Reconceptualizing Language Norms in Multilingual Contexts Jones, Sarah, Schmor, Rebecca, Kerekes, Julie, 2023-12-21 With cultural and linguistic diversity migration and constant change as defining features of contemporary societies it is increasingly necessary to enhance our capabilities within multilingual environments Reconceptualizing

Language Norms in Multilingual Contexts offers a groundbreaking exploration of language practices and norms in the diverse and dynamic world we inhabit today. It challenges the traditional understanding of language norms as stable and stationary. Instead, it embraces multiculturalism and multilingualism as the norm rather than the exception. Drawing upon a wide range of methodological approaches, this book brings together a collection of position papers, critical reflections, and explorations by emerging and established voices in the field. It delves into how language norms emerge, evolve, and shape communication in both collective and individual contexts of diversity. By reconceptualizing language norms, this book sheds light on real and relevant language practices in multilingual and multicultural spaces, offering insights from the people who inhabit and navigate these contexts. While the content of this book revolves around everyday communication, its academic approaches and comprehensive exploration make it a valuable resource for graduate students, educators, and researchers in the fields of multilingualism and applied linguistics. By bridging the gap between language norms and multilingualism, this book seeks to advance our understanding of language practices in the increasingly interconnected and diverse world.

Sustainability in the Entrepreneurial Ecosystem: Operating Mechanisms and Enterprise Growth Gao, Yang, Tsai, Sang-Bing, Du, Xiaomin, Xin, Chunlin, 2020-05-29. The construction of a sustainable entrepreneurial ecosystem is critical for every country in the world, with Silicon Valley an example of a successful entrepreneurial ecosystem that determines the level of national innovation capability and sustainable global competitiveness for the United States. However, at present, the research on entrepreneurial ecosystems in academia is still in its primary stage, with few scholars studying the characteristics, composition, and sustainability of the ecosystem. Sustainability in the Entrepreneurial Ecosystem: Operating Mechanisms and Enterprise Growth is a collection of innovative research that systematically explores the operation mechanism of a sustainable entrepreneurship ecosystem from macro and micro aspects so as to provide value for promoting economic vitality and regional economic development. Covering a broad range of topics including sustainability, economic development, and stakeholder management, this book is ideally designed for entrepreneurs, managers, investors, analysts, academicians, researchers, and students.

The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment Dominic Wyse, Louise Hayward, Jessica Pandya, 2015-12-03. The research and debates surrounding curriculum, pedagogy, and assessment are ever growing and are of constant importance around the globe. With two volumes containing chapters from highly respected researchers whose work has been critical to understanding and building expertise in the field, The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment focuses on examining how curriculum is treated and developed and its impact on pedagogy and assessment worldwide. The Handbook is organised into five thematic sections considering the epistemology and methodology of curriculum, curriculum subjects, areas of the curriculum, assessment and the curriculum, and curriculum and educational policy. The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment's breadth and rigour will make it essential reading for researchers and postgraduate students around the world.

Navigating Trauma in African Journalism, Volume 2 Chikezie E. Uzuegbunam, Kealeboga Aiseng, 2025-09-26 This second volume focuses on primary trauma experienced by journalists with a particular focus on the gendered dimensions as shared by female journalists and researchers. By focusing on female journalists' firsthand encounters, the book explores the complex psychological, emotional, and professional challenges they face both inside and outside the newsroom. The chapters deal with specific issues relating to sexual harassment, online threats, risks, and vulnerabilities, and physical and psychological violence experienced by journalists in various sub-Saharan African countries. In addition, the book explores the coping mechanisms employed by journalists in the field, thereby contributing to ongoing discussion on how to support media professionals navigating challenging newsrooms and journalistic roles in Africa and beyond. Libraries in the early 21st century, volume 2

Ravindra N. Sharma, IFLA Headquarters, 2012-07-30 Following the pattern of the first volume, the second volume of Libraries in the early 21st century An international perspective extends the range of countries covered. Each chapter covers a different country and describes the modern history, development of libraries and library technology. The careful selection of countries achieves good representation of professional library work on all continents. This two-volume work represents an excellent contribution to international librarianship and allows comparative studies both at graduate and professional level.
