Men Mentor Others Rosalind Kincaid, 2025-02-27 Men Mentor Others highlights the untapped resource of men in their 50s as mentors, emphasizing their potential to enrich both their own lives and the careers of others through mentorship programs. The book explores how leveraging the decades of experience possessed by these professionals can address critical needs in organizations. Did you know that by 2024, 25% of the workforce will be 55 or older? This demographic shift underscores the importance of capturing and transferring their valuable knowledge. This book delves into the psychological and sociological factors that influence men in mid-career, examining their motivations for legacy building and continued relevance. It provides practical strategies for implementing successful cross-generational mentoring initiatives, focusing on skills and qualities that make seasoned men effective mentors. Case studies illustrate how organizations have successfully engaged this demographic, improving employee retention and enhancing leadership development through mentorship.

Building Mentoring Capacity in Teacher Education John E. Henning, Dianne M. Gut, Pamela C. Beam, 2018-09-03 This book is an instructional guide for designing and implementing mentoring programs that support clinically based teacher education. Veteran teacher educators John E. Henning, Dianne M. Gut, and Pam C. Beam outline a developmental approach for supporting mentees as they grow in their careers, from teacher candidates to early career teachers and teacher leaders. Mentors will learn how professional development occurs and how to create the conditions to foster and accelerate it. In Part I, chapters outline key components of the mentoring process, including strategies for engaging, coaching, co-teaching, and encouraging reflection. Part II demonstrates how those strategies can support mentees at different stages of their development. Included throughout are case studies, activities, and discussion questions to facilitate learning.
