Mazibuko has also written and published five other books Voices of Conflict Reitumetse Obakeng Mabokela,2002-05-03 Examines how programs and structures at historically white universities have responded to the increasing enrollment of black students since the enactment of the Universities Amendment Act in 1983 The Next Twenty-five Years David Lee Featherman,Marvin Krislov,Martin Hall,2009-12-08 A penetrating exploration of affirmative action s continued place in 21st century higher education The Next Twenty five Years assembles the viewpoints of some of the most influential scholars educators university leaders and public officials Its comparative essays range the political spectrum and debates in two nations to survey the legal political social economic and moral dimensions of affirmative action and its role in helping higher education contribute to a just equitable and vital society David L Featherman is Professor of Sociology and Psychology and Founding Director of the Center for Advancing Research and Solutions for Society at the University of Michigan Martin Hall is Vice Chancellor of the University of Salford Greater Manchester and previously was Deputy Vice Chancellor at the University of Cape Town Marvin Krislov is President of Oberlin College and previously was Vice President and General Counsel at the University of Michigan 100 Years of Struggle - Mandela's ANC Heidi Holland,2012-09-28 Despite the African National Congress being at the height of its powers its future is today less certain than at any time in its long history In the past the liberation movement went through two huge transformations with remarkable agility the first at the instigation of the hot headed young rebel Nelson Mandela He brought about changes that drove the organisation from gentlemanly petitions to armed resistance The second great shake up in the ANC occurred twenty two years ago as Mandela emerged from prison when the movement transformed itself from deep socialist militancy to centre left political conformity But it was at the time dominated by realistic courageous leaders like Mandela Sisulu and Tambo who are no longer steering the vast juggernaut through the third revolution that is under way now The ANC s struggle for freedom was supposed to have ended with its election to office in 1994 when it defeated apartheid But rampant unemployment income distribution as skewed as anywhere on earth catastrophic corruption inferior education and lingering racial tensions cast shadows that lengthen with each passing year Whether the ANC with its current leadership still has the flexibility to transform itself and survive the anarchistic onslaught of politicians like Julius Malema remains to be seen International Handbook of Universities ,2010 Systemic Racism in South Africa Rupert Taylor,2024-12-06 This book takes a critical macro level political sociological perspective to understanding South African politics and society Applying systemic racism theory to South Africa the author argues that South African society through its exclusionary social mechanisms has assumed a systemically racist form that deeply compromises questions of truth and justice Constitutive of and embedded in the structure of South African society racism has a reach and a durability that runs deep through the successive stages of segregationism apartheid and liberal democracy Showing the limits of the rule of law in a racist society the author offers a theoretically informed interpretation as to why the national liberation struggle has fallen short of its promise to deliver a better life for all and as to why truth and justice remain so deeply compromised in South Africa today The arguments advanced are supported by over thirty semi structured interviews conducted by the author with high profile South African politicians jurists and intellectuals as well as by using Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearing transcripts both public and top secret This thought provoking book is driven by the imperative to offer a compelling and sustained argument for taking a systemic racism approach to interpreting South Africa for scholars and students of sociology political science race and ethnic studies law and South African history Yesterday in Paradise Cyprian Fernandes, 2016-09-15 Author Cyprian Fernandes was born a war baby in 1943 in Kenya Forced to leave school at the age of thirteen because he would not drop his pants for a caning Fernandes experienced a wild and epic childhood In Yesterday in Paradise he tells his story growing up in colonial British East Africa With a history of the region and the people originating from the state of Goa India and the Republic of Kenya East Africa woven in Fernandes shares a host of stories that became a part of his first twenty plus years He was in the middle of the bloodcurdling Mau Mau rebellion and was arrested with thousands of others He was there when Pio Gama Pinto was murdered He embarked on an adventure that eventually took him to the four corners of the Earth He travelled the length and breadth of Africa the United Kingdom and Europe as an investigative reporter Providing a look at Fernandes eventful past Yesterday in Paradise narrates a memoir filled with prejudice murder conflict and more He shares the events the people and the many many places that fashioned his life Bechuanaland Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1956 The Role of the South African Government in Tertiary Education John Dreijmanis, 1988 The Evolution of Liberal Arts in the Global Age Peter Marber, Daniel Araya, 2017-03-16 Advanced and developing countries across the globe are embracing the liberal arts approach in higher education to foster more innovative human capital to compete in the global economy Even as interest in the tradition expands outside the United States can the democratic philosophy underlying the liberal arts tradition be sustained Can developing countries operating under heavy authoritarian systems cultivate schools predicated on open discussion and debate Can entrenched specialist systems in Europe and Asia successfully adopt the multidisciplinary liberal arts model These are some of the questions put to leading scholars and senior higher education practitioners within this edited collection Beginning with historical context international contributors explore the contours of liberal arts education amid public calls for change in the United States the growing global interest in the approach outside the United States as well as the potential of liberal arts philosophy in a global knowledge economy
