University Of Pretoria Postgraduate Prospectus 2014:

Postgraduate Study in South Africa Liezel Frick, 2016-11-21 The book explores concerns about the lack of higher education transformation around issues of equity curriculum reform language and race and how students navigate higher education complexities Students self reflective abilities creativity and pragmatic approaches to surviving and succeeding are indicators that postgraduate student success is as much internally as externally determined Each chapter speaks from a uniquely South African perspective The editors have tried to remain true to the voice of each contributor while simultaneously providing a coherent body of scholarly work EASYUNI Ultimate University Guide 2014 EasyUni Sdn Bhd, 2014-07-02 Hi there It s nice to present you once again with another hot issue of easyuni On 11 June this year we launched the unifrens social platform an extension to easyuni s existing vision of providing comprehensive and accurate information to students about colleges and universities This is another milestone in the history of easyuni as one of Asia s most popular education portals committed to helping students with their higher education plans unifrens is a social platform which allows students searching for universities and colleges with similar interests to connect with each other to help them make unbiased and community driven decisions about their higher education It also allows them to connect with students who are currently enrolled at universities who can tell them about their experiences about a particular city country university or a course unifrens is something we had been planning for a while to complement our current family of tools for students We always knew that our users would love it as they want more community driven information instead of promotional content from universities and study abroad consultants I believe this feature will democratise the way information about specific courses countries or institutions is presented and this can only mean good news for students and their parents visitors as it helps them make more informed decisions about which course institution or country to pick Students can also pose questions to their groups which will be answered by experts and the community The feature is still in its beta stage but has gained massive traction with over 100 000 users already registered and assigned to groups Exciting isn t it The issue you re holding now has so much to offer as well So read every page and ll yourself with all the knowledge needed to make informed decisions about your higher education We cannot continue like this Attie S. van Niekerk, Sytse Strijbos, 2022-02-07 The book is based on the view that the present trajectory of modern development cannot continue as it is now because it is ecologically unsustainable it continues to enlarge the gap between rich and poor and the decolonisation movement has drawn our attention again to the specific role of religion culture and value in human affairs and the need for a robust element of indigenisation and contextualisation This book is strongly focused on the context of Africa with two chapters that are written by authors from the Netherlands for the purpose of presenting a North South dialogue The book contains a reflection on approaches followed in building sustainable human communities in general and reflection on specific efforts to solve sustainability issues It seeks to integrate academic reflection and insights gained from practical involvement with sustainability issues in local communities and low income households with contributions from Theology and Natural and Social Sciences

Open and Distance Education in Asia, Africa and the Middle East Olaf Zawacki-Richter, Adnan Qayyum, 2019-02-18 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book describes the history structure and institutions of open and distance education in six countries China India Russia Turkey South Africa and South Korea It describes how open and distance education is evolving in a digital age to reflect the needs and circumstances of the national higher education systems in these countries It also explores the similarities and differences between how their open and distance higher education systems are managed and structured This book is the second in a series following Open and Distance Education in Australia Europe and the Americas Springer 2018 Both books compare and draw conclusions about the nature of open and distance education in the context of various national higher education systems In a digital era characterized by the growing use of online open and distance education this book will prove particularly valuable for policy makers and senior administrators who want to learn about establishing or expanding open and distance education services In addition it offers a valuable reference guide for researchers academics and students interested in understanding the different approaches to open and distance education

Design Commons Gerhard Bruyns, Stavros Kousoulas, 2022-05-17 This book directly links the notion of the commons with different design praxes and explores their social cultural and ecological ramifications It draws out material conditions in four areas of design interest social design commons and culture ecology and transdisciplinary design As a collection of positions the diversity of arguments advances the understanding of the commons as both concepts and modes of thinking and their material translation when contextualised in the domain of design questions In other words it moves abstract social science concepts towards concrete design debates This text appeals to students researchers and practitioners working on design in architecture architecture theory urbanism and ecology match the standards of scholarship that is available in the Western World Yet what makes this book so welcome relevant and timely is the fact that it is built around Afrocentric theories and practices such as one may find in imported literature

Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education Gumbo, Mishack Thiza, Gaotlhobogwe, Michael, Pedzisai, Constantino, Jojo, Zingiswa Mybert Monica, Knaus, Christopher B., 2024-05-13 A deep seated issue persists in postgraduate education one that threatens the relevance of academia in our diverse and evolving world The problem at hand is the Western centric nature of postgraduate education where research paradigms methodologies and theoretical frameworks overwhelmingly reflect a Western worldview This rigid adherence to Western ideologies has left indigenous communities on the periphery of academic discourse denying them the opportunity to engage with their knowledge systems and practices Despite the richness and prevalence of indigenous knowledge the existing educational structure remains a barrier to their inclusion This disconnect is not only an academic concern but also a societal one as it hinders sustainable development and stifles the voices of indigenous scholars and students Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education serves as a compelling solution to the problem at hand It offers a comprehensive roadmap to decolonize postgraduate education infusing it with indigenous approaches paradigms theories and methods Through critical examination and practical strategies this book empowers academics curriculum designers and postgraduate students to embark on a transformative journey

The PhD Experience in African Higher Education John Mashayamombe, Ruth Murambadoro, uMbuso weNkosi, 2022-11-08 The PhD Experience in African Higher Education edited by Ruth Murambadoro John Mashayamombe and uMbuso weNkosi addresses the growing call to invest in the humanities and social sciences by exploring the nature of doctoral training in select institutions of higher learning in South Africa In the past two decades South Africa has become a key player in the global higher education landscape and dubbed the hub for doctoral training in Africa because of its developed educational infrastructure and highly ranked universities Given South Africa s positioning the contributors in this volume argue that the government donors universities and faculty have a socio legal duty to ensure that doctoral programs in the humanities and social sciences are not offered to amass numbers of African graduates but are grounded on equipping students with both hard and soft skills necessary to succeed This is achieved by offering skills training and research apprenticeships fostered in communities of practice because as the contributors show the humanities and social sciences are the backbone of society Furthermore they argue that treating doctoral candidates as equal partners is emancipatory because intellectual projects are best nurtured through collaborative learning

