of implementing HRD practices in the context of changing technological advancement and government policies

The Indian World ,1906 The Bombay Law Reporter ,1910 Doing Business in Today's India Douglas Bullis, 1998-01-13 As the world business climate globalizes and national economies become closely interlinked India looms as the largest country in the world to embrace the market economy Bullis maintains that not only will India be changed by international market forces it will have a significant impact upon the world economy as it emerges as a mass consumer market and an extended low cost manufacturing center But India has problems that pose difficulties for offshore investors Only with a clear idea of Indian business thinking and the relationship of commerce to India s complex mix of traditional caste and religious practices can businesspeople from the West gain any real hope of success This work provides the sort of far reaching information and advice essential for international businesspeople and for researchers and scholars in the academic community who want to be a part of India s economic future Bullis asserts that Indian businesspeople are far more knowledgeable about international markets than most international businesspeople are about India Yet India s long period of socialist dormancy produced very different concepts of management employee relations the role of competition marketing finance and business government relations All these factors will play critical roles in the success or failure of investment plans formulated outside India s borders Moreover Indian people have a more diverse and compartmentalized culture than any other people posing a marketing challenge and challenges of other kinds that outsiders may be ill equipped to handle Bullis s descriptions and analyses of the Indian economy social structure history and business practices will provide the kind of understandings that Westerners need to enter the Indian market and compete successfully
