University Of Johannesburg Academic Calendar 2016:

Governance and Management in Higher Education Enakshi Sengupta, Patrick Blessinger, Nasiruddin Nezaami, 2022-04-26
Autonomy in governance and management in education has become the prerogative of higher education institutions whilst optimum allocation and use of resources have become the aim of all higher education institutions This volume explores the creation of knowledge and its dissemination in a way that creates a significant impact in society Chase's Calendar of Events 2016 Editors of Chase's, 2015-09-11 Chase's Calendar of Events is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference available on special events holidays federal and state observances historic anniversaries astronomical phenomena and more Published since 1957 Chase's is the only guide to special days weeks and months Decolonisation in Universities Jonathan Jansen, 2019-08-01 In this collection of case studies and stories from the field South African scholars come together to trade stories on how to decolonise the university Shortly after the giant bronze statue of Cecil John Rhodes came down at the University of Cape Town student protestors called for the decolonisation of universities It was a word hardly heard in South Africa's struggle lexicon and many asked What exactly is decolonisation This edited volume brings together the best minds in curriculum theory to address this important question In the process several critical questions are raised Is decolonisation simply a slogan for addressing other pressing concerns on campuses and in society What is the colonial legacy with respect to curriculum and can it be undone How is the project of curriculum decolonisation similar to or different from the quest for postcolonial knowledge indigenous knowledge or a critical theory of knowledge What does decolonisation mean in a digital age where relationships between knowledge and power are shifting The book combines strong conceptual analyses with novel case studies of attempts to do decolonisation in settings as diverse as South Africa Uganda Tanzania and Mauritius Such a comparative perspective enables reasonable judgements to be made about the prospects for institutional take up within the curriculum of century old universities Innovative curriculum design Neal Petersen, Adri du Toit, Elsa Mentz, Robert J. Balfour, 2023-09-29 The focus of this book is original research regarding the implementation of problem based learning and pedagogies of play as active approaches to foster self directed learning With the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR in mind educational institutions need to rethink teaching and learning for the future As such active engagement can be encouraged as evident in this book where problem based learning drives learning through real world problems while pedagogy of play focuses on innovative environments where the action of play and learning are integrated with the aim of developing SDL The following are addressed in the chapters an overview of problem based learning and pedagogy of play metaliteracy playful problem based learning tasks computational thinking in game based tasks and geometry solving puzzles applying LEGO using drama as the pedagogy of play and implementing educational robotics The empirical research findings disseminated in this book aim to inspire academics in the research focus area of self directed learning with active learning approaches in the school and tertiary classroom that hold affordances to enhance 21st century skills Active learning is an umbrella term for pedagogies that mainstream student engagement such as problem based learning cooperative learning gamification role play and drama This scholarly book highlights various engaging pedagogies

Department of Human Resources, Science and Technology, Knowledge for a Sustainable World Tor Halvorsen,Hilde Ibsen,2015-12-07 The search for answers to the issue of global sustainability has become increasingly urgent In the context of higher education many universities and academics are seeking new insights that can shift our dependence on ways of living that rely on the exploitation of so many and the degradation of so much of our planet This is the vision that drives SANORD and many of the researchers and institutions within its network Although much of the research is on a relatively small scale the vision is steadily gaining momentum forging dynamic collaborations and pathways to new knowledge The contributors to this book cover a variety of subject areas and offer fresh insights about chronically under researched parts of the world Others document and critically reflect on innovative approaches to cross continental teaching and research collaborations This book will be of interest to anyone involved in the transformation of higher education or the practicalities of cross continental and cross disciplinary academic collaboration The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a network of higher education institutions from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe Universities in the southern African and Nordic regions that are not yet members are encouraged to join The Other Sport Mega-Event: Rugby World Cup 2011 StevenJ. Jackson,2017-07-05 The mention of sport mega events conjures up images and memories of London 2012 or anticipation of FIFA 2014 the 2016 Rio Olympics and beyond Indeed the expanding annual calendar of sport mega events both in terms of the bidding process and the actual hosting of the event means that there is rarely time for considered reflection This is particularly true within the context of neo liberalism and an obsession with creating world class sporting cities that are propelled by state private promotional discourses that often silence oppositional voices This edited collection focuses on Rugby World Cup 2011 in order to examine the contested terrain of one particular sport mega event with respect to its economic political and cultural impact both locally and globally As an event the 2011 Rugby World Cup was unique in many ways but perhaps the most notable are the nation s remote geographic location and at just over four million people its small population This anthology addresses how the Rugby World Cup has changed since its inception in 1987 including a major shift in the globalisation of the game professionalization player migration and television and sponsorship rights The core of the anthology explores how the event impacted on various segments of New Zealand society from the state to regions and individual citizens Collectively the implications are relevant for all who are interested in sport mega events whether it is from a political economic scholarly or policy perspective This book was published as a special issue of Sport and Society Knowledge for a Sustainable World Tor Halvorsen,Hilde Ibsen,2015-12-07 The search for answers to the issue of global sustainability has become increasingly
