Okoro, 2020-06-24 In African Women and the Shame and Pain of Infertility An Ethico Cultural Study of Christian Response to Childlessness among the Igbo People of West Africa Okoro discusses the shipwreck that is associated with infertility in marriage in Africa Within this space childlessness places a big question mark on a woman's femininity and the self esteem of the man The stigma of infertility most often leads to social isolation and humiliation particularly of married women even when the source of infertility may not have come from them Unfortunately this situation goes against the highly valued Igbo ethical principle of onye aghala nwanne ya meaning no kith or kin should be left behind Therefore the purpose of the book is to help married people in Igbo land and Africa at large to appropriate this indigenous principle in their response to the problem of infertility To attain this the author critically evaluates discrimination and oppression of infertile couples particularly women and shedding light on the paradoxes found in Igbo cultural expressions He employs a constructive ethical cultural religious contextual and theological approach that explores important Igbo religious paradigms like Chi an Igbo religio cultural understanding of personal destiny and Ani the feminine deity in charge of the land and fertility to argue the case for the liberation and integration of infertile couples Dancing Female Sharon E.

Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participants in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references Mother Africa, Father Marx Hilary Owen, 2007 This book is the first work in the English language to discuss the participation of women writers in the narrative construction of Mozambican nationhood over the last half century Covering the rise of anti colonial nationalism in the 1950s the advent of the Marxist Leninist Republic in the 1970s the war that followed independence in the 1980s and the transition to democracy and the neo liberal economy in the 1990s the volume focuses on four representative women writers who belong to distinct but overlapping periods and work in different genres Dealing with Noemia de Sousa s poetry Lina Magaia s testimonial writings Lilia Momple s short fiction and Paulina Chiziane s novels the result is a close reading of the ways in which women have narrated and counter narrated Mozambican nationhood to take account of the gendered power relations that traditionally underpin national community as imagined by men Gender, Separatist Politics, and Embodied Nationalism in Cameroon Jacqueline-Bethel Tchouta Mougoué, 2019-10-14 Gender Separatist Politics and Embodied Nationalism in Cameroon illuminates how issues of ideal womanhood shaped the Anglophone

Cameroonian nationalist movement in the first decade of independence in Cameroon a west central African country Drawing upon history political science gender studies and feminist epistemologies the book examines how formally educated women sought to protect the cultural values and the self determination of the Anglophone Cameroonian state as Francophone Cameroon prepared to dismantle the federal republic The book defines and uses the concept of embodied nationalism to illustrate the political importance of women s everyday behavior the clothes they wore the foods they cooked whether they gossiped and their deference to their husbands The result in this fascinating approach reveals that West Cameroon which included English speaking areas was a progressive and autonomous nation The author s sources include oral interviews and archival records such as women s newspaper advice columns Cameroon s first cooking book and the first novel published by an Anglophone Cameroonian woman

African Theology Emmanuel Martey,2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey s African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey s understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent

Human Rights Under African Constitutions

Abdullahi Ahmed An-Na'im, 2013-10-09 Some of the most massive and persistent violations of human rights occur in African nations In Human Rights Under African Constitutions Realizing the Promise for Ourselves scholars from a wide range of fields present a sober systematic assessment of the prospects for legal protection of human rights in Africa In a series of detailed and highly contextual studies of Ethiopia Ghana Guinea Morocco Mozambique Nigeria Rwanda Senegal South Africa Sudan and Uganda experts seek to balance the socioeconomic and political diversity of these nations while using the same theoretical framework of legal analysis for each case study Standards for human rights protection can be realized only through direct and strong support from a nation's legal and political institutions The contributors to this volume uniformly conclude that a well informed and motivated citizenry is the most powerful force for creating the political will necessary to effect change at the national level In addition to a critical evaluation of the current state of human rights protection in each of these African nations the contributors outline existing national resources available for protecting human rights and provide recommendations for more effective and practical use of these resources

African Solutions Tšoeu Petlane, Steven Gruz, 2011 African Solutions is a result of research into the policies programmes and experiences identified as best practices in the Country Review Reports CRRs of twelve countries published under the African Peer Review Mechanism APRM from Algeria Benin Burkina Faso Ghana Kenya Lesotho Mali Mozambique Nigeria Rwanda South Africa and Uganda The research was commissioned and coordinated by the Governance and APRM Programme of the South African Institute of International Affairs SAIIA To justify this inquiry they argued among others that with the APRM conceived a voluntary mechanism and in the absence of hard pressure for compliance incentives rather than sanctions could be the way to strengthen the APRM Thus the importance of best practices as templates and models for reform and as a counterbalance to the temptation to concentrate on what is not working in Africa In this book therefore best practices identified in the twelve CRRs are examined critically and methodically with a view to understanding how they are conceptualised within the APRM including their definition and how they are intended to be used to achieve the desired results how the items reported as best practices qualify to be regarded as such in the sense of being demonstrably better than the rest replicable and addressing APRM goals and how they can be strengthened for use as material from peer learning within the APRM and around the continent Back cover

Andrew Grant, Jesse Salah Ovidia, 2022-03-01 There is no question that Africa is endowed with abundant natural resources of different magnitudes. However, more than a decade of high commodity prices and new hydrocarbon discoveries across the continent has led countless international organizations, donor agencies and non-governmental organizations to devote considerable attention to the potential of natural resource based development. Natural Resource Based Development in Africa places a particular emphasis on the actors that help us understand the extent to which resources could be transformed into broader developmental outcomes. Based on a wide variety of primary sources and fieldwork including in person interviews and participant observations, this collection contributes to both scholarly and policy discussions around the governance and economic development roles of local entrepreneurs, transnational firms, civil society groups, local communities and government agencies in Africa's natural resource sectors. Natural Resource Based Development in Africa explores the impact that these actors have on regional trends such as resource nationalism and local procurement policies as well as grassroots related issues such as poverty, livelihoods, gender equity, development and human security African Identities Kadiatu Kanneh, 2002-01-04 This fascinating and well researched study explores the meaning generated by Africa and Blackness throughout the century. Using literary texts, autobiography, ethnography and historical documents, African Identities discusses how ideas of Africa as an origin, as a cultural whole or as a complicated political problematic emerge as signifiers for analysis of modernity, nationhood and racial difference. Kanneh provides detailed readings of a range of literary texts including novels by Toni Morrison, Alice Walker, Gloria Naylor, Ngugi Wa Thiong'o, Chinua Achebe and V.S. Naipaul. For anyone interested in literature, history, anthropology, political writing, feminist or cultural analysis, this book opens up new areas of thought across disciplines.