The Place and the Writer Marshall Moore, Sam Meekings, 2021-04-08 The combined experience of authors throughout the ages offers a wealth of valuable information about the practice of creative writing However such lore can also be problematic for students and practitioners as it can be inherently additive making it difficult to abandon processes that do not work This adherence to lore also tends to be a US centric endeavor In order to take a nuanced approach to the uses and limitations of lore The Place and the Writer offers a global perspective on creative writing pedagogy that has yet to be fully explored Featuring a diverse array of cultural viewpoints from Brazil to Hong Kong Finland to South Africa this book explores the ongoing international debate about the best approaches for teaching and practicing creative writing Marshall Moore and Sam Meekings challenge areas of perceived wisdom that persist in the field of creative writing including aesthetics and politics in institutionalized creative writing the process of workshopping tuition and talent anxiety in the classroom unifying theory and lore and teaching creative writing in languages other than English

Biological Invasions in South Africa Brian W. van Wilgen, John Measey, David M. Richardson, John R. Wilson, Tsungai A. Zengeya, 2020-03-10 This open access volume presents a comprehensive account of all aspects of biological invasions in South Africa where research has been conducted over more than three decades and where bold initiatives have been implemented in attempts to control invasions and to reduce their ecological economic and social effects It covers a broad range of themes including history policy development and implementation the status of invasions of animals and plants in terrestrial marine and freshwater environments the development of a robust ecological theory around biological invasions the effectiveness of management interventions and scenarios for the future The South African situation stands out because of the remarkable diversity of the country and the wide range of problems encountered in its varied ecosystems which has resulted in a disproportionate investment into both research and management The South African experience holds many lessons for other parts of the world and this book should be of immense value to researchers students managers and policy makers who deal with biological invasions and ecosystem management and conservation in most other regions Economic Shocks and Globalisation Elsabé Loots,2024-08-01 Over the 153 year period since 1870 the phenomenon of globalisation has been shaped and reshaped As we look back at the events that shaped our understanding of the process and its momentum before and after the Global Financial Crisis GFC it became clear that the process of globalisation has changed and continues to evolve which requires a deeper analysis The book answers the question of why the performance of the hyper globalisation period has not continued during the post GFC period after 2010 and what might be expected going forward Apart from the fact that the fourth globalisation wave period between 2010 to the early 2020s has been characterised by a range of global shocks that caused more volatility instability and uncertainty the major economic determinants of globalisation have also slowed markedly The outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic followed by the geopolitical uncertainty and instability all caused global contagion effects around the world with economic socio economic and geopolitical consequences and responses This book aims to analyse most of these global events and shocks and attempted to gather a deeper understanding of the present drivers of globalisation and what the major trends and shifts are geo economically socio economically and geopolitically The conclusions drawn include that globalisation remains despite the current slowbalisation an integrated process that is globally entrenched yet complex cyclical multifaceted and multiplex This book is aimed at academics in economics political sciences social sciences and may also find an audience among international policymakers and scholars at multilateral institutions such as the World Bank and the United Nations Foreign Policy Change in Europe Since 1991 Jeroen K. Joly,Tim

Haesebrouck,2021-08-27 In the past three decades the world has witnessed many rapid and invasive changes and seems to be changing countries have adapted their foreign policies to these changes Building on a clear typology of foreign policy change and a consistent theoretical framework this book offers a comparative analysis of foreign policy change in Europe throughout the post Cold War period Along the lines of our analytical framework country experts discuss how and why the further ever more rapidly in ways that seemed only imaginable in movies This book investigates how European foreign policies of eleven European countries have changed over the past thirty years This book hereby advances our understanding of the phenomenon of foreign policy change and identifies the most important drivers and inhibitors of change The Dynamics of Changing Higher Education in the Global South Busani Mpofu,Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2020-06-29 Today there are generally universities in Africa rather than African universities The legitimacy of the university in Africa is under serious questions now because of its complicity in racism patriarchy sexism colonialism capitalism genocide epistemicide linguicide culturecide and alienation In other words the university in Africa as we know it today is elitist and exclusionary

Therefore rethinking the idea of the university is fundamental to overcoming its current deficiencies in the Global South This volume bringing together a number of national case studies and macro analyses on the dynamics of changing higher education in the Global South gestures towards the desired imagined decolonial African university which should be a site of multilingualism where African indigenous languages cosmologies and ontologies become a central part of its identity and soul intolerant of epistemicides linguisticides and cultural imperialism but a site of cognitive and social justice that fully embraces the idea that all human beings are born into valid useful relevant and legitimate knowledge systems Network Topology in Command and Control: Organization, Operation, and Evolution Grant, T. J., Janssen, R. H. P., Monsuur, H., 2014-05-31 Over the past decade the Command and Control C2 field has been making a transformation from top down directive command to Network Centric Operations NCO peer to peer negotiation self synchronization and agility As the terms NCO and NEC suggest C2 systems are regarded as networks rather than a hierarchy Accordingly it is appropriate to view the C2 process and C2 systems through the lens of network theory Network Topology in Command and Control Organization Operation and Evolution aims to connect the fields of C2 and network science Featuring timely research on topics pertaining to the C2 network evolution security and modeling this publication is ideal for reference use by students academicians and security professionals in the fields of C2 and network science
