University Of Venda Admissions:

Commonwealth Universities Yearbook, 2007 Higher Education Pathways Ashwin, Paul, Case, Jennifer M., 2018-12-14 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues

Government Annual Report of the Republic of Venda Venda (South Africa), 1984 Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker, Samuel Fongwa, 2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability

Mergers and Alliances in Higher Education Adrian Curaj, Luke Georgiou, Jennifer Cassingena Harper, Eva Egron-Polak, 2015-03-31 This volume casts light on mergers and alliances in higher education by examining developments of this type in different countries It combines the direct experiences of those at the heart of such transformations university leaders and senior officials responsible for higher education policy with expert analysts of the systems concerned Higher education in Europe faces a series of major challenges The economic crisis has accelerated expectations of an increased role in addressing economic and societal challenges while at the same time putting pressure on available finances Broader trends such as shifting student demographics and expectations globalisation and mobility and new ways of working with business have contributed to these increased pressures In the light of these trends there have been moves both from national or regional agencies and from individual institutions to respond by combining resources either through collaborative arrangements or more fundamentally through mergers between two or more universities After an introductory chapter by the editors which establishes the context for mergers and alliances the book falls into two main parts Part 1 takes a national or regional perspective to give some sense of the historical context the wider drivers and the importance of these developments in these cases Included are both systemic accounts for countries as France Sweden Romania Russia Wales and England and specific cross cutting initiatives including a major facility at Magurele in Romania and a Spanish programme for promoting international campuses of excellence Part 2 is built from specific cases of universities either in mergers or alliances with examples from different countries such as France UK Romania Spain Germany Denmark Finland Switzerland A concluding chapter by the editors assesses these experiences and indicates the implications and future needs for understanding in this domain

Whose Education For All? Birgit Brock-Utne,2002-06

This book examines the new donor concept education for all which was coined at a World Bank initiated conference in 1990 in Jomtien Thailand The author uses her experience to examine what is going on in the education sector

Reimagining Effective Stakeholder Governance Practices in Higher Education Felix Omal,2023-06-22 This book examines the role of the university governing council and the changing nature of university governance using a case study from a South African university The book considers the key challenging features of South African higher education in relation to current competing international trends in higher education governance It shows how major decision makers within the university operate within competing governance knowledge domains to exercise good practice within turbulent institutional contexts These diverse institutional cultures are examined in terms of their contribution to various governance practices presenting an emerging model of university governance known as the structural systemic cultural model Throwing light on the nature of challenges associated with the governance of universities in the post apartheid era this book will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of higher education comparative education and education governance Also it will appeal to university councils and management across Africa

Rebuilding Higher Education Systems

Impacted by Crises: Navigating Traumatic Events, Disasters, and More Kayyali, Mustafa,2024-04-05 The resilience and adaptability of higher education systems are under unprecedented strain From natural disasters to pandemics and economic crises to political turmoil universities and colleges worldwide have grappled with a myriad of crises that disrupt their core missions of teaching research and community engagement As we find ourselves at the crossroads of these tumultuous times the imperative to reconstruct and revitalize higher education systems becomes increasingly evident Rebuilding Higher Education Systems Impacted by Crises Navigating Traumatic Events Disasters and More is a pioneering work that addresses the critical issues surrounding the restoration of higher education systems in the wake of various crises This book serves as a roadmap for educators administrators policymakers and stakeholders who share a commitment to preserving and advancing higher education even in the face of adversity The 21st century has witnessed a rapid escalation in the frequency and severity of crises affecting higher education institutions These crises span from the abrupt shift to online learning necessitated by the COVID 19 pandemic to the enduring ramifications of climate change on campus infrastructure Additional factors such as financial pressures evolving demographics and the ever changing technological landscape further complicate the challenge This book embarks on a deep exploration of these challenges and offers practical solutions making it an indispensable resource for anyone vested in the future of higher education Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink, Heidi Whitford, Natasha C. Stubbs, 2017-03-13 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction This issue explores The global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that focus on the development and implementation process of community colleges amid various social political and economic contexts This is the 177th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents vice presidents deans and other leaders in today's open door institutions New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission A Register of Admissions to King's College, Cambridge, 1945-1970 King's College (University of Cambridge), L. P. Wilkinson, King's College (University of Cambridge). King's College Association, 1973 Remote Possibilities Amy Jane Conger, 2005 Study SA, 2001 A Legacy of Inequality Ian Bunting, 1994 Black Feminist Interventions to Decolonize the Westernized University Assata Zerai, 2025-03-30 Decoloniality is a perspective that challenges the colonial foundation and neoliberal operations of the westernized university today In Black Feminist Interventions to Decolonize the Westernized University Epistemology Research Methodology and Pedagogy Assata Zerai highlights feminist decoloniality as a tool to promote institutional transformation indirectly through changes in research and teaching in the social sciences directly by centering social justice within higher education Reflecting on three decades of scholarship Zerai adapts principles of decolonial theory to scholarship pedagogy and praxis transnationally focusing on higher education in the USA and South Africa She intentionally centers students who have been racially and culturally excluded in these contexts and provides evidence of university students experiencing intersectional microaggressions including gendered ableist and queerphobic anti Blackness Zerai argues that faculty must appreciate such realities in order to affirm students and create learning environments in which all may thrive Further this book argues that ethical commitments to minoritized students and their communities must be reflected in humanizing research practices Finally Zerai reviews ways in which scholars have begun to move their disciplines from a focus on traditional canons of the modernist era to embrace decolonial sensibilities in their academic work This book highlights these new approaches within the social sciences to promote justice equity accessibility diversity and inclusion JEADI within higher education

