"Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2015", 2015 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020 Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh, 2014-03-12 Sanathana Sarathi English Volume 07 (2012 - 2021) Sri Sathya Sai Media Centre, 2022-11-12 Started in 1958 Sanathana Sarathi is a monthly magazine devoted to Sathya Truth Dharma Righteousness Shanti Peace and Prema Love the four cardinal principles of Bhagawan Baba's philosophy. It is published from Prasanthi Nilayam, the Abode of Highest Peace, and acts as a mouthpiece of Baba's Ashram as it speaks of the important events that take place in His sacred Abode besides carrying Divine Messages conveyed through Divine Discourses of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. The word meaning of Sanathana Sarathi is the Eternal Charioteer. It signifies the presence of the Lord in every being as the Atma guiding their lives like a charioteer. It implies that he who places his life, the body being likened to a chariot in an attitude of surrender in the hands of the Lord, will be taken care of by the Lord even as a charioteer would take the occupant of his chariot safely to its destination. The magazine is an instrument to disseminate spiritual knowledge for the moral, physical, and mental uplift of humanity without any discrimination as the subject matter discussed therein is always of common interest and of universal appeal. The fifteen Vahinis, streams of sacredness known as the Vahini Series, comprising annotation and interpretation of the Upanishads and other scriptures, Itihasas like the Ramayana, the Bhagavatha, and the Mahabharata, and authentic explanations on Dhyana, Dharma, Prema, etc. have been serially published in this magazine as and when they emanated from the Divine pen of Bhagawan Baba. This magazine is published in almost all Indian languages, English and Telugu, from Prasanthi Nilayam and others from respective regions. Every year Sanathana Sarathi comes out with a special issue in November commemorating the Divine Birthday. The English and Telugu magazines are posted on the 10th and 23rd respectively of every month from Prasanthi Nilayam. This magazine has wide ever-increasing circulation in India as well as abroad as the study of it brings the reader closer to the philosophy of the Avatar in simple understandable language. THUS SPAKE SAI Discoursing during the launch of Sanathana Sarathi: From this day our Sanathana Sarathi will lead to victory the cohorts of truth, the Vedas, the Sastras, and similar scriptures of all faiths against the forces of the ego such as injustice, falsehood, immorality, and cruelty. This is the reason why it has emerged. This Sarathi will fight in order to establish world prosperity. It is bound to sound the paean of triumph when universal Ananda is achieved Teaching, Tenure, and Collegiality Mary K. Chang, 2022-02-01 Teaching Tenure and Collegiality espouses the concept of relationality, the idea that people's activities necessarily emerge through contextual engagement with others as an alternative to the publish or perish ethos in higher education. Building on research by comparative philosophers, Mary K. Chang constructs a concept of Confucian relationality and engages it to question universities' increasing reliance on market-oriented metrics to determine their strategic directions and gauge faculty productivity. Using a process-oriented approach that features change, the embodied connectedness of people and the extensive impact of personal cultivation Chang situates higher educational institutions as continually constructed by people's actions in ways that cannot be wholly described or quantified and need not be. Values are powerful in educational contexts because they direct how administrators, faculty, and students focus limited energy. Teaching Tenure and Collegiality reevaluates what universities normatively value and offers a holistically expansive view that positions faculty as experts and learners whose activity is inseparable from the contexts constructed by the relationships from which they emerge.

Low-Income Students, Human Development and Higher Education in South Africa Melanie Walker, Monica McLean, 2022-07-15 This book explores learning outcomes for low income rural and township youth at five South African universities. The book is framed as a contribution to southern and Africa centred scholarship, adapting Amartya Sen's capability approach and a framework of key concepts: capabilities, functionings, context, conversion factors, poverty, and agency to investigate opportunities and obstacles to achieved student outcomes. This approach allows a reimagining of inclusive learning outcomes to encompass the multi-dimensional value of a university education and a plurality of valued cognitive and non-cognitive outcomes for students from low income backgrounds whose experiences are strongly shaped by hardship. Based on capability theorising and student voices, the book proposes for policy and practice a set of contextual higher education capability domains and corresponding functionings orientated to more justice and more equality for each person to have the opportunities to be and to do what they have reason to value. The book concludes that sufficient material resources are necessary to get into university and flourish, while there the benefits of a university education should be rich and multi-dimensional so that they can result in functionings in all areas of life, as well as work and future study. The inequalities and exclusion of the labour market and pathways to further study must be addressed by wider economic and social policies for inclusive learning outcomes to be meaningful, and that universities ought to be doing more to enable black working class students to participate and succeed.

Low Income Students

Dismantling Race in Higher Education Jason Arday, Heidi Safia Mirza, 2018-08-31 This book reveals the roots of structural racism that limit social mobility and equality within Britain for Black and ethnicised students and academics in its inherently white Higher Education institutions It brings together both established and emerging scholars in the fields of Race and Education to explore what institutional racism in British Higher Education looks like in colour blind post race times when racism is deemed to be off the political agenda Keeping pace with our rapidly changing global universities this edited collection asks difficult and challenging questions including why black academics leave the system why the curriculum is still white how elite universities reproduce race privilege and how Black Muslim and Gypsy traveller students are disadvantaged and excluded The book also discusses why British racial equality legislation has failed to address racism and explores what the Black student movement is doing about this As the authors powerfully argue it is only by dismantling the invisible architecture of post colonial white privilege that the 21st century struggle for a truly decolonised academy can begin This collection will be essential reading for students and academics working in the fields of Education Sociology and Race discrimination present challenges to America's best private and public universities US college enrollments swelled from 2.6 million students in 1955 to 17.5 million by 2005 Ivy League universities specifically Harvard Yale and Princeton face significant challenges in maintaining their professed goal to educate a reasonable number of students from all ethnic racial religious and socio-economic groups while maintaining the loyalty of their alumni College admissions officers in these elite universities have the daunting task of selecting a balanced student body Added to their challenges the economic recession of 2008-2009 negatively impacted potential applicants from lower income families Evidence suggests that high Standard Aptitude Test SAT scores are correlated with a family's socioeconomic status Thus the problem of selecting the best students from an ever increasing pool of applicants may render standardized admissions tests a less desirable selection mechanism The next admissions battle may be whether well-endowed universities should commit themselves to a form of class-based affirmative action in order to balance the socioeconomic advantages of well-to-do families Such a policy would improve prospects for students who may have ambitions for an education that is beyond their reach without preferential treatment As in past decades admissions policies may remain a question of balances and preferences Nevertheless the elite universities are handling admission decisions with determination and far less prejudice than in earlier eras
