Postcolonial Societies M. Ramutsindela, 2006-01-14 Against the background of colonial and postcolonial experiences this volume shows that power relations and stereotypes embedded in the original Western idea of a national park are a continuing reality of contemporary national and transnational parks The volume seeks to dispel the myth that colonial beliefs and practices in protected areas have ended with the introduction of new nature conservation policies and practices It explores this continuity against the backdrop of the development of the national park idea in the West and its trajectories in colonial and postcolonial societies particularly southern Africa This volume analyses the dynamic relations between people and national parks and assesses these in southern Africa against broader experiences in postcolonial societies It draws examples from a broad range of situations and places It reinserts issues of prejudices into contemporary national park systems and accounts for continuities and interruptions in national parks ideals in different contexts Its interpretation of material transcends the North South divide This volume is accessible to readers from different academic backgrounds It is of special interest to academics policymakers and Non Governmental Organisations This book can also be used as prescribed or reference material in courses taught at university The Library of Congress Author Catalog Library of Congress, 1953

Mud, Sands and Seas Denis Montgomery, 2008-11 This a collection of travel stories over nearly sixty years from 1949 to 2007 During that time the author saw many changes in Africa and recorded them with his observations often with the goal of extending his knowledge of history and pre history of the region These stories fill gaps between previous books devoted to particular expeditions

Transfrontier Conservation in Africa Maano Ramutsindela, 2007 Transfrontier conservation is a global concept which encompasses the protection of biodiversity spanning the borders of two or more countries in ways that support local economic development international relations and peace Nowhere is this more relevant but highly debatable than in Africa which is home to a third of the world s terrestrial biodiversity while at the same time hosting its poorest nations This is one of the first books to account for the emergence of transfrontier conservation in Africa against international experiences in bioregional planning The roles of the state and local populations are analyzed as well as the ecological socio economic and political implications Worlds of Human Rights Bill Derman, Anne Hellum, Kristin Sandvik, 2013-04-15

This book engages with contemporary African human rights struggles including land property gender equality and legal identity Through ethnographic field studies it situates claims making by groups and individuals that have been subject to injustices and abuses often due to different forms of displacement in specific geographical historical and political contexts Exploring local communities complexities and divided interests it addresses the ambiguities and tensions surrounding the processes whereby human rights have been incorporated into legislation social and economic programs legal advocacy land reform and humanitarian assistance It shows how existing relations of inequality domination and control are affected by the opportunities offered by emerging law and governance structures as a plurality of non state actors enter what previously was considered the sole regulatory domain of the nation state Catalogue systématique de la section

Trust, Courts and Social Rights David Vitale,2024-02-07 Trust Courts and Social Rights proposes an innovative legal framework for judicially enforcing social rights that is rooted in public trust in government or political trust Interdisciplinary in nature the book draws on theoretical and empirical scholarship on the concept of trust across disciplines including philosophy sociology psychology and political theory It integrates that scholarship with the relevant public law literature on social rights fiduciary political theory and judicial review In doing so the book uses trust as an analytical lens for social rights law importing ideas from the scholarship on trust into the social rights literature and develops a normative argument that contributes to the controversial debate on how courts should enforce social rights Also global in focus the book uses cases from courts in Africa Europe Latin America and North America to illustrate how the trust based framework operates in practice Transient Caretakers Mervyn E. King, Teodorina Lessidrenska, 2009

University Of Limpopo Brochure: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. University Of Limpopo Brochure : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
