Studies in an African context Whose History Counts June Bam, Lungisile Ntsebeza, Allan Zinn, 2018-11-29 Originally planned as a fact based book on the pre colonial history of the Eastern Cape in the true tradition of history this ground breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts. Whose History Counts challenges the very concept of pre colonial and explores methodologies on researching and writing history. The reason for this dramatic change of focus is attributed in the introduction of the book to the student led rebellion that erupted following the RhodesMustFall campaign which started at the University of Cape Town on 9 March 2015. Key to the rebellion was the students opposition to what they dubbed colonial education and a clamour for among others a decolonised curriculum. This book is a direct response to this clarion call Perspectives on ICT4D and Socio-Economic

Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, 2023-12-28 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the relationship between prophecy and politics in South African Pentecostalism. The role and the power of prophecy in enhancing the presence of politicians in the church square are unpacked through historical examples as well as case studies of contemporary prophets. Solomon Kgatle argues that the influence of prophecy in politics has the potential to weaken the prophetic voice of the church in general and the Pentecostal movement in particular. He proposes a Pentecostal political theology of prophecy. This theology is developed by taking into cognizance the theoretical and theological frameworks of prophetic imagination and pneumatological imagination. In addition this theology seeks a balance between prophecy and power and prophecy and sovereignty Experimental Writing: Africa vs Latin America Vol 1 Rinos Mwanaka, Felix Rodriguez, 2017-02-03 This project came out from our need to harness voices in Africa and Latin America giving these voices an opportunity to converse argue synthesize agree and share ideas on the craft of writing on life on being and on thinking for the benefit of all.