Governance and the postcolony David Everatt, 2019-08-01 Civil society NGOs governments and multilateral institutions all repeatedly call for improved or good governance yet they seem to speak past one another Governance is in danger of losing all meaning precisely because it means many things to different people in varied locations This is especially true in sub Saharan Africa Here the postcolony takes many forms reflecting the imperial project with painful accuracy Offering a set of multidisciplinary analyses of governance in different sectors crisis management water food security universities in different locales across sub Saharan Africa and from different theoretical approaches network to adversarial network governance this volume makes a useful addition to the growing debates on how to govern It steers away from offering a correct definition of governance or from promoting a particular position on postcoloniality It gives no neat conclusion but invites readers to draw their own conclusions based on these differing approaches to and analyses of governance in the postcolony As a robust critical assessment of power and accountability in the sub Saharan context Governance and the Postcolony Views from Africa brings together topical case studies that will be a valuable resource for those working in the field of African international relations public policy public management and administration

Social and Legal Theory in the Age of Decoloniality Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2018-06-08 Right from the enslavement era through to the colonial and contemporary eras Africans have been denied their human essence portrayed as indistinct from animals or beasts for imperial burdens Africans have been historically dispossessed and exploited Postulating the theory of global jurisprudential apartheid the book accounts for biases in various legal systems norms values and conventions that bind Africans while affording impunity to Western states Drawing on contemporary notions of animism transhumanism posthumanism and science and technology studies the book critically interrogates the possibility of a jurisprudence of anticipation which is attentive to the emergent New World Order that engineers human beings to become nonhumans while nonhumans become humans Connecting discourses on decoloniality with jurisprudence in the areas of family law environment indigenisation property migration constitutionalism employment and labour law commercial law and Ubuntu the book also juggles with emergent issues around Earth Jurisprudence ecocentrism wild law rights of nature Earth Court and Earth Tribunal Arguing for decoloniality that attends to global jurisprudential apartheid this tome is handy for legal scholars and practitioners social scientists civil society organisations policy makers and researchers interested in transformation decoloniality and Pan Africanism A Better Future Jacqueline Bhabha, Wenona Giles, Faraaz Mahomed, 2020-09-17 This book explores the exclusion of underprivileged groups from higher education a critical frontier for diversity and equality endeavors Conjectures James Leatt, 2022-11-11 James Leatt was nine when the Nationalist Party came to power and eleven when he saw a documentary of the Allied forces liberating Nazi death camps For most of his life the shadows of apartheid and the Holocaust have dogged his beliefs about faith the meaning of life and the moral challenges humankind faces Conjectures is a philosophical reflection on his life and times as he grapples with the realities of parish work in black communities teaching ethics in a business school under apartheid managing a university in the dying days of the Nationalist regime and eventually working in higher education in post apartheid South Africa Weaving strands of his personal life with the questions of theodicy and modernity as well as drawing upon the Western philosophical tradition and the wisdom of East Asian traditions such as Taoism and Buddhism he comes to terms with a disenchanted reality which has no need for supernatural or magical thought and practice He has learned to live with questions If you no longer believe in God and a sacred text what are your sources of meaning What kind of moral GPS allows you to find your way Is what might be called a secular spirituality even possible Conjectures traces the author's search for a secular way of being that is meaningful mindful and reverent An Analysis of Educational Challenges in the New South Africa Zandile P. Nkabinde, 1997-04 This book deals with current developments in black education in South Africa since the introduction of Bantu education in the beginning of the 1990s During the period under discussion improvements have been made in black education These improvements are partly due to the significant political changes currently taking place in South Africa that are supposed to mark the end of apartheid Despite these developments much remains to be done in order to remedy the effects of Bantu education In particular providing quality education in black schools will require innovative solutions Proper planning developing new teaching strategies establishing practical educational goals and identifying and using available resources must be controlled and harnessed to a new social order Collaboration and coordination of all professionals particularly blacks will be a necessity The process of change requires black participation in finding solutions to their educational problems this is one of the major challenges facing post apartheid South Africa It is evident that there are more challenges that the post apartheid era will present This book is aimed at providing tentative alternative solutions to black education
