University Of Pretoria Postgraduate Prospectus 2013:

Theology at the University of Pretoria - 100 years: (1917-2017) Past, present and future Dirk J. Human, Johan Buitendag, Jaco Beyers, Gerda E. de Villiers, Wim A. Dreyer, Yolanda Dreyer, Stephanus F. de Beer, Willem Fourie, Ananda Geyser-Fouché, Alphonso Groenewald, Hanré Janse van Rensburg, E.E. (Sias) Meyer, Johann A. Meylahn, Sampson S. (Sam) Ndogo, Cornelius J. Niemandt, Jerry Pillay, Corneliu C. Simut, Andries G. van Aarde, Attie S. van Niekerk, Daniël P. Veldsman, Casparus J. (Cas) Wepener, Tanya van Wyk, 2017-12-01 In this scholarly book a century's theology presented by the Faculty of Theology at the University of Pretoria is celebrated. All authors are academics or research associates of the University of Pretoria. A historical and futuristic overview with perspectives from the past, present and future are examined. The past is not only portrayed by means of societal and scientific contributions and achievements but the authors also reflect on malfunctions, ill behaviour and disappointments of church and theology presented at the University of Pretoria within the South African context over 100 years. The book commences with a chapter in which institutional transformation is discussed as well as the changes that demonstrate the role of the Faculty of Theology within a secular state university. It includes an explanation of the importance of research impact, research productivity and research reputation. Among various discipline indicators, the category Theology and Religion Studies plays a significant role in the measurement of world university rankings of universities. With regard to scientific and encyclopaedic content, the book focuses on the theological disciplines presented in the academic curricula: first the biblical sciences (Old and New Testament Studies), then the historical disciplines (Systematic Theology, Church History and Church Polity) and finally the practical disciplines (Practical Theology, Science of Religion and Missiology). The role of Religion Studies in a newly established Faculty of Theology and Religion not only enhances the diversity of interreligious tolerance and an atmosphere of dialogue but it serves as a platform to interconnect with the fields of Humanities, Social and Natural Sciences and other academic disciplines. In the conclusive part of the book, contributions highlight the role of the centres in the Faculty: Centre for Contextual Ministry and Centre for Sustainable Communities, as well as the continental and international footprints of the two theological journals whose title ownership is attached to the Faculty of Theology of the University of Pretoria, namely HTS Theological Studies and Verbum et Ecclesia. The methodology comprised in all the chapters amounts to a literature and contextual study. Since the book describes the histories of formal academic departments, these texts are of a descriptive, interpretative and critical character. Reference is made in some chapters to exegetical methods like the historical critical methods. The target audience of the book is academic scholars and theologians who specialise in the different fields of Theology, the Humanities and other Social Sciences. The book is also accessible to scholars of other academic disciplines outside these disciplines. The book comprises original research by several authors and is not plagiarised from other scientific publications of this nature. Pushing Boundaries in Postgraduate Supervision Eli Bitzer, Ruth Albertyn, Liezel Frick, Barbara Grant, Frances Kelly, 2014-04-01 This book is a very important contribution to the growing body of work on postgraduate and specifically doctoral education I find the metaphor of pushing boundaries to be very appropriate as it suggests a field of study and a range of behaviours and institutional organisational approaches to postgraduate education that are dynamic and characterised by fluidity creativity and challenge Readers will gain new theoretical perspectives ideas for improved practice and fresh perspectives on boundaries and pressing issues that deserve to be pushed and conceptualised in new ways Professor Ann Austin Higher Adult and Lifelong Education Michigan State University

Conference on e-Learning Eunice Ivala,2013-06-27 Post-admission Language Assessment of University Students John Read,2016-08-10 English medium universities around the world face real challenges in ensuring that incoming students have the language and literacy skills they need to cope with the demands of their degree programmes One response has been a variety of institutional initiatives to assess students after admission in order to identify those with significant needs and advise them on how to enhance their academic language ability This volume brings together papers from Australia Canada Hong Kong New Zealand Oman South Africa and the United States written by language assessment specialists who discuss issues in the design and implementation of these post admission assessments in their own institutions A major theme running through the book is the need to evaluate the validity of such assessments not just on their technical quality but on their impact in terms of giving students access to effective means of developing their language skills and ultimately enhancing their academic achievement Values, Interests and Power: South African foreign policy in uncertain times Daniel D. Bradlow,Elizabeth Sidiropoulos,2020-01-01 About the publication South Africa s foreign policy makers are facing a substantial challenge From the advent of the democratic era in 1994 through to the early 2000s South Africa was a highly respected actor in international affairs with a number of impressive accomplishments in the areas of global governance peacekeeping and international norm entrepreneurship However since that time the country s international standing has declined The value based and innovative foreign policy that earned the early post apartheid South African government such great international respect has been replaced by a more transactional and tactically driven approach to international affairs The country s position as Africa s leading economy and voice in international affairs is increasingly being challenged by other

African states This book explores how South Africa can develop a foreign policy strategy that is appropriate to the uncertain times in which we live and that both helps the country address its overwhelming domestic challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment and regain its former high international reputation The contributors to this book offer analyses and proposals for developing such a strategy within the context of the country's constitutional order and institutional constraints and that addresses the diverse and complex global and regional aspects of the country's international relations

Endorsements In this valuable book which should be on every diplomat's bookshelf some of SA's foremost experts offer the government frank and compelling advice on how to conduct a much better foreign policy over the next decade The authors challenge Pretoria to muster all the country's assets and skills and not just those of the ruling party to pursue only the most important foreign policy goals And to be guided always by the lodestar of the Constitution Peter Fabricius Foreign Policy Analyst former Foreign Affairs Editor at Independent Newspapers In this one of a kind book of twelve chapters by emerging and experienced scholars the authors probe into factors shaping South African foreign policy lessons learned and the future strategy of the country's foreign policy in an ever changing world A compelling read for policy makers and scholars

Ambassador Prof Iqbal Jhazbhay University of South Africa Member of the ANC's N E C International Relations Sub Committee its breadth will engage newcomers its insights will be useful to scholars and practitioners alike Professor Amrita Narlikar President German Institute for Global and Area Studies GIGA This book offers compelling insights on South Africa's foreign policy These varied pieces provide textured and critical perspectives that may help open up an avenue to re imagine South Africa's foreign policy afresh in the post Zuma years It is a compendium that should appeal to scholars of international relations practitioners of foreign policy and the broader policy community Professor Mzukiso Qobo Head School of Governance University of the Witwatersrand This nuanced and richly detailed volume offers the reader superb analyses of South Africa's foreign policy The authors contributions present both theoretical considerations and specific policy recommendations which make the book highly useful for both scholars and policy makers Each chapter is thus certain to significantly contribute to promoting the public debate about South Africa's place in the world Professor Oliver Stuenkel Funda o Getulio Vargas FGV Table of Contents ACKNOWLEDGMENTS CONTRIBUTORS
