CIB Proceedings 2015: Going north for sustainability: Leveraging knowledge and innovation for sustainable construction and development Prof. Charles Egbu, 2015 This International Conference is about sustainability in its wider sense It is an important area of discourse as it pertains to how we work and how we lead our lives while considering the lives and workplaces of future generations The conference particularly sets out to explore some of the developments and challenges taking place in academia and industry in both the Northern and Southern hemispheres The conference is entitled Going north for sustainability The North signifies progress in technology education and other areas of human endeavour to many people Progress requires that people learn across continents and cultures Human Aspects of Information Security, Privacy, and Trust Theo Tryfonas, Ioannis Askoxylakis, 2015-07-20 This book constitutes the proceedings of the Third International Conference on Human Aspects of Information Security Privacy and Trust HAS 2015 held as part of the 17th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2015 held in Los Angeles CA USA in August 2015 and received a total of 4843 submissions of which 1462 papers and 246 posters were accepted for publication after a careful reviewing process These papers address the latest research and development efforts and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems The papers thoroughly cover the entire field of Human Computer Interaction addressing major advances in knowledge and effective use of computers in a variety of application areas The 62 papers presented in the HAS 2015 proceedings are organized in topical sections as follows authentication cybersecurity privacy security and user behavior security in social media and smart technologies and security technologies e-Infrastructure and e-Services Roch Glitho, Marco Zennaro, Fatma Belqasmi, Max Agueh, 2016-10-13 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 7th International Conference on e Infrastructure and e Services for Developing Countries AFRICOMM 2015 held in Cotonou Benin in December 2015 The 25 papers were carefully selected from 51 submissions and cover topics such as communication infrastructure access to information green IT applications and security health South African Language Rights Monitor 2011 / Suid-Afrikaanse Taalregtemonitor 2011 Johan Lubbe, Theodorus du Plessis, 2016-01-05 The SALRM 2011 provides a rich source of information on a range of language related subjects A prominent issue remains the changing of street and place names including the Pretoria Tshwane and Louis Trichardt Makhado sagas Language in education remains a thorny issue as medium of instruction at school and tertiary level and the proposal that passing an African language should be a requirement in order to obtain a tertiary degree in South Africa In terms of language legislation the draft version of the National Language Act was proposed The language of record in courts also received attention in the media Radio, Public Life and Citizen Deliberation in South Africa Sarah Chiumbu, Gilbert Motsathebe, 2021-05-24 This book critically analyses the important role of radio in public life in post apartheid South Africa As the most widespread and popular form of communication in the country radio occupies an essential space in the deliberation and the construction of public opinion in South Africa From just a few state controlled stations during the apartheid era there are now more than 100 radio stations reaching vast swathes of the population and providing an important space for citizens to air their views and take part in significant socio economic and political issues of the country The various contributors to this book demonstrate that whilst print and television media often serve elite interests and audiences the low cost and flexibility of radio has helped it to create a common space for national dialogue and deliberation The book also investigates the ways in which digital technologies have enhanced the consumption of radio and produced a sense of imagined community for citizens including those in marginalised communities and rural areas This book will be of interest to researchers with an interest in media politics and culture in South Africa specifically as well as those with an interest in broadcast media more generally

Immiserizing Growth Fails the Poor refers to situations where economic growth does not lead to poverty reduction How should this phenomenon be conceptualized How often when and where does it occur Why does it occur Shaffer addresses these three sets of questions drawing on a wide range of theoretical perspectives and empirical approaches This volume presents a conceptualization of immiserizing growth which combines the notions of failed and malevolent inclusion being bypassed and avoidably harmed by growth respectively It develops this concept of malevolent inclusion drawing on a debate in philosophy about doing and allowing harm The analysis proceeds to examine the characteristics and causes of immiserizing growth on the basis of comparable household survey data from the 1990s using multiple poverty lines and time periods and different measures of growth and poverty The book also explores theories processes and mechanisms of immiserizing growth found in a wide variety of bodies of thought including the classical tradition of political economy Malthus Ricardo and Marx more recent radical traditions of scholarship literatures on poverty dynamics and inclusive growth and empirical case studies It proceeds to empirically investigate some of the variables uncovered in this literature using cross country econometric techniques methods of qualitative comparative analysis and case studies from sub Saharan Africa matched using cluster analysis and situated within a typological framework

Troubling Images Federico Freschi, Brenda Schmähmann, Lize van Robbroeck, 2020-02-01

Troubling Images explores how art and visual culture helped to secure hegemonic claims to the nation state via the construction of a unified Afrikaner imaginary Emerging in the late nineteenth century and gaining currency in the 1930s and 1940s Afrikaner nationalist fervour underpinned the establishment of white Afrikaner political and cultural domination during South Africa's apartheid years Focusing on manifestations of Afrikaner nationalism in paintings sculptures monuments buildings cartoons photographs illustrations and exhibitions Troubling Images offers a critical account of the role of art and visual culture in the construction of a unified Afrikaner imaginary which helped secure hegemonic claims to the nation state This insightful volume examines the implications of metaphors and styles deployed in visual culture and considers how the design production collecting and commissioning of objects images and architecture were informed by Afrikaner nationalist imperatives and ideals While some chapters focus only on instances of adherence to Afrikaner nationalism others consider articulations of dissent and criticism By troubling these images looking at them teasing out their meanings and connecting them to a political and social project that still has a major impact on the present moment the authors engage with the ways in which an Afrikaner nationalist inheritance is understood and negotiated in contemporary South Africa They examine the management of its material effects in contemporary art in archives the commemorative landscape and the built environment Troubling Images adds to current debates about the histories and ideological underpinnings of nationalism and is particularly relevant in the current context of globalism and diaspora resurgent nationalisms and calls for decolonisation Sustainable soil fertility practices for smallholder farmers Cosmas

The Biblical Roots of American Constitutionalism Joseph Livni, 2021-04-14 According to the conventional wisdom American constitutional democracy stemmed from Athenian democracy Roman Law English legal practices and the Magna Carta This book agrees that democracy was born in Athens However as the title suggests the thesis of this book claims that constitutionalism in the sense of an agreed text sanctioning procedures of legislation government and power flow germinated in pre state Israel better known as Israel of the Judges The thesis of the book consists of three concepts 1 The roots of American constitutionalism are in biblical Israel this concept has been debated by scholars of constitutional history 2 Proto Israel also known as Israel of the Judges had no king as the Book of Judges claims however it had a covenant which it enforced Naturally this belief is as old as the Bible however its proof is new 3 American constitutionalism did not stem from studying and applying biblical recipes It rather evolved through a sequence of embodiments each passing on the torch of essential traditions to its heir This concept is new The book is not intended to shake your understanding of the constitution however it will answer questions you might have asked or even questions you never asked
